When returning from Petoskey about 8 p.m. last Wednesday night, a big black bear lumbered across US 31 north between the railroad spur and the main entrance to the Big Rock Point nuclear power plant, forcing Mr. Maxson to slow his car or hit the animal.

Mr. Maxson said there was no mistaking the animal which was traveling along a known deer run in the area. He thought the animal might have been returning from Lake Michigan to the swamp area south and east of the C & O railroad tracks.

Unveiling of Plaque Marks Dedication of New Clubhouse

A plaque bearing this simple legend "In recognition of the faithful services of Walter H. Henley, this building is gratefully dedicated" was unveiled Sunday at the new clubhouse at the Charlevoix municipal golf course to highlight the dedication of the new $35,000 structure.

Mayor E. D. Hawley officiated at the unveiling of the plaque which marked the dedication of the building to Mr. Henley, whose work as greenskeeper at the municipal course for the past 10 years has made the course one of the most popular and successful of its kind.

A picture of Mr. Henley was also placed in the clubhouse.

Mrs. Henley was presented with a lovely bouquet of roses by Mrs. Keith Carey who has assisted her husband in the management of the course since 1954.

Dean Davenport, president of the Lions Club and former mayor, was master of ceremonies at the brief ceremony which marked the dedication. He related the history of the course which was given to the city by the Chicago Club in 1935. The course was maintained as an 18 hole course and operated at a loss until it was revised as a nine-hole course. Since then it has been operated in the black. He spoke briefly of the late Frank Poole and Mrs. Poole who now lives in Florida who managed the course in its early years as a nine-hole course. Other former mayors, Robert Bridge and James Hiller spoke briefly and a message from Karl J. Erber was read. Members of the city council, other city officials and former councilmen were among the more than 100 people who gathered for the dedication ceremony.

Recogniton was also given Hal M. Hill, former City superintendent, and Ray L. Kipke, former second ward alderman, for their efforts in the development of the course.

Mr. Carey, under whose management the course has been developed to its present status, also spoke briefly and presided at the drawing for the nine prizes donated by local merchants as part of the recent promotion program at the course. Winners were Neil Taylor of Ellsworth, Robert Witners, Mrs. Gene Stone, Mrs. Robert Anderson, William Grauel of East Jordan, Max Hosmer, Tom Webb, Arthur Krulik and Mr. Gene Stone.

A tour of the clubhouse was enjoyed by the group who had gathered for the dedication ceremony. Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Carey at the close of the tour.

Miss Margrett Milner has arrived from Detroit to apend the summer with her sisters, the Misses Floranz and Frances Milner.

Softball Program Gets Underway

The largest softball program in the history of the City Softball League was launched this week despite rain which 'washed out' the season's openers on Monday.

The Class A Men'a League promises lots of good ball this season with the defending champions, American Mold, receiving plenty of oppostion from other teams of the league including a newcomer, Morweld Steel of Ellsworth.

In the Junior league Barnard is a favorite to repeat with Browe's a strong contender for the title as the season gets underway.

In the peanut league it will be a toss-up all the way with the defending champions, the Red Sox who are now known as the Lions, being pressed by the Cubs, Braves and Cardinals.

In the Women's league, Paul-Reed's are expected to be strong contenders for the title now held by Puff's.

Interest in the newly-organized 18 in. blooper ball league for senior players, men over 30, has been running high. This group will launch its season next Wednesday. All Senior league games will be played on Wednesday night. Men interested in participating in this league are asked to contact Dean Davenport, recreation director.

Board of Education To Hold Special Election July 20

The Charlevoix board of education, at its regular meeting Monday night, voted to ask again for a two mill tax levy in a special election scheduled for Friday, July 20.

The issue was defeated by 18 votes at the annual election held June 11.

The two mills are necessary if the budget as adopted by the school board is to be followed. Included in the budget was the cost of engaging five new teachers, including a kindergarten teacher, three upper elementary instructors and a junior high teacher and rising cost of operation.

Contest Develops For Aug. Primary

Voters were assured of three contests on the county level as the deadline for filing nominating petitions for the Aug. 7 primary election passed Tuesday.

Incumbent Sheriff Glenn E. Rose, a candidate on the Republican ballot, will be opposed by Merle W. Karlskin of Boyne City, a Democrat, and incumbent Grover C. Geneit will be opposed by Democrat Arthur S. Osborn for the office of register of deeds.

On the Republican ticket, Harvey C. Varnum, incumbent county prosecutor, will be opposed by Robert C. Klevorn of Boyne City.

Other incumbents who will be unopposed for their respective offices in the Aug. 7 election are: Lillis M. Flanders, treasurer; Mary C. Fiendt, surveyor; Fenton R. Bulow, clerk; and James D. Stackus of Boyne City, coroner. Dr. Robert G. Martin, incumbent coroner, did not file for reelection.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Burns and son, Timmy, visited with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Burns, enroute from Flint to the upper peninsula where Mrs. Burns and son will spend the summer in Menominee while Mr. Burns attends the summer session at Northern Michigan College.

To Pave Entrance Road to Big Rock Nuclear Plant

The Big Rock Point Nuclear plant Information Center will be closed this weekend so contractors can prepare the entrance road for paving. The entrance at US-31 will be barred to visitors from 4:30 p.m. Friday, June 22 to 8 a.m. Tuesday, June 26.

Consumers Power Company officials said the paving project is made necessary because of the many thousands of visitors who use the winding gravel road connecting the plant information center with the highway. They said a paved surface would help keep dust down and allow traffic to move more smoothly.

Visitor's hours at the plant will be resumed Tuesday and continue through the summer. They are 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. daily.

Free Golf Play Attracts 1105

Nine days of free golf at the Charlevoix municipal golf course attracted 1105 golfers, Kieth Carey, club manager, has reported.

The event was sponsored by the course management, the city of Charlevoix and the Chamber of Commerce to attract area golfers as well as visiting golfers to the nine-hole golf course.

Participation averaged 123 players per day despite some inclement weather early last week. Of the 1105 golfers, approximately 44 per cent or 487 were from out of town with Petoskey accounting for 180. A total of 59 communities in the state were represented among the participants with 27 players from out of state, including one from Hawaii, taking advantage of the special event.

In summing up the program, Mr. Carey speaking in behalf of the sponsoring groups said he felt the event was very worthwhile and certainly brought to the attention of state golfers the fact that Charlevoix had excellent golfing facilities which were easily accessable to everone.

He added that three times as many golfers made use of the facilities at the municipal course as had used them during a comparable time in other years. This was due, in part, to better weather conditions, than in previous years but the speiial free golf probably accounted for the major part of the increase.

Cyclists Have Responsibility Too

A tragedy last week snuffed out the lives of two boys riding a bicycle which leads us to the point that bicycle riders on public thoroughfares are subject to the same traffic regulations as are the drivers of motor vehicles. Who was at fault in the case cited is not for us to decide. The point is that two young lives were lost in an accident that possibly could have been avoided.

Why more accidents of this kind have not happened in Charlevoix seems a miracle. It is not uncommon here to see bicycle riders dash across stop streets without stopping, and riding zig zag down the streets with apparently little attention to cars or lanes of traffic.

Alertness and caution on the part of drivers of vehicles has avoided innumerable accidents involving bicycles. But when one driver slips and injures or kills a child, he will be haunted by the sight for the rest of his life regardless of who was at fault. A child may be dead.

A service will be rendered bicycle riders if both parents and traffic officers bear down and insist that the rider has a responsibility as well as the motorist. Of course youngsters will think adults are old fogies and will never realize the difference until they are grown up and have children of their own.

Now that President Kennedy has had such great success in controlling prices in the steel industry, there is no reason to believe he won't use the same tactics again, especially when he can make political hay . . . The president no doubt had what he considered to be the best interest of the country at heart, but what he did was wrong. It was not right for him to wield such crushing power. He has opened the lid to Pandora's box. The frightening things that will crawl out will accelerate our drift to the left, to the swamps of socialism, to the frustrations of a controlled economy and to the despondency of the most crushing depression this country has ever known.—Bisbee, Ariz., Brewery Gulch Gazette.

BETWEEN YOU AND ME

A Prayer Prayed in a Stiff Breeze

O Lord,
Help me
To welcome adversity
As a time of self-discovery,
Knowing that occasions of testing
Do not weaken a man,
But show
How much of Thy strength
Within Him.

The group, accompanied by the U.S. Coast Guard, departed Friday for the island located approximately 26 miles west of here in Lake Michigan, went ashore, camped over the weekend, cooking their meals over open fires despite the rain and fog. They returned Monday, a day later than planned, because of the dense fog that blanketed the area. The U.S. Coast Guard also escorted them on the return trip. While on the island they explored its many dunes, dense woods and heaches and helped finance the trip by salvaging net corks which they sold for $14.72 upon their return to Charlevoix.

SLEEP ON A Simmons WONDERFUL Beautyrest

Be comfortable and thrifty too. Each individually pocketed coil in Beautyrest pushes up separately to support each part of your body. And, at $79.50, Beautyrest is the least expensive mattress to own. In durability tests, competing against all leading mattresses, Beautyrest stood up 3 times longer than the next best. Come in and see this remarkable Simmons mattress and its matching box spring.

WE LOVE A BARGAIN... just like anybody else. But even though we're as careful as the most efficient housewife, our supply purchases tally up to quite an impressive annual figure. In 1961, for example, Michigan Bell's shopping bill—together with that of the Western Electric Company, the Bell System's supply unit—came to almost $58 million. We spent this with more than 1,400 businesses in 160 communitiea throughout the state. So these purchases not only go to provide you with good telephone service; they contribute to the growth of Michigan'a economy.

SUMMER'S COMIN' IN! And that means sun, fun, and your long-awaited vocation. Wharaver you're going, why not pack more comfort and leisure into your trip by putting Long Distance to work for you? Advonce reservotions are a must these crowded days, so always be sure af a bed by phoning ohead. And don't forget the folks back home. They'll love hearing all about your vacation, and you'll double your fun by telling them about your adventures.

A STITCH IN TIME... that's the thinking behind Michigan Bell's automatic line testing. Special equipment at many of our central offices makes automatic tests periodically on telephone lines. For example, if a minor electrical defect is located, the information is recorded so that the problem can be fixed promptly—usually without interrupting service. Automatic line testing saves money in the long run, while it helps us give you dependable service every minute of the day, every day of the year.

Beaver Islander Launched at Sturgeon Bay

The new Beaver Island ferry, to be known as the Beaver Islander, was launched at the shipyards of the Sturgeon Bay Shipbuilding and Drydock Co. in Wisconsin last Wednesday.

Pictured above is the 96½ ft. steel vessel now nearing completion as it was lowered into the water for the first time via a marine railway at the shipyard in Sturgeon By.

The superstructure including the passenger quarters and pilot house have been pre-fabricated and with other equipment will be added to the ship now that it has been launched.

The ship, which will replace the ferry Emerald Isle, on the 32 mile run from Charlevoix to St. James harbor on Beaver Island, is scheduled for delivery about July 20 according to Karl J. Erber, president of the Beaver Island Boat Co. for which the vessel is being constructed at the cost of $200,000.

The twin screws which will be powered by two 500 hp diesel engines may be seen in the picture. The added speed is expected to cut up to 30 minutes of the run which now takes 2¾ hours.

The ship will carry 150 passengers and 12 cars. One of the features of the new boat will be the forward and rear decks which will be bridged to provide a larger space through which to load cars, trucks and trailers. The present ferry carries 115 passengers and eight vehicles. It is powered by a 380 hp. single screw engine.

The Beaver Islander will replace the 72 ft. motorship Emerald Isle which was built in 1955 at the Christy Corp. in Sturgeon Bay at the cost of $80,000. The vessel has been sold to the Arnold Transit Co. of Mackinac Island for use on the company's ferry run between Mackinaw City or St. Ignace and Mackinac Island. The Emerald Isle was sold to the ferry company for $68,000.

To Present First Summer Concert July 4

Presenting a program filled with patriotic selections in honor of Independence Day, the Charlevoix City Band will open its series of weekly summer "Concerts in the Park" at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday, July 4.

A tradition of the summer season in Charlevoix, the band will appear under the direction of C. A. Odmark who is beginning his fifteenth series of concerts with the band.

The opening concert, falling as it does on the first holiday of the summer season, will feature American music and patriotic selections in honor of the great American holiday. Included will be such numbers as the marches, National Emblem, Americans We and the Stars and Stripes Forever as well as the Victory Selection and American Patrol. A full hour's program will be presented beginning at 8:30 p.m. from the park stage in East Park.

The 46-piece musical organization is composed of residents of the community and surrounding areas, a nucleus of adults, augmented by returning college students and outstanding members of the Charlevoix high school band. The adult members of the band who form the nucleus include Mrs. Jerry Shupert, flutist; Arthur Nettleton and James Bearss, clarinetist; Ilo Helms, John Kroken and Clarence Peters, cornetists; Robert Gill, baritone; Pat Moran and David Patrie, trombonists; Clifford Riley, Sousaphone and Byron Stockwell, drummer.

Also playing with the group will be Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Smith of East Jordan, clarinetists. Mr. Smith is director of the East Jordan high school band. He will bring a number of his better students with him. John Wynn of Petoskey, a clarinetist, will also play with the band as will Rex Thustin of Bay View and Detroit, a drummer, who will appear with the band during several concerts this season.

The band is entirely a non-professional group in that all members are contributing their time and talents in order to present the series of concerts. A different program is played at each nine concerts which are presented every Wednesday during July and August for entertainment of the residents of the community and Charlevoix's summer visitors.

The cost of the program is underwritten by the city of Charlevoix as one of its services to the public.

City Tax Rates Among Lowest in Michigan

Few can remember when property taxes in Charlevoix, or most any other city, have taken a drop dollars and cents wise. Local property owners will get a pleasant surprise to the tune of $5.08 reduction when they receive their summer tax notice next week. That's the word from Herbert Campbell, deputy city clerk.

The city tax this year is levied at eight mills on the state equalized valuations and is one of the lowest rates in the state, according to Mr. Campbell. Heretofore property was assessed on the county equalized valuation.

Despite the fact that state equalized valuations are $490 more than the county valuation last year, the actual city tax paid by the property owner this year will be $5.08 less.

The 1962 budget necessitated only eight mill tax levy on the city's new state equalized valuation of $7,801,350 which will bring in $62,410.80 in revenue. This will be supplemented by $30,000 from the electrical fund to meet the budget needs from taxes.

Of the eight mills being levied, six mills will be allocated to the general city fund and two mills to the street districts.

The difference in the valuation on which the millage is levied resulted from the adoption of one tax base figure, the state equalized valuation figure, by the Charlevoix county board of supervisors last fall.

In the city of Charlevoix, this meant that valuations would have to be increased 1.49 per cent to bring the valuations up to the state level. As a result, every $1,000 valuation was increased to $1,490. The increased valuation thus made it possible to levy less millage to raise the same revnue. When the council voted earlier this spring to supplement the budget with $30,000 from the electric fund it made it possible to cut the summer taxes. These taxes are used solely for city operational costs.

The summer tax is payable by Sept. 15. If paid after that date there is a penalty of four percent.

Russia is now employing a powerful capitalistic persuader, incentive payments, in an effort to increase farm output and make good repeated promises to raise the standard of living and improve the national diet . . . . COME IN AND SEE

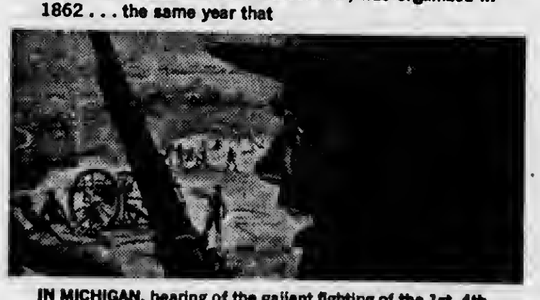
It happened 100 YEARS ago

The oldest incorporated trade association in the country, the United States Brewers Association, was organized in 1862 . . . the same year that



IN MICHIGAN, hearing of the gallant fighting of the 1st, 4th, 5th and 7th Michigan regiments against the Confederacy, folks all over the state toasted their troops' bravery with foaming steins of beer.

For then as now, beer was the traditional beverage of moderation. But beer means more than enjoyment to our state. The Brewing Industry pays more than 16 million dollars in taxes to Michigan each year, money that helps support our parks, hospitals and schools.

TODAY, in its centennial year, the United States Brewers Association still works constantly to assure maintenance of high standards of quality and propriety wherever beer and ale are served.

Ceremony Marks Installation of Atwood Minister

Atwood—The Rev. John Hamersma who completed his studies at Western Theological Seminary in Holland in May, was ordained and installed as pastor of the Atwood Reformed church in an impressive ceremony held at the church Wednesday evening.

The Rev. Allan Dykstra of Grand Rapids, former pastor of the Rev. Mr. Hamersma's home parish in Patterson, N.J., delivered the sermon at the ordination service.

Others who participated in the rites were the Rev. Donald Van Gent, pastor of the Atwood Christian Reformed church, who gave the invocation, scripture reading and prayer;: the Rev. Louis Harvey of Falmouth who read the form for ordination and installation; the Rev. Wilbur Daniels of Glen Lake who gave the charge to the minister and the Rev. Charles A. Stoppels of Charlevoix, moderator for the Atwood church in the absence of a pastor, who gave the charge to the congregation. The ceremony concluded with the prayer for grace by the Rev. Henry Zwaanstra of the Ellsworth Christian Reformed church and the benediction by the Rev Hamersma.

The Consistory headed by Versal Shooks hosted a social hour following the ceremony.

Attending were the Rev. and Mrs. Hamersma and those who officiated at his ordination and installation.

On Friday the Rev. and Mrs. Hamersma and their sons, Thomas and Edward, were honored at a reception given by the congregation at the Atwood Reformed church.

A native of Patterson, N.J., Rev. Hamersma was graduated from Hope College in Holland before studying for the ministry at Western Theological Seminary, also in Holland.

County 4-H Groups Urged to Organize Summer Projects

Charlevoix County 4-H members are urged by Ed Rebman, County Extension Director, to organize their club as soon as possible. An early start lets the members complete the projects in plenty of time for the fall show.

Enrollment blanks and a list of material for summer 4-H projects has been sent to all the 4-H leaders. If you are a new leader or a parent interested in the summer programs, call at the Extension Office for the information.

Projects that are adapted to the summer program include: Conservation, crops, dairy, dogs, entomology, flower garden, foods, landscape, livestock, photography, rabbits, safety, and vegetable garden. There is a project to fit every interest and there is a possibility that members may plan a new project.

The fall show will again be held at Whiting Park on Labor Day. To make this the most successful year in 4-H, will take the cooporation of all parents, leaders, and members. Maybe a word from you as a parent is all your boy or girl needs to start a 4-H project.

"We in the Extension Office are always pleased to go out and help 4-H clubs," Ed. Rebman said. "Just call and we can make arrangements to meet with you."

On Sunday morning, Ken Smith was the speaker at the chapel service and spoke on "Building a Reputation". He stressed that now was the time, at the start of the new season, to make a fresh strat to building the kind of a reputation that makes people like.

Sunday afternoon the entire camp went through physical exams and swimming tests. Sunday evening, Vesper Services were held in all sections. Jerry Flora, of the Waterfront Department, was the speaker. The boys were very attentive and got much from his talk.

On Monday the boys were given a short orientation of all the activities the camp offers. Each activity man explained his activities to the campers and introduced himself and his assistants. The season is off to a great start with some very fine boys and a truly great staff.

Students to Spend Summer in Europe

Courier Photo

Three Charlevoix high school juniors who are looking forward to spending the summer in Europe are pictured here studying the map of the section where they will live with European families.

They are: (l to r) Martha E. Coleman who will be at Gorinchem near Rotterdam in the Netherlands, James Ferguson who will go to Neustadt in Germany and Elaine Martin who will go to northern Germany but who has not been informed at this time of the city.

All three will depart later this month via plane from Detroit under the Youth for Understanding program sponsored by the Michigan Council of churches. They will go to Ansterdam where they will be met by their respective 'foster' parents and taken to the homes of the families with whom they will spend the next two months.

Martha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Coleman, will be with the van Helden family who have two daughters, Tineke, 19 and Hermine, 17. Gorinchem is a city of 22,000 people located near the River Merwede.

Jim, son of Mrs. Marge Ferguson, will spend the summer in Neustadt with the parents of Ulrich Kallmeyer, Mr. and Mrs. Erik Kallmeyer, who has spent the past school year in Charlevoix with the E. D. Hawley family. Ulrich also has a younger sister at home.

Elaine, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert G. Martin, is the second member of her family to go abroad under this program. She knows she will leave June 19 for northern Germany but on Tuesday had not been informed of the name of her family or the city in which they live.

This is the fourth year that Charlevoix youngsters have participated in the Youth for Understanding program. Last year Sharon Abfalter and Tony Duerr made the trip to Germany; in 1960 Marilou VerWys and Ann Martin were in the Netherlands and Germany, respectivcly and in 1959 Carolyn Kohn went to Germany.

While in Europe the trio will live with families who have asked to host American students and who have been approved by the officials of the Council.

American students from Charlevoix who participate in the program pay their own way. Anyone who might wish to support this program may do so by leaving their contribution at either of the local banks.

Circlin' The Bases

By DEANO

A LEAGUE RACE TIGHT

The A league is in an almost unbelievable state with all four teams tied for first place. The tie is bound to be broken this week when all teams get back into action.

The old baseball axiom that "the game is never over until the final out" was never truer in the Mold-Lake Construction tilt. With two men out in the bottom of the seventh, bases empty, and mold leading 2-0 it happened. Lake Construction's Joe Armstrong was safe when Mold's first baseman pulled his foot on what would have made the final out. Merritt Clark followed with a pinch-hit three bagger, Roger Towsley followed with a double off the fence to tie the game. Pat Anderson climaxed it with a two strike single to score Towsley with the winning run. Up to the fatal seventh Mold pitcher Nate Boss had allowed the Construction gang only one hit a tinted bunt single by Armstrong. Joe McDermott's first inning homer was wasted in the Mold first inning.

Klooster Pitches Perfect Game

Bob Klooster went into the record books as he pitched a perfect no hit no run game retiring 21 straight batters. More amazing is the fact that the big right hander struck out 17. His Ellsworth Morweld Steel teammates backed him up with a hitting attack for a 5-0 win over Ironton.

In earlier games during the week Mold opened the season by downing Morweld Steel 4-1. Boss twirled a neat three-hitter with Des Milligan leading the Mold attack with two safeties.

Ironton won their opener by scoring six times in the final two innings to break a 1-1 deadlock with Lake Construction. Ironton pitcher Ted Potter allowed only one hit in the 7-1 win.

B League Race Close

The B league race was also tight with both Braves and VFW undefeated. Barnard is close on their heels with one loss.

Barnard opened the season in great style with a 14-0 win over the Scouts with Mike Crain allowing the losers only a single by John Ochs in the third inning. Doug Warner led the winners with three hits including a double and triple.

VFW scored a seventh inning run to edge Lake Construction 3-2. Kesley's two-out single scored the winning run. Andy and Randy Carey each had two hits for the winners. Mike Brinker allowed only four hits.

Browe Electric scored an important win over strong Barnard by pushing home three fifth inning runs and a 6-3 victory. Stan Towsley and Bruce Kroken contributed key Browe hits in the rally.

Cards Surprise in Peanut League

The Cardinals, who did not win a game last season, have collected three straight wins to go into the league lead in the peanut league. They bested the Lions 7-3, the Braves 9-6, and handed the Cubs their first loss 9-5. The Tigers won two squeakers beating the Dodgers 13-11 and the Lions 9-8. The Cubs posted wins over th Bravs 9-6 and the Dodgers 21-1.

Blooper Ball Set for Senior Men

The first game in the newly organized blooper ball league was plaied last night (Wed.) This league is played with a 16 inch ball and is for men over 30 years of age. Another team is being formed and those interested may sign up at the ball field.

Masonic Rites Held Monday For Wm. Bellinger

William C. Bellinger, 81, a native of Charlevoix and its oldest businessman, died Friday at the Charlevoix hospital following a brief illness that had hospitalized him only four days.

Masonic funeral rites were conducted under the auspices of the Charlevoix lodge No. 282, F.&A.M. at the Winchester Funeral Home on Monday. The Rev. Raymond J. McBratnie officiated. Burial was in Brookside cemetery.

Mr. Bellinger, who was born in Charlevoix Apr. 10, 1881, the son of the late Charles and Adeline Bellinger, early settlers here, had operated a business on Bridge st. since 1901 when he opened a novelty shop. As the times changed his stock included sporting goods such as archery and fishing equipment and musical instruments.

A lover of music, Mr. Bellinger began his musical career at the age of 11 years when he played clarinet with one of Charlevoix's first bands. He continued to encourage music in the community and set an example for the youth of Charlevoix by playing with city bands for 66 years. Upon his retirement from active particiapation in 1958, he was honored at a testimonial dinner attended by many of the people with whom he had played during the years. Though no longer active in musical circles, he continued to support both the high school musical program and the city band concerts.

He was always interested in boats and as a hobby built various types of crafts. He constructed a total of 25, the largest a 36 ft. auxillary schooner.

Mr. Bellinger was also a member of the First Methodist church, a life member of the Charlevoix Masonic lodge No. 282, the Charlevoix Marine club, the U.S. Power squadron, a former member of the Knights of Pythias and the Charlevoix city band.

His wife, the former Eleanor Greenaway, whom he married in 1904, preceded him in death in 1921.

He is survived by two sons, Charles and James of Charlevoix; two daughters, Mrs. George (Adeline) Wollam of Traverse City and Mrs. Joseph L. (Wilma) Smith of Charlevoix; 10 grandchildren 10 great-grandchildren and ona sister, Mrs. Martha Dutton of West Branch.

Out of respect for the veteran businessman, local places of business were closed during the hour of the funeral.

Petition City to Revise Parking Violation Charge

Business people petitioned the City Council Monday night to revise the penalty for parking meter violations. The petition, signed by 39 persons in the business section, suggested that a courtesy violation ticket with a penalty of 25 cents be attached to cars left in parking areas longer than the allotted time. The present penalty is $1.00.

The petition was circulated and presented by John Schroeder of Schroeder Drug Store and Gordon Neff of Neff Bros. Grocery. The committee of two was informed that the council would stuly the situation.

Most of the persons signing the petition did not believe the use of courtesy tickets would solve the parking situation, Mr. Schroeder said, but they did feel it would eliminate much of the animosity created among shoppers who unintentionally overrun their parking meter time. He pointed out that other northern Michigan cities have adopted the courtesy ticket plan and he believes Charlevoix shoppers are entitled to a more lenient policy.

School District Calls Special Election to Raise Two Mills

Friday, July 20, has been set as the date for the special school election during which residents of the Charlevoix school district will vote on a proposed two mills tax levy to underwrite the cost of hiring five new teachers and rising cost of operations.

The issue was turned down by 16 votes in the regular school election June 11.

It has been found that one of the reasons the issue was vetoed at that time was the fact that most people were under the impression that Charlevoix school district would stand to gain by the new state aid bill which increased the State Aid to schools from $205 to $224 or $10 more per student membership. However, what most people did not take into consideration was the fact that the deductible millage was increased from 3¼ to 3 7/8 mills and as a result the Charlevoix district will lose money, rather than gain by the increase.

Using the membership of 1014 on which the Charlevoix school district received its State Aid during the 1961-62 school year, the local schools received $185,528 in state aid for the recent school year.

Under the new state aid formula, using the same membership of 1014, Charlevoix will receive $162,717 in State Aid during the 1962-63 school year or $2,811 less than it reccived last year.

This freakish situation developed when the deductible millage was increased from 3¼ mills to 3 7/8 mills at the same time the state equalized valuation of the district was increased from $13,028,340 to $18,624,365.

The marked increase in the state equalized valuation of the school district, brought about chiefly by new property on the tax roll, coupled with the increased deductible millage has resulted in the district receiving less money through State Aid. However, it must be brought out here that the district will receive more revenue in taxes than before and must depend on this source for its budget needs.

Major single item in the budget, which has been increased approximately $30,000 over last year, is the cost of adding five new teachers to the present faculty. This alone will cost an estimated $24,000 to meet the need of a second kindergarten teacher, two more teachers in the upper four elementary grades because of the increased membership in these particular grades and two more teachers in the junior high school for the same reason, increased membership in certain gradea. The budget also allows for increased costs of operation including such items as higher insurance rates, teaching supplies and other operational costs which are rising in schools as they are elsewhere.

Area Girl Scout Counell Holds Organizational Meet

The organizational meeting of the New Crooked Tree Girl Scout Council which will embrace 11 northwestern Michigan counties was held in Traverse City Wednesday.

Mrs. C L. Lindstrom of Traverse City is president of the council which takes its name from the trees which were bent as saplings to guide travelers along the old Mackinac trail.

The decision to form an area council to replace local councils, such as Charlevoix has had in the past, followa two years of promotion by a development committee headed by Mrs. Lloyd Arnold. Mrs. James W. Gallagher and Mrs. Robert O. Pearl are also members of the re-organization committee composed of representatives from the 11 counties to be included in the council. They are: Antrim, Benzie, Emmet, Grand Traverse, Kalkaska, Leelanau, Maniatee, Mason, Missaukee, Wexford and Charlevoix counties.

The new council will be divided into 'neighborhoods'. There will be 11 in the Crooked Tree council, not necessarily bounded by county lines. For instance, included in the council to which Charlevoix will belong will be East Jordan, Boyne City, Ellsworth, Mancelona, Bellaire, Alden and Central Lake. Each 'Neighborhood' will be governed by a service team composed of chairman troop organizer and troop consultant. All registered Girl Scout adults will become members of the 'neighborhood association'.

Each 'neighborhood' will be represented on the council board of directors which will name its own officers from among area representatives.

Officers of the new council will be located at 318½ S. Union st. in Traverse City. The council will have a paid executive director and two district advisors who will assist volunteers, who comprise 98 per cent of the adults in the program, through conferences, training and meetings. In addition there will be a bookkeeper-registrar and a cashier-receptionist at the office.

Under the area council, Charlevoix is expected to benefit through more assistance for leaders of Senior and Intermediate troops; through planned events for these older girls in the entire council; skilled assistance in making the change over from a three to a four-level program during the 1962-63

William Bellinger

The late William 'Bill' Bellinger, one of the communities oldest residents, was a reliable source of information to us when reviewing the past. And the history of the past seems more valuable with each year.

Whenever we had requests for information about the history of Charlevoix, we could refer the inquirer to Bill and a few others, confident that the information given would not be garbled by the years.

Bill has contributed more to the community than many have realized. We might all remember that he was active in assuring band concerts in the park and he was equally interested in the marine activities in Charlevoix. But above all he loved and believed in Charlevoix.

Years take their toll and the services rendered by Bill must now be assumed by others.

Taxpayer's Dream

The tax cut that came to Charlevoix property owners this summer is a dream come true. When most every other unity of government is trying to get more from the taxpayer, the city administration has done the impossible. It has reduced taxes.

How Charlevoix can reduce taxes $5.08 per thousand dollars assessed valuation under present rising costs would make a long and detailed report. The point is, that the city officials have done a commendable job in running city government efficiently and at the same time cut the costs to those who pay the bill.

From the editor's chair we don't always agree with the city fathers, but we'll think twice before we accuse them of not working for the best interests of the citizens.

I wonder what's the matter with an economy where a businessman has to borrow money to pay income taxes.—South San Gabriel, Calif., Independent.

From the Editor's Desk

We've traded a "Sane Fourth of July" for a big traffic hazzard. For my money I'll take the old fireworks with the few casualties of yesterday as compared to these of recent holidays.

I'll go along with a statement by John Adams: I am apt to believe that it (Independence Day) will be celebrated by succeeding generations as the great anniversary festival. It ought to be commemorated, as the day of deliverance, by solemn acts of Devotion to God Almighty. It ought to be solemized with pomp and parade, with shows, games, sports, guns, bells, bonfires and illuminations from one end of this continent to the other from this time forward forevermore." (July 3, 1776).

It's rumored that a dividend check issued to one of our citizens has been embedded in the new sidewalk at East Park—possibly for safe-keeping.

Free gas for motoriats stranded on Michigan's freeways is a new service by the state. It will be most welcome to the motorist when he runs out of gas to have a State Police cruiser stop and give him enough fuel to get to the next exit. We doubt if many motorists would object to paying for the fuel but with the state so desperate for money it probably won't be long before another cent is added to the gas tax to pay for the service.

We seem confused by all the to-do over reapportionment of the state senate. The basic principle of a two house legislature is to have members of one house elected on district population and the other house members elected on a basis on a predetermined number of members from each area or district.

The big fuss in Michigan seems to be a back-door approach to get both senators and representatives elected on a population basis. When and if that happens a few counties in southeast Michigan will have complete control of the state legislature.

Attorney General Frank J. Kelley, in a recent news release points out there is discrimination in the state senate because the largest district has a population of 690,503 and the smallest has 55,806. By the same token New York state with a population of approximately 16 million has two members in the United States senate while Nevada with a population of less than three million also has two members in the senate. The balance is attained by New York and Nevada having representation in the congress on a basis of population. We can't recall any form of government yet devised that provides more equitable representation than that provided by the constitution of the United States.

News Round-up at Camp Charlevoix

The first week of camp is always a most exciting time as boys are busy msking friends, seeing new things, and trying new skills. On Monday, the campers were given an orientation period during which each activity man presented his special activity and told the boys all about it. As the groups were going about camp, each explanation offered a new challenge to them, and making a choice was a most difficult decision.

On Tuesday, the boys started in on the activity of their choice and it was a thrill to see the boys so happily engaged. Once agsin, the nature department has already proven very popular with two men from last year's staff, Ted Fleming and John Stephensen, in chsrge The very first group in the morning collected a large wood-chuck, many snakes, turtles, frogs, a rabbit, a deer skull, etc. and their area in camp is really something to see. Several of the older boys in camp are in this morning nature group as they are preparing an insect collection for biology next fsll at their respective schools.

On Wednesday, the trips department got under way with three overnight trips leaving camp. The first trip to leave camp for this 1962 season was the canoe trip, Cabin 19, with John McFarland in charge. These boys chose to come down the Jordan River and paddle the entire length of Lake Charlevoix back into camp. The boys on this trip were: Don Strutz, Wayne Alpern, Roger Sims, Mike Strapulos, Steven Sholty, with two of our C.I.T.'s John Rotz and John Deane. The next trip to leave camp was Cabin 20, with Dave Garland in charge, and these boys took the first horseback trip of the year. They rode to Bay Shore for overnight. John Appel, was in charge and the boys were: Wayne Standefer, David Connelly, Jay Heitz, George Pfleger, John Guba and Jim Ratliff. Jerry Flora, counsellor in Cabin 16 took a truck down to Young's State Park for their first overnight. The boys were: Don Thwaite, Bob Logan, George Stearns, Frank Kolbert, Al Knoblock, Bob Hamburger, and Joe Hutchinson. In the evening, the first all-Camp night was held in the "Bigwam" with the first movie of the year being shown. The picture was the Three Stooges in "Stop, Look, Listen", and from the gales of laughter from both campers and staff, it was evident that it was enjoyed by all.

On thursday, all three trips returned to camp, and two others left. Cabin 18, Joe Fleming, counseiior, took an overnight horseback trip to Bay Shore. These boys were: D. J. Somers, Weldon Standefer, Wayne Hause, John Martindale, Bill Henderson, and Tom Hoyt. The next trip to leave camp was the first sailing trip of the year, with "Spotty" Adams taking his cabin 17 on the trip to Young's State Park. These boys were: Steve Martin, Russell Washburn, John Gould, David Arndt, and Mike Bugar. As this was the cooks' night out, the first cook-out was held and the boys really enjoyed it.

On Friday, the overnight trips returned to camp. The Green-Gray competition leaders were announced, the following boys were elected. The Green leaders this year are: Seniors, David Huck, Joe Hutchinson, and Jim Ratliff. The Intermediate Green leaders are: Mike Pliskin, Peter Renchard, and Greg Nyland. The Prep Green leaders are: John Danaher, Jim Kuehn, Paul Kirwin. The Junior Greens are being led by Chris Somers, Jim Sims snd Art Schultz. The Grey team elected the following boys to try to lead them to victory. In the Senior Section, Jay Heitz, John Fraim, and Mark Taylor were chosen; In the Intermediate Section, the Greys elected, Ralph Miesel, Sandy Coakley, and David Gerber. The Prep Grey leaders are: David Oberhelman, Chris Searles, and Tommy Bothwell. The Junior Greys are being led by Brad Rea, Scott Harris, and Scott Somers. We had quite a storm in the middle of the night.

Saturday was another beautiful day with the boys getting excited about the Initiation Council Fire that night. Many were the questions asked by the new campers and many were the worried faces that day. This first Council fire was held in the Council Ring, and the new boys were very impressed with the ritual. Four of our staff gave four challenges to the boys. Kerm Krueger spoke on "The Awareness in the camp Of God in Nature". Ford Wilson, a C.I.T. spoke on "What the Camper Should Get From His Summer At Camp". John Stephenson spoke on "The Camper's Responsibilities to Himself and His Cabin Group." Bill Wright spoke on "The Camper's Responsibilities to His Camp." It was a most impressive ceremony, and the boys filed out to the Council Ring silently thinking. No talking was allowed until the boys finally were in the camp proper.

On Sunday morning, Bill Townsend, Director of Activities, was the speaker and he gave a most stimulating talk on "Building Your Personality." The boys of cabin 21, our oldest boys in camp, assisted in the service, and did a very admirable job. These boys were: David Huck, David Gilmore, Marshall Moser, Marc Taylor, John Fraim, and Carl Baum. Sunday afternoon was an athletic activity afternoon, with the Green-Grey captains getting a line on their men so that when the actual competition for points starts on the Fourth of July, they will have some idea as to the talent in their group. The results tabulated in each of the many aports, showed that the Greys had won in every section.

On Sunday evening, The Juniors had their Vesper Service in their own Paul Bunyan Ring. The Senior Vespers were held in the Bigwam where Dennis Eichinger spoke on "The Value of a Personality in Sports".

We would like to advise the perents NOT to aend gum, candy, food or anything along this line, as it will be returned. Also, we wish to invite the parents and friends to the Camp Carnival on July 14 at three o'cock in the afternoon

By DEANO

The softball season got into full gear during the past week with teams in all seven leagues in action.

MEN'S LEAGUE

In the Men's league both American Mold and Morweld Steel were battling for first place with the other teams only a game back.

Morweld Steel edged Lake Construction by a 2-1 score. The Construction gang scored first and hung on to the one run lead until the bottom of the sixth. An infield error followed by Kloosster's 2-bagger sent in the tying run. It was the first hit off pitcher Ed Culbertson. Then in the bottom of the aeventh the winners collected base runners through a walk, hit batsman, and a fielders cholce. Then with two out veteran John Swanson aingled in the runner from third for the winning run.

In the other contest Mold got timely hitting and combined with shoddy Ironton fielding posted a 6-0 win. Mold'a four run aeventh inning broke up a close, highly-contested ball game.

BROWES LEAD IN B LOOP

Browe Electric blasted their nearest rival VFW 15-3 and in doing ao moved into first place all alone. McBride was the big gun for the winners.

Barnsrd remained in the race with a four run rally in the eighth inning to whip Lake Construction B 8-4. Gary Stutzman'a three hits and Herb Cummings's homer and single led the winner's attack. Mike Crain allowed the Construction crew only two hits.

VFW blasted the Scouts 17-8 in a loosely plsyed contest. A big six run sixth inning put the game out of reach.

MANY CONTRIBUTE TO PROGRAM

One of the reason's for the apparent success of our softball program is the willingness of many of the iocal merchants and industrialists to sponsor teams.

We of the city softball league would like to take this opportunity to thank the following sponsors who through the years have contributed much to Charlevoix and the softball program."

Sponsoring teams in the Men's league are American Mold, Lake Construction, Ironton, Morweld Steel, and Freedmans'. Junior league-Browe Electric, VFW, Lake Construction, Scouts, Barnard. Peanut League-Uhrick Salea and Service, Lions Club, Barnard, Terrill's Play Camp, LaBlancea Insurance Agency, Carey Insurance Agency, and Paul Bunyan; In the womens league-Paul-Reed, Puff's, Barnard, and Edwards Market; girls league-Dairy Queen and Carsons; Blooper ball league-Hill Top Dairy of Ironton and Maxbauers Dairy. (Two more sponsors are needed in this league.) Some of the above sponsors have been involvd for many years and some are just getting started.

"Censorship Through Taxation"

The hometown editors of this country don't favor "censorship through taxation".

Here is the story:

Some time ago the Internal Revenue Service laid down a rule which says that a business cannot deduct, as a business expense, money spent to influence legislation, even though the legislation in question directly and seriously affects it. This fiat has been applied to numbers of businesses—notably the electric utilities which, as a life-and-death matter, oppose the government ownership movement and legislation advancing it.

Pending in Congress is legislation known as the Boggs bill, which would revoke the IRS ruling, and permit business to present its side of controversies through advertising and otherwise without paying a heavy tax penalty for the privilege.

A short time ago The American Press, a magazine serving the home town papers of America, polled editors on a number of current legislative issues. One question asked whether or not they favored the Boggs bill. The "Yes" response was 69 per cent, as against 28 per cent saying "No", and three per cent offering no opinion.

Free speech and free expression of opinion, within the limits of established laws covering such matters as libel and misrepresentation, have always been considered basic rights in this country. But they approach the point of meaninglessness if a man or an organization has to pay through the nose in taxes in order to exercise them. The Internal Revenue Service ruling may be legal, but it scoffs at simple justice. The Boggs bill would correct injustice.

A Prayer For Growth

O Lord,
Who hast taught
The green things

Flowered things of earth to grow
In the dark stillness

Instruct my soul
How to use
dark hours

Trouble and adversity,
Distress and disappointment to add
Breadth and depth, height

An eager upward reach

Ellsworth leads in Men's Loop

A narrow 4-3 win over American Mold enabled Ellsworth Morweld Steel to move into first place in league standings.

For the Mold-men it was a heartbreakIng defeat. They were leading 3-2 when an error put an Ellsworth runner aboard in the bottom of the seventh. Tom Wieland then poked a four-bagger, scoring two runs to win the tight contest. Ken Balch and Nate Boss had provided Mold with their slim lead up to the fatal seventh inning. Balch doubled home two runs and Boss singled home another for the team's three runs.

Ironton scored in the bottom of the seventh in their game with Lake Construction to win by a 6-5 score. V. Hamilton's third hit of the night scored Ron Vandenberg with the winning run.

Ellsworth racked up a lop-sided win over Ironton behind the one-hit pitching of Bob Klooster. Jack VanLoo homered for the victors.

Home 'Shell Game' Can Rim Buyers

"Nothing down, nothing to pay until Octiber."

If you are thinking of buying a sbell home—that is, one with exterior finished and interior unfinished or semifinisbed—you will do well to spproach the "no down payment" promise with great caution. Many buyers of this increasingly popular type of home hsve found that the last, or "sudden death," payment suddenly goes sky-high. Thus, one such contract called for $5300 to be financed by payments of $39.00. The final payment came to $3900, and brougbt the entire contract to $3170 in interest charges on an original debt of $5300.

Most buyers of sbell homes are families of modest income who wish to save money by contributing their own labor. Thus, the balloon note often catches them unable to pay, in which case they have the alternative of refinancing the final payment snd incurring even more refinaeing charges, or of losing the home.

It is also well to check with your lswyer and banker to see if the sbell home is the bargain it appears to be. By the time you figure in your price of the lot, of the utilities, and of the labor required to finish the home, you may get a different picture of the price. The many reliable home contractors will welcome an opportunity to compare figures in this way, and to work with competent legal and financial advisers.

Car using gasoline without Platformate stopped here: 6186 feet
Same car using Super Shell with Platformate stopped here: 6454 feet

San Francisco—Super Shell with Platformate has just delivered a mileage bonus of 4.33 percent. Platformate is Super Shell's mileage ingredient. Shell engineers test Super Shell for mileage in many different types of cars, in many different places. Here's how the test above was run. Exactly 250 cc (about half a pint) of a fuel blended without Platformate was fed into the test car's engine. The car was started, accelerated to 30 miles per hour, then held there until fuel ran out and the car rolled to a stop. Distance: 6186 feet (indicated by dotted line in background). Next, test was repeated, using Super Shell—the same fuel as before but with Platformate added. Precise same volume of fuel. Same car. Same speed. Same driver. Same conditions. Distance: 6454 feet. That's 4.33 percent farther than the car traveled with non-Platformate gasoline.

MILEAGE TEST

New documented tests prove that one of Super Shell's 9 ingredients packs extra mileage into every gallon

THE picture above was snapped a few moments after Super Shell with an extra mileage ingredient called Platformate delivered a mileage bonus of 4.33 percent.

That's a typical result from a series of mileage tests Shell engineers recently ran on the outskirts of San Francisco.

The tests compared two gasolines. One was a gasoline Shell scientists purposely blended without Platformate. The other was Super Shell—the same gasoline as before but with Platformate added.

Shell engineers used a 1962 convertible for the tests. You may be driving a similar car right now.

In test after test, Super Shell with Platformate consistently took the car about 4 percent farther than the gasoline blended without Platformate.

NOTE: For more details on these tests, see caption under picture. And for technical data, write to the Shell Oil Company, 50 West 50 Street, New York 20, N. Y.

Platformate gets its name from the platinum re-forming process used to make it.

Pressures up to 600 pounds per square inch and temperatures up to 1000 degrees literally tear petroleum apart. A precious platinum catalyst then helps re-form the petroleum into super-energy components.

RESULT: Platformate can release more energy per gallon than the finest 100-octane aviation gasoline. Your engine can convert extra energy into extra mileage.

Super Shell has 9 ingredients for top performance

Extra mileage is just one part of the top performance story. Super Shell's other ingredients complete the picture. Here's what they are and what they do.

*TCP for power, mileage, longer plug life.
Pentane mix—for fast "warm-up."
Butane—for quick starts.
Anti-knock mix—to resist all kinds of knock.
Alkylate—to help control "high-speed knock."
"Cat-cracked" gasoline—for power.
Anti-ieer—added in eold weather to help eheek carburetor ieing stalls.
Gum preventive—to help keep carburetors clean inside.

SHELL

Super Shell—the gasoline with 9 ingredients for top performance

*Trademark for Shell's unique gasoline additive. Gasoline containing TCP is covered by U.S. Patent 2889212.

Townhouse Sold To S. Weisliks

The Town House, owned and operated the past five years by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Menard, has been purchased by Mr. and Mrs. S. Weislik formerly of Detroit.

Mr. Weislik was formerly a partner in a bowling alley in Detroit and prior to that was purchasing agent for an outdoor sign advertising firm.

Mr. and Mrs. Menard have planned a trailer vacation trip after which they expect to become active in business. No definite plans have been made after the vacation, Mr. Menard said.

The Weisliks have two sons, Ronald, 16 and Bruce, 10. The family is residing in the residence above their business establishment.

News Round-up at Camp Charlevoix

The second week of our camping season started off with another sunny, warm day, a day just perfect for many campers to take to the lake, as Cabin 15 did, under Don Ross. They took a sailing trip down to Young's State Park the boys on this trip being Sandy Coakley, Dick Mueller, Peter Renchard, Bill Kuntz, George Schneider, David Gerber, and Greg Nyland.

Later in the day, two more of the cabins took off by truck to Young's State Park for over night. John Stephensen, Cabin 13, took his boys, the boys were Ralph Meisel, George Steinhardt, Ed Evans, Woody McAtwood, Jim Niezer, Ed Oetting, Jim Howard, and Elliott Berry. Denny Eichinger took his cabin, 14, also down to Young's State Park, which was practically Camp Charlevoix for that one night. These boys were: Bruce Dounglass, John Gibson, Mike Pliskin, Tom Rotz, Lee Gonsior, Peter Eberbach, and Mark McGinnis. The Green and Grey Captains are busy calling meetings getting their teams organized for the Track Meet on the Fourth of July when the competition gets under way.

Tuesday dawned warm and beautiful with the camp program in full swing and the boys in cabins 18, 19, 20, and 21, plus the C.I.T.'s looking forward to the dance down at the girl's camp, Chippewa Trail. They all took off in cars about 6:15 and returned about 10:30 after a very fine party. That evening at dinner, Barney Engelhart, the camp manager, entertained the Board of the Charlevoix Kiwanis Club. The boys enjoyed having these men as our guests.

The Fouth of July was another great day. Regular activities were held in the morning, and the annual track meet was held in the afternoon. This is always the start of the GREEN-GRAY competition, and two of the coaches on the staff arranged a fine meet, Bill Wright and Bill Townsend. After a full afternoon of events the Greys took three points while the Greens took one point. So the Greys are off to a flying start. The point winners in the Junior Section were: Jim Sims, Indianapolis; Bill Kirwin, Union City. Ind.; George Strapulos, Indianapolis, and Brad Rea, Fort Wayne. In the Prep Section the high point winners were: Jim Kuehn, Princeton, N.J.; Paul Kirwin, Union City, Ind.; Tom Arndt, Groose Pointe; Dave Oberhelman, Cincinnati; Tom Bothwell, Philadelphia; Chris Searles, Wilmette, Ill. The high point winners in the Intermediate Section were: Dave Gerber, Middletown, Ohio, Sandy Coakley, Cleveland, Peter Renchard, Grosse Point and Lee Gensior, Dayton, Ohio. High point men in the senior section were: John Fraim, Dayton, Ohio; Marshall Moser, Grosse Pointe; Bob Logar, Decatur, Ill.; Wayne Standefor, Grand Prairie, Tex.; Carl Baum, Grand Rapids; Joe Hutchinson, Akron, Ohio, Steve Wardrop, Grand Rapids and Jay Heitz, Dayton, Ohio.

Tradition was followed at the evening meal which is alwaya a cook-out with beef hung on a spit over an outdoor fire and slowly cooked. Next on the program for this Fourth of July was an evening of skits in the "Bigwam". Cabin 19, with John McFarlan as counsellor, gave "Cave Man's Stuff" which was very funny. The boys in this skit were Don Strutz, Wayne Alpern, Roger Sims, Mike Strapulos, and Steve Sholty. Cabin 5, with Mark Grambeau, gave a skit on "Soupy Sales" with the following boys in it: Brad Rea, Larry Howell, Jim Sims, George Strapulos, and Chris Somers. Cabin 16, under Jerry Flora really put on a production with a scene from "Midsummer's Night's Dream". Frank Kolbert took the part of the director and the rest of his cast was Don Thwaite, Bob Logan, George Stearns, Bob Hamburger, Al Knoblock, and Joe Hutchinson. Joe Fleming's Cabin 16 put on a "Candid Camera" skit which was very funny. These boys were: D. J. Somers, Weldon Standefer, Dwight Alpern, John Martindale, Bill Henderson, and Tom Hoyt. When the daylight had gone, and darkness had descended upon us, the entire camp met down on the waterfront to watch the fireworks display which Dan Ross and his committee put on from our dock.

On Thursday, Nick Cameron, took his cabin 12 on an overnight by horseback, going to a new camping area we have never used before. These boys were Howie Davis, Steve Armington, John Berber, Barney Kelly, and John Booth. This morning we slept an extra hour, due to the lateness of the hour the previous night. So breakfast wasn't until 9:15,

Friday morning was the morning for the first trip to Mackinac Island for the boys who were entitled to the trip. Each year, the first fifty boys enrolled for the following summer get a trip to Mackinac Island. Ken makes two trips to the island each summer, taking twenty-five boys each time. The boys had breakfast at 6:30 a.m. and left camp at seven. Ken took Jerry Flora and Bill Wright from the staff and the boys were: Carl Baum, Woody Roe, Tom and Dave Arndt, Bob Hamburger, Frank Kolbert, John and Bill Fraim, Marc Taylor, Barney Kelly, Peter Renchard, Mike Bogdanik, Bill Henderson, Oliver and David Janson, Wayne Hause, Brad Rea, Rusty Smith, Steven Wardrop, Chris Searles, Mike Rees, George Steinhardt, Ralph Miesel, Roy Feldman, Jay Heitz, John Guba, Woody McAndrew, C. J. Shelley, and they reported a most enjoyable day having had a tour of the fort, the MRA buildings and a guided tour of the Grand Hotel.

Still no rain, and the grass is getting more brown each day. Saturday was another hot day. It is a blessing that the nights are cool and ideal for sleeping. Saturday night another evening of skits, and each week these get better and better. Cabin 21, "Rebel" Thompson's boys, put on a "This Is Your Life" skit honoring another counsellor "Spotty" Adams. Dan Ross's Cabin 15 put on a skit called "Bananza". These boys were: Sandy Coakley, Dick Mueller (as a most winsome girl") Peter Renchard, George Schneider, Billy Kuntz, Wayne Hause, David Gerber, and Greg Nyland. Cabin 17, "Spotty" Adam's cabin put on "Night Court" with Steve Martin as prosecuting attorney, Mike Bugar as the judge, Rusty Smith as the attorney for the defense, and the criminal was counsellor Gary Murfin. The others in the skit were Russell Washburn, John Gould, Dave Arndt. Cabin 20, with Dave Garland as the director, put on the "Chatreuse Murder Case". George Pfleger was the victim, David Connellp, the detective, Jay Heitz the hero, Jim Ratliff was a beautiful girl who kept losing her wig, and John Guba was a suspect. The camp was honored on Saturday by having an exchange student from Germany. He is Eberhart (Hardy) Lust, who has been living with the Schantz family in Dayton, Ohio, during the last school year, and he will be with us at camp for ten days seeing an American camp in action.

The New fire-fighting equipment arrived this week, so Barney, assembled it and put it to use watering our parade grounds which are brown from the lack of rain. We need rain very badly.

Sunday morning Bob Carter, head of waterfront, was the speaker at our chapel taking as his topic "Learning". The boys in cabin 21, our oldest boys, read the scripture, announced the hymns, and led in prayer. A waterfront afternoon with canoe races, sailing races, and swimming events was scheduled, but was called off because of wind. However the Juniors and the Preps had a great time playing in the waves down in Junior Bay. On Sunday evening, we had an all-camp movie "The Conquering of Chocise".

The boys are already talking about preparing their booths and games for the Camp Carnival on Saturday. This is always one of the highlights of the season. As this week ends, we find the Grays leading the Greens by a 5-1 score.

New 'Beaver Islander' To Be Christened at St. James Sunday

Charlevoix will welcome the new Beaver Island ferry, the Beaver Islander, this weekend when the ship arrives in port Saturday afternoon on its maiden voyage from St. James Harbor.

The 96½ ft. steel-hull craft is nearing completion at the Sturgeon Bay Shipbuilding and Drydock Co. and will be sailed to St. James harbor Friday in preparation for the 32-mile maiden voyage the following day.

The ship, built at the cost of more than $200,000 for the Beaver Island Boat Co. which operates the ferry between St. James and the mainland, will remain in Charlevoix overnight Saturday and return to the island at 9 a. m. Sunday morning for the formal christening ceremony to be held at St. James at 12 noon Sunday. Immediately following the ceremony which will be attended by company officials headed by Karl J. Erber, president, the ship, bearing guests and island residents will return to Charlevoix for a luncheon at the Argonne at 3 p.m. The Beaver Islander will return to the island at 5 p.m. Sunday and begin its regular schedule the following morning.

The Emerald Isle which has been on the run since it was built in 1955 will be transported to its new berth in the Straits of Mackinac early next week, according to Mr. Erber. The 72-ft. ship has been sold to the Arnold Transit Co. and will be operated as a passenger vessel between St. Ignac or Mackinaw City and Mackinac Island.

The Beaver Islander which features, among other things, a flying bridge and twin screw engines powered by two 510 h.p. diesel engines, will carry 150 passengers and 12 vehicles as compared with the Emerald Isle which was powered by a single screw 360 h.p. engine and which carried 115 passengers and eight vehicles.

The same crew, headed by Capt. Lawrence McDonough, will operate the new boat. John Gallagher will be the engineer officer and Russell Green the deck hand.

Mayor E. D. Hawley and members of the city council and other city officials and the board of Directors of the Charlevoix Chamber of Commerce are among those who have been invited to make the trip to Beaver Island for the christening Sunday. On the return trip they will be joined by island officials, boat company officials and island residents for the luncheon at the Argonne.

Excursion round trip rates will be in effect for the trip to and from the christening and from St. James to Charlevoix and return on the Sunday afternoon trip. Round trip fares for adults will be $3.00 and for children under 12 years of age $2.00.

Waterfront Fair Attracts New Exhibitors

Entries are coming in daily for the annual Waterfront Fair for artists and craftsmen sponsored by the Charlevoix Chamber of Commerce, the fair committee headed by Mrs. Jack Rader, was informed at a meeting held Monday at the Rader home.

Mrs. Julius Gilbert of Charlevoix and Detroit, an active member of the committee, reported that Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Cummings of Chicago, who are spending the summer at the Anchorage, their summer home on Lake Charlevoix, will loan one of their prized Picasso paintings and other works of art for display at the Fair which will be held in East Park Saturday, Aug. 11.

Noted Detroit sculptor, Walter Midener, and his wife, Peggy, and Charles Culver, Detroit water colorist, are among the widely known artists who expected to exhibit some of their work at the Fair which attracts exhibitors of original works including paintings, sculpturing, ceramics and jewelry set with native stones.

The Waterfront Fair is probably enjoyed by more area residents and summer visitors than any other event of the summer. The exhibits are placed on the terraces of East Park overlooking Round Lake. Programs show the location of all exhibits and spectators may wander at their leisure through the area viewing the variety of arts and crafts. The artists and craftsmen are in attendance and will answer questions relating to their work. Some of the artists even bring their pottery wheels, looms and other equipment and demonstrate their work.

This year's Fair promises to be the finest to date with the list of entries growing daily as the fame of the Fair spreads throughout the midwest. Inquiries may be addressed to the Chamber of Commerce where entry blanks are also available.

School District Asks For Two Mill Increase

Voters of the Charlevoix school district will go to the polls at the new Charlevoix high school tomorrow (Friday) to vote on a two mill tax issue.

Chief reason for requesting the two mills is to underwrite the cost of new teachers needed because of the membership increase at certain grade levels.

A review of the membership in the kindergarten through the seventh grade levels during the past school year reveals the anticipated needs for teachers during the forthcoming school year.

Last year's kindergarten had an enrollment of 109 youngsters taught by one teacher with the aid of a helper. Enrollment for the coming year has already reached the 111 mark with more anticipated.

Other grades and the number of students and teachers during the past school year follow: first and second grades, 77 students each with three teachers for each grade; third 82 students and 2⅓ teachers; fourth, 74 and 2⅓ teachers; fifth, 78, with two teachers; sixth, 77 with two teachers and seventh, 88 in two sections.

A major part of the increase in the budget will be used to underwrite the cost of a second kindergarten teacher, another teacher for the third or fourth grade, and one more teacher for each of the following grades, fifth, sixth and seventh where the membership increases have been the greatest.

It will be noted that many school districts have asked for additional millage to be levied over a three or five year period. The Charlevoix school district has asked for millage for only one year at a time with the idea that the increase in the valuation of the school district will eventually take care of budget needs.

The polls will be open from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. All residents who have been in the state for six months and in the school district for 30 days are elibile to vote in this election. It is not necessary to be a property owner to be eligible to vote.

Litterbugs and Beaches

Charlevoix is blessed with beautiful beaches on both Lake Michigan and Lake Charlevoix. They are open for the enjoyment of both local residents and the many visitors they attract each season. Unfortunately there are a few persons every year who abuse this natural blessing by strewing the beach with cans, broken bottles and other litter that not only detracts but is a hazzard to others who like to enjoy the beaches.

Most of the public beaches are provided with trash containers but many of the private beaches which have been left open to the public only because the property owners are public spirited, are not provided with trash containers. Each year these property owners of of beaches have just complaint when their beaches are strewn with debris.

The situation might be relieved some if the city or townships in which these private beaches are located would provide receptacles for trash. This should be followed up by police action that would result in penalties for the beach litterbugs the same as for those who litter the highways. If the provilege of using private beaches continues to be abused, the results are inevitable. We'll find private property fenced to the water's edge. Thus the public will be deprived from much of the beautiful shore line and the so-called "wide open spaces of the north" won't be wide open.

BETWEEN YOU AND ME

- By Harold E. Kohn -

A Quiet Sort of Busyness

Where I sit at my desk at Hidden Brook the quietness is unblemished save for the scolding of some hidden robin near the deer trail that passes through yonder abandoned pasture. He is doubtlessly scandalized that deer dare trespass upon his private property, and he is telling a buck, "Go grow your antlers" or a doe, "Go nurse your fawn." The offending intruders will soon drift from sight, and the noisy robin will forget his wrath, mutter a few final disgusted chirps, and depart for some other spot on the meadow's edge to hunt insects and worms.

The robin's fussy activity, watching over his property, tongue-lashing intruders, hunting worms for himself and his family, is in marked contrast to the quiet sort of busyness that goes on beneath the surface of the meadow and the neighboring woods. There, where trees, grasses and other plants bind the soil and furnish provender for countless creatures, a silent industry flourishes, making all the fretful noisiness of earth's scolding creatures and all the frenzied affairs of man pale in campari-son.

At the meadow's edge tree roots busily but silently absorb water and minerals from the soil at their tips, transport food materials to the tree's trunk, make room in themselves for food and storage, and anchor the aerial portions of the tree. Not one sound is made in this busy tree-factory.

Farther out in the pasture all manner of grasses grow, sending out a daily increase of roots and rootlets that only a botanist is likely to find believable. Some fragmentary idea of what goes on beneath a meadow's placid surface may be derived from an experiment carried on a few years ago by competent experimental botanists. They filled a box with less than two cubic feet of soil, and in the box they planted winter rye and let it grow for four months. Then they made a series of careful measurements. In the four months the winter rye reached a height of 20 inches, with about 51 square feet of surface above the ground. But beneath the surface they found a root system that had developed 378 miles of roots and and an additional 6,000 miles of root hairs. This means that the winter rye developed an average growth of three miles of roots and 50 miles of root hairs for each day of the four-month growing season. Different plants have different growth rates, but this experiment roughly indicates the astounding amount of activity going on under the surface of a country pasture where grasses prepare food to feed their animal neighbors, food that will later become meat and milk and butter for man.

And all without a discernible sound.

Life's most important activity is often quietest.

Charlevoix Courier:

A detailed tabulation of our School District's comparative revenues from State Aid and local tax money was prepared by Mr. Ivan Phillips and appeared in last week's issue in the "Voice of Our Readers" column. This tabulation pointed out very clearly that the School District will receive less money from State Aid in the 1962-1963 school year than it did in the 1961-1962 school year. It also pointed out that the School District will receive more money from local taxes than it did in prior years.

Since the article pointed out that the tabulation was presented for information only, it is too bad that Mr. Phillips did not see fit to include some other information. For instance, he might have mentioned that the school needed more money last year than it received and, in fact, incurred a deficit of approximately $35,000 and now has a cumulative deficit of approximately $44,000. He might also have pointed out that the current budget not only includes provision for five new teachers, but also provides for a realistic level of operating expenses for both our new High School and our Elementary School. Inclusion of this information would have prevented misleading inferences from being drawn from his tabulation.

Unfortunately, most of us are not as well versed as Mr. Phillips on the intricate details of State, County, School, and local finances. For us, however, the decision to vote "yes" or "no" on any millage issue should be very simple. After all, the voters periodically elect members to the Board of Education, and charge these members with the task of overseeing the operation of their schools. This School Board provides broad representation from among all elements of our District. If the Board decides that additional millage is required to maintain and improve the program of our schools, it votes to ask for additional millage from the members of the District.

The individual voter, then, has only to decide whether the present program of the school is worthwhile and, if anything, should be improved rather than downgraded. That is, does the contribution of the school to the education and well-being of our children and, indirectly, to the status of our community, warrant our support? If it does, you will vote "yes" on this millage issue.

If you do not feel the issue deserves support, it is certainly your privilege to vote "no". However, you should vote "no" with the knowledge you will be assisting in undermining and destroying a program and series of activities that has taken many years of unselfish effort on the part of many people to develop and has, in part, been responsible for the reputation of Charlevoix and its environs as one of the most desirable areas in the State.

About This Question

"A home under construction burned to the ground from a short-circuit in temporary wiring. Another home had its walls blown down in a strong wind. Several others were damaged or pilfered by youngsters. Can builders get insurance to cover homes under construction against all such losses?"

Two Girls Leave For International Scout Roundup

After months of preparation, two Senior Girl Scouts of Troop 13, Marilyn Lesher and Sherry Holborn, departed Wednesday, enroute to the International Girl Scout Roundup at Button Bay State Park in Vermont.

Their departure was marked by a brief ceremony in East Park Wednesday afternoon during which the alternates, Barbara Wood and Francis Arnold, placed the special identification bracelets on the wrists of the delegates. Mayor E. D. Hawley was present to wish the pair God-speed in behalf of the community. The four Senior Scouts then presented their leader, Mrs. Lloyd Arnold, with a gift, a Girl Scout bag, in appreciation of the time she had devoted to the project.

Loaded with camping gear and 200 'swaps' each along with cameras and other personal belongings, the pair left Wednesday morning from Traverse City to become a part of the Aspen Trails patrol. They were to then motor to Bay City to board the train for the trip east.

Cadillac

It could easily be in your driveway!

What motorist wouldn't happily trade circumstances with this delighted gentleman?

For this is his first Cadillac—and its arrival in his driveway has occasioned almost as much excitement in the neighborhood as it has in his own home.

But if you appreciate his good fortune—then envy him also his wisdom.

For he has, without any question, made the move to the "car of cars" at the ideal moment. He discovered, for instance, that tha Cadillac Coupe is now actually priced below eleven models of other less desirable motor cars.

Furthermore, he found that most of the features he wanted—power steering, power braking and Hydra-Matic drive—were included in the initial price of a Cadillac.

And he has already had a hint of other Cadillac economies. Tha gasoline gauge has barely budged off the "full" mark and the car moves so quietly that he knows he can drive it with pride for years to come.

Yet, he'll be in for a happy surprise when the time does come to sell it. For a Cadillac can be expected to retain a greater portion of its value than any other motor car.

So if you have a Cadillac in your heart—then let us show you how quickly and easily we could put one in your driveway.

Come see us at any time.

IT'S NEVER TOO EARLY to learn . . . and that's true where the telephone is concerned, too. That's why it's such a good idea to teach young children how to use the phone correctly—especially for emergencies. A child can easily learn how to dial the operator—and, if need be, ask her to call the police or fire department. When children understand what a phone is for and how to use it, they're less apt to regard it as a toy, won't "play games" that could interfere with calls from people trying to reach you.

TIME FOR FUN! Summer brings out neorly everybody's urge to toke to the road. And—be it a weekend of sun or vacation of fun—45,000 Michigan Bell public telephones help moke for more carefree trips. Wherever you go, chances are you'll find a handy public phone . . . to keep you in touch with those bock home, to check on reservations and to help you with the unexpected or forgotten detoils.

OUR OWN "400 CLUB" . . . what is it? The more than 400 Michigan Bell employees whose suggestions for money-saving operational improvements were accepted and put into use last year. In 1961, one out of every eight Michigan Bell employees submitted an idea under the Employee Suggestion Plan—a total of 2,800 ideas in all. Michigan Bell people are constantly looking for new ways to do their jobs better. And that, in turn, helps keep down the cost of your telephone service.

News Round-up at Camp Charlevoix

The third week of camp started off Monday morning, with Ken presenting the ribbons won by our men at the Gaylord Horse Show on Sunday. Altogether eleven ribbons were won by Tom Kennedy, Tony Anthony, John Appel, Ron Kirk, and camper Don Strutz, from Fort Wayne with his own horse. Tom Kennedy, our Head Cowboy, won both the Western Pleasure and the Halter Class with one of our horses "Blondie". Two cabins left on a sailing trip down to Young's State Park, Cabin8 and Cabin 9 with Bob Baker and Jerry Baranski in charge, plus two of our sailing instructors. These boya were: Roy Feldman, Jim Hoagland, Richard Bruner, Bob Ausbeck, Paul Kirwin, and Woody Roe. Also on the trip were John Sears, Irving Ingraham, Tom and Lee Gardner. This was the day to start the running of the "MUGWUMP", a tradition here at Charlevoix. After the evening meal, the entire camp was dismissed from the dining room to go and hunt for the "MUGWUMP" (a piece of wood fashioned into a bird). The Greys found it, re-hid it, and now must run it at least once a day through the entire camp without having it taken away. A successful running gives the team a point in the green-Grey competition.

On Tuesday the Greys started the morning off in great style with a very successful running of the "Mugwump". Cabin 6, with Bruce Nash as counsellor, took an overnight horse trip to a new area. These boys were: John Danaher, Jim Carkhuff, Tom Laskey, Jim Alpern, Bill Fraim and Bill Stout. The Jordan River is proving very popular for canoe trips this year.It is one of the finest trout streams in Michigan. 'Rebel" Thompson took his cabin of the oldest boys in camp by canoe down the Jordan. These boys were: "Hardy Lust (our boy from Germany); Dave Huck, Dave Gilmore, Marsball Moser, Marc Taylor, John Fraim, Steve Wardrop, and Carl Baum.

On Wednesday, cabin 10, Monte McFaffen's boys, sailed down to Young's State Park. These boys were: Charles Dort, Jim Kuehn, David Oberhelman, Tommy Bothwell, David Janson, Stephen Arnold, and Christ Kelly. Cabin 18, Jerry Flor's boys, went by truck down to Young's State Park, too. These boys were: Don Thwaite, Bob Logan, George Stearns, Bob Hamburger, Frank Kolbert, Al Knoblock, and Joe Hutchinson. In the evening, Capture the Camper was held. The campers all hide in the woods, and the counsellors try to capture them. The team having the least number caught gets the points. The Greys picked up two more points. The acore now stands Greys-9 and Green-1. Paul Gach, the camp photographer from Grosse Pointe, arrived for his fifteenth year.

Thursday morning, Mr. Gach started out right after breakfast taking the cabin pictures. Cabin 1 took off with Marv Crain for Eastport for an overnight. Bob Harding, for other counsellor in the cabin also accompanied these boys: Art Schultz, John McKee, Jeff Nyland, Rollin Harrison and Tom Shwayder. Cabin 2 and 3, with Dick Stadler, Tom Kennedy, Earl Foster and Bill Stebbins in charge went down to Young's State Park for their overnight. These boys were: Dick Schultz, Scott Harris, Bill Kirwin, Steve Zeigler, John Hunter, Andy Jacob, Mike Rees, David Washburn, Mark Stepbens, Chris Ziehler, John Baker, and John Neiman. In the evening, the Intermedlates and the Seniors had a scavenger hunt, and each team pickeu up one point, so tbe score at this point stood Greys-10 and the Greens 2

The cabin group have chosen their respesentatives to the camp council, and the following boys have this honor: Rollin Harrison, Scott Harris, David Washburn, Jim Hutchinson, Chris Somers, John Danaher, Chuck Reynolds, Roy Feldman, Irving Ingraham, Steve Arneld, Don Iams, John Gerber, George Steinhardt, Tom Rotz, Dave Gerber, Weldon Standefer, Steve Martin, George Stearns, Don Strutz, Jay Heitz, and Marshall Moser.

On Friday the boys began to organize for the annual carnival. Esch cabin has a booth to construct and to run and the booth tsking in the most tickets gets a prize. Cabin 11, Ted Fleming's boys took a sailing trip to Whiting Park. These boys were: Jim Warner, Don Isms, Mike Bogdanik, Jim Schlacter, and C.J. Shelly. At the evening meal, the "Mugwump" was put to bed for the second four weeks when it will run again. The Greys picked up several points during the week.

Saturday was an ideal day for a Carnival. The boys and staff spent the morning building the booths. It was a busy place for tbe entire morning. The Smith's cabin was headquarters for all supplies including crepe paper and prizes, and there was a steady stream of boys at their door all morning with "Ruby" having everything organized right to the last thumb tack. At 3 p.m. the bell rang for the start of the Carnival. Cabin 5, Mark Grambeau as counsellor brought visitors down into camp from the stables by means of the horse-drawn hay wagon. The cabin winning the prize as the most original was Cabin 16, Joe Flemings boys, with the "Miniature Golf". Cabin 17, "Spotty" Adams' cabin took in the most tickets with its baseball throw into a bushel basket. The hit of the Carnival was the "Twist" booth that was set up by Cabin 6, Bruce Nash's group, on the basketball court. Dave Roberts, a C.I.T., helped set this up, and did a very fine job. Chairman of the Carnival Committee was John Stephensen assisted most ably by "Ruby" who did all the shopping. In the evening the camp saw the movie "At War With The Army" with Jerry Lewis and Dean Martin.

Sunday morning we had several parents as our guests at the chapel service which was held at our Chapel in the Woods. Marvin Crain was the speaker and took as his topic "A Moral Code for Youth" taken from an article in the old Colliers' Magazine. The boys from cabin 21, the oldest campers in camp assosted in the service. On Sunday afternoon the Mile Swim was held. Every boat in camp was used to patrol the swimming course. One hundred boys are in the water at one time sll swimming toward a certain objective. The Greys picked up four points. The score at this point is Greys-14, Greens-4. Are Voters Just Puppets?

The era of government by and for the people appears to be a thing of the past when four of the eight justices of the State Supreme Court can over-rule a constitutional amendment, approved by a majority of the voters in 1952, which established definite districts and procedure for electing members to the State Senate.

As we see the picture, the governor and the attorney general, both of whom are pledged to uphold the constitution, are a party to a political maneuver, which if allowed to continue, could well lead to Wayne, Oakland, Macomb and Genessee counties taking over complete control of state government.

The power clique has gone so far as to direct county clerks to eliminate the office of State Senator from all ballots in the Aug. 7 primary election. How long, we ask, will it be until all candidates opposing this oligarchy are eliminated from the ballots in order to further the power of August Scholle and his cohorts?

The federal government was established with checks and balances to perpetuate a government by the people. The legislative branch included a senate membership of two senators from each state and a congress in which representation was on a population basis. No government has yet been devised that provided better safeguards for the people.

Now the State Supreme Court has rendered a decision on the grounds that the state legislative plan is in violation of the Federal Constitution. If that be the case, all United States senators are elected and hold office in violation of the United States Constitution. Michigan, among other states, should have more representation in the United States senate than Connecticut, Nevada, Wyoming, Utah and others.

The densely populated counties of Wayne, Oakland, Macomb and Genessee have an overwhelming representation in the state legislature. This can only be balanced in the rest of Michigan by a senate elected on area or district basis. Population should have nothing to do with the senate if out-state Michigan is to have a token balance of representation in the legislative branch of state government. This assurance was guaranted the people by the amendment adopted by them in 1952.

It is time for a good housecleaning in state government when one man in any political party or four members of the Supreme Court can undermine the wishes of the people. The voters can do this cleanup job in the November election unless, in the mean time, the powers that apparently be decide to rule all opposition candidates from the ballot. Power mongers have taken over other governments and don't think for a minute it can't happen here. It's already started and the people had better start a widespread protest before it is too late. Write your president, your governor, your representatives in Washington and Lansing and all of the public officials whom you have elected. They'll listen if your protests are loud enough.

School District Turns Down Two Mill Tax; May Reduce Program

The two mill tax issue, brought to a vote of the people of the Charlevoix school district in a special election Friday, was turned down by a vote of 435 to 363.

The failure of the people to support the tax proposal resulted in a special session of the Charlevoix board of education to discuss the problem of reducing the school program.

A number of changes were proposed and will be studied until the regular meeting scheduled for August 6.

Among the proposed changes are the following:

1. Increase the size of classes in both the elementary and high school. This would mean that in grades three through eight the membership would be as many as 45 and that many of the classes would be increased from 25 to 40 students.

2. Transport no children within the 1½ mile limit of the school.

3. Eliminate the instrumental music program in the grade school and reduce the number of students participating in the bands. Increase the fee for the summer music to $6.00 per child.

4. Close all buildings at 5 p.m. except for scheduled games or a rental system for the gymnasiums, cafeterias or classrooms.

5. Charge a rental fee for textbooks . . possibly $2.00 per child in the elecentary grades and $1.00 per course in the high school.

6. Postpone the television program (which was initiated last year on a trial basis for one year.

7. Increase the price of tickets for the athletic games and restriet athletics.

8. Increase the price of meals in the cafeterias.

9. Eliminate the teacher-training program for one year.

10. Close the public library or change its financial support.

11. Condense or eliminate the publishing of the school board minutes.

12. Postpone becoming a registration district for one year.

The above are among the first reductions considered in order to live within the allotted budget. Other items will be taken under consideration at the Aug. 6 meeting.

Will Scratch State Senators From Ballot

There will be no vote accepted for State Senators in the Aug. 7 primary election, according to a directive from Secretary of State James M. Hair, sent to County Clerk Fenton R. Bulow. The office of State Senator will be scratched from ballots at the polls and will not be countey in ballots sent to absent voters before July 19.

The Secretary of State's directive states' Supreme Court order eliminates primary as to state senator only. You will take necessary steps to see that no votes are counted for this office. As absentee ballots are already out, you will instruct election inspectors and your board of canvassers that any votes cast for state senator will not be counted. Office of state senator and names of candidates for that office will be blocked out by stickers or other means on voting machines and on paper ballots before issuing to voters. . . . "

How and when voters will elect their representatives to the state senate can only be determined following the action of the United States Supreme Court and the state legislature.

Our Friends Can Bury Us

The United States is in greater danger of being buried economically by its friends than by its enemies. That is the view of an executive of an American manufacturing company which operates on an international scale.

The story is told by the fact that productivity in many foreign countries is rising more rapidly than wages —and much more rapidly than here at home. For example, productivity increases from 1953 to 1960 ranged from a low 15 per cent in the United States to 29 per cent in Great Britain, 53 per cent in West Germany, 58 per cent in Italy and 71 per cent in Japan—due, in large part at least, to imaginative automation.

The word automation is comparatively new, but the principle is ancient. It simply means finding ways to do the same job, or a better job, at less cost, and in a shorter period of time. The concern which fails to meet the competition, whether it operates in domestic markets or world markets, sees its trade go elsewhere—and that's that.

The labor unions which oppose automation, on the grounds that it would destroy jobs, are taking a potentially suicidal position. In the long run, automation, whatever it has been called, has always created more, better-paying it impossible for American producers to compete in the jobs. Then, beyond that, if resistance to automation makes surging world markets, what will happen to our employment rolls?

Socialized Medicine Opposed

Advocates of the proposal to provide medical services to everyone drawing social security benefits—whether they need them or not, or want them or not—often say that the opposition comes from a relative few, who are motivated by selfish economic or political reasons.

What is the actual case?

Senator Goldwater of Arizona offers an answer. His mail, he writes, has been running three-to-one against the bill.

And he is not alone. He cites the mail received by two other Senators—one from Nebraska, the other from Indiana—following the President's Madison Square Garden speech urging passage of the bill in dramatic and impassioned words. One Senator's mail ran 298 to two against. The other's 274 to 28 opposing votes. Similar trends were demonstrated in letters from other states.

From this Senator Goldwater concludes that "the American people know perfectly well the dangers of socialized medicine and want no part of it." The American people have every reason to take that view. The experience with socialized medicine in Britain has hardly been reassuring—it has been characterized by soaring costs and a grave decline in the standards of care. And the enormous growth of voluntary health insurance, including the new plan, sponsored jointly by Blue Shield and the American Medical Association for providing it for the elderly at very moderate rates, is another potent element in cementing opposition. Finally the Kerr-Mills bill, passed by the last Congress, answers the question of how to help the truly indigent, by setting up a joint federal-state plan that has been widely accepted in the brief span of time since its enactment.

Modest reductions in the cost of dairy products are anticipated. Reason is a cut in federal price supports to the minimum legal level.

IS THE LABORER WORTHY OF HIS HIRE?

A good day's work for a good wage is in the American tradition. It's the basis of our system of free enterprise and a foundation which has made our nation the envy of the world.

For years, banks have relied upon modest service charges to offset the expense of handling checking accounts. Although costs continue to rise, we will resist any change in our rates unless necessary to continue the high quality of service you have come to expect from our bank.

Is the laborer worthy of his hire? We believe this applies to the banking business, also.

BETWEEN YOU AND ME

- By Harold E. Kohn -

Something Fishy About Modern Man?

Unlike man and other mammals, most birds, and many other creatures, fishes are organisms of indeterminate growth. There is no particular age at which a fish is fated to stop developing. Rather, as long as a fish lives under normal conditions it tends to add length, breadth and weight to its body.

In certain fishes this ongoing development presents a serious problem. The fins, digestive glands, heart, and particularly the brain, do not always keep pace with the general increase in the fish's total mass. Trunk muscles grow. Connective tissues multiply. But the central nervous system, and especially the brain, remains arrested, and a troublesome loss of functional equilibrium follows. This is why some "old lunkers" in our lakes and rivers are not as active or as wily as are younger members of their specie. Their small brains cannot well control their huge mass.

Could this be one trouble with modern man, and a clue to his predicament; that there is something "fishy" about us now? Have we accumulated mass more rapidly than we have grown soul to control it all?

Is it because of undersized souls that we so poorly handle the accumulation of chrome-plated superficialities of this generation? Is it because character has not kept up with the growing, ponderous bulk of more leisure time, more symbols of achievement, more sights to dazzle the eye, more enticements to the senses that we have improved means of transportation with nothing better to transport, better means of communication with nothing more important to say, more splendid sights but no greater insights; unlimited devices but limited devotion, longer lives but less great living?

Is the silent terror that grips the world a recognition that nations have amassed weapons that are perhaps too many and too powerful for man's stunted soul to manage?

These are days for soul-growing, until we shall have men to match our missiles, character as great as our contrivances, improved goals equal to our improved means, an inner goodness sufficient to handle our worldly goods.

Robert Stafford Observes 90th Anniversary

Robert Stafford, a lifelong resident of this community, observed his nintieth birthday anniversary last Friday.

Mr. Stafford, a mason and building mover, has the distinction of having followed his work until five years ago when he retired at the age of 85 years.

In his earlier days Mr. Stafford was widely known as a musician having played in city bands in Central Lake, Mancelona and Charlevoix. He started playing the baritone and later the sousaphone and tuba with area bands, a hobby he continued until the death of his wife, the former Bertha Jolliffe, in 1930. They were married in 1903.

Mr. Stafford was born at Norwood July 20, 1872, and moved to Charlevoix in 1902.

Mr. Stafford has three daughters, Mrs. Ward (Doris) Richardson of Monroe, Mrs. Casper (Roberta) Smith of Jackson and Mrs. Elmer (Viola) Reed of Charlevoix with whom he makes his home. He also has 12 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Writes Syndicated Column On Gracious Living

Another of this community's many talented residents appeared in 'print' this week.

She is the charming Mrs. Julius W. Gilbert whose syndicated column on gracious living entitled "You're Invited" made its appearance this week in newspapers from coast to coast.

Written in a chatty, entertaining manner the column which is appearing daily in the Detroit Free Press as well as other well known newspapers offers clever ways to entertain.

In the first columns Mrs. Gilbert, who has written them under the name of Edith W. Gilbert, has done an excellent job of getting across to hostesses, especially those entertaining for the first time, that everyone has problems and that no hostess is immune to the bore, the late arrival, the husband who unexpectedly brings the boss home to dinner when there's not a thing in the house to eat and other crises. In sn informative and, at the same time, entertaining manner she offers suggestions on how to cope with these and other problems.

Though the column is to appear in a series of eight, readers may write to Mrs. Gilbert for advice in solving their entertainment problems. It is the type of column that could become a full-time feature of any newspaper.

Mrs. Julius W. Gilbert

In Detroit Mrs. Gilbert is prominent as a patron of the arts and is affiliated with the Red Cross Motor Corps, the Central Volunteer Women's Committee of United Community Services, the out-patient department at Sinai Hospital and the Citizens' Committee on Neighborhood Conservaton.

In Charlevoix she as well as her husband have been active in the support of the Charlevoix hospital. Mrs. Gilbert has given generously of her time for many years in supporting the Women'a Guild of the Charlevoix hospital and is an active member of the Waterfront Fair committee which sponsors the fair where artists and craftsmen from throughout the state may exhibit their works.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert are more than summer residents of the community. Both enjoy skiing and during the winter months oivide their time between Detroit and Charlevoix.

Mrs. Harley Ochs Named President Of Garden Club

Mrs. Harley Ochs was elected president of the Charlevoix Garden club at the annual meeting held recently at the home of Mrs. Karl J. Erber.

Mrs. Curtis Burlin was named first vice president; Mrs. E. J. Edwards, second vice president and Mrs. Max Hosmer, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Malcolm MacDowell was appointed district director of District V of the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan.

Plans were completed for the club's entry in the Venetian Boat parade. Mrs. David Fowler and Mrs. Jack Mol have been in charge of the decorating committee. The Clark Coulters' boat will be used for the float.

Twenty-two members and several guests were present for the annual election and cooperative luncheon.

The June meeting was held at the Coulter home. Mrs. Harry Ladd and Mrs. R. G. Bennett reported on the state convention at this meeting.

The new officers will assume their duties at the October meeting. Mrs. Ralph S. Hamilton is the retiring president.

Schroeder's Drug Store open Sundays.

The Rev. Fr. Francis J. Partridge has returned to Muskegon after spending 10 days with his mother, Mrs. Frank Partridge Sr.

Elaine Martin Shares European Experiences With Home Folk

Elaine Martin, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert G. Martin, is one of three local high school students who is spending the summer months in Europe under the Youth for Understanding program sponsored by the Michigan Council of Churches.

Now enjoying a tour with her German family, she has written the following account to her friends in Charlevoix:

Dear Charlevoix friends,

Grusse aus Deutschland!

I'm having a wonderful summer, and have seen so many places and received so many impressions, I hardly know where to begin!

At present we're camping in the Austrian Alps, near the Southwest Germany border. Next week we'll drive to eastern Austria, passing through a corner of Italy, and there we'll camp near the Yugoslavian border.

We began this grand sightseeing excursion July 3 and by Aug. 2 we'll be back in Delmenhorst, ready to settle down.

The Alps are beautiful and we've had many opportunities to walk through the sweet-smelling meadows, drive through mountain passes and take pictures. There are many pretty lakes and streams here in the Alps, such as we have in northern Michigan. The only difference is that the mountain water is green!

Recently, my German sister, Ursel, and I took a trip to the top of the Zugspitze, over 9,600 ft. high and Germany's highest mountain. No, we didn't climb! We went by cable car. When we entered the car it was a hot July day. Ten minutes later we stepped out into a blustery November day! The view from the topmost peak was breath-taking! The sky was a brilliant blue and there were snow-capped mountains as far as the eye could see. But for the souvenir stand and the aroma of hot soup drifting from the little restaurant, one might imagine himself on the moon looking out into an uninhabited frontier.

Last night we went into Ehrwald, a nearby Austrian village, for a "Tilorler Abend", and had such fun! A group of local young people called the "Trachtenverein" entertained. This club of four girls and five boys played guitars and accordions, yodeled, sang and danced old tradiltional dances, dressed in leather shorts, knee socks, red vests and topped with black feathered hats called "Trachtenhute". They had the guests take part in some of the dances, which, of course, made for much fun, both for the onlookers and participants.

On our way to Austria I was very happy to see many places I had read about. We passed through Cologne and visited the cathedral there. The "Kolner Dom" is the largest cathedral in Germany and a beautiful one to see. It is built in Gothic style, with lovely stained-glass windows in warm rich colors.

Further south, we passed through the busy capital city, Bonn, and saw the Bundeshaus. Another highlight was a five-hour boat trip down part of the Rhine. On the banks were vineyards, roots of the great German wine industry. We saw many castles, and the famous Lorelei, the rock which was treacherous to ships in former times.

Still further south, we visited Heidelburg and saw the palace and some of the university buildings; we saw Rothenburg, one of several towns in Bavaria that are preserved in old medieval style; we went through Oberammergau, where we saw the house of the passion play, and visited Garmisch-Partenkirchen, a beautiful little city, also a health resort, at the foot of the Alps. We enjoyed seeing these towns so much! Looking at the colorful houses and shops, with flowers in every window, I could imagine myself living in a fairy tale.

You must be thinking that my family is very wonderful for doing so much for me! You're right, they are; and I feel as much a part of them as I do my American folk! I live with the Erich Witts, in Delmenhorst, an industrial town of about 60,000 in northern Germany. Dad is the headmaster of an elementary school and Mom is a wonderful seamstress and cook. Through her efforts I've eaten like a horse all summer!

Mr. sister and brether, Ursel, 16, and Udo, 18, are such nice kids, and not much different than American teenagers. Everyone in the family speaks some English and they have been very willing to help me learn German. "Oma" and "Opa" Witt and Kallmeyer are my four grandparents and lovely people with whom I have much fun. Although they speak no English, we communicate . . . through sign language! Another good friend is my uncle, Herr Wehrmann, who was so nice in giving me some German lessons in June. Everyone I've met has been so friendly, doing much to make my stay pleasant!

Delmenhorst is the home of the linoleum industry, and a very pretty town, surrounded by rolling green farm land. When school was in session I attended several of Ursel's classes, including her English class, where I told the students a little about Charlevoix and C.H.S. There are three other Michigan exchange students in Delmenhorst. The local newspaper staff was so kind to give a tea for our German brothers and sisters and us, and gave us big hard-covered books of Delmenhorst, which will certainly keep the city fresh in our memories!

Before leaving Europe Aug. 20, I'll attend school again with Ursel, see more of Delmenhorst, and visit Nynke Bierma and Ulrich Kallmeyer, two of Charlevoix's exchange students who just left you.

It certainly is a busy and unforgettable summer for me, and many thanks to all who helped in various ways to make it possible! I hope I'm representing America and Charlevoix the way you deserve to be represented; I certainly will bring back fine impressions of Germany.

"Auf Wiedersehen" from a happy German-American girl,
Elaine Martin

LET ME INTRODUCE MYSELF

I'm Bob Klevorn, admittedly a newcomer to Charlevoix County, I opened a law office in Boyne City last October.

Although I am certain I could expose the impressionable voter to a lengthy list of associations and affiliations it is my sincere feeling that these assets are not what the average citizen desires or demands from its County Prosecutor.

I am not a politician ! ! ! Never before have I sought public office. My campaign now is at the urging of clients for whom I have worked professionally and many others with whom I have become acquainted. These endorsements are my strongest recommendations. Won't you inquire about me, from those who know me?

Were it possible, I would seek out each resident and personally ask your support. Time, and the fact that I run a one-man office does not permit such pleasure.

If you want me to be the next Charlevoix County Prosecuting Attorney, I will need YOUR vote on a Republican ballot in the primary election August 7th.

Next week the Charlevoix Courier will carry my promises to you—if elected.

Cordially,
Bob Klevorn
Pol. Adv.

MINUTES OF SCHOOL BOARD MEETING

July 2, 1962

Present: Dinwiddie, Martinchek, Al Smith, Boss, Tollas, C. Smith, Blanchard and Bennett. Supt. Absent: None.

The meeting was called to order at 8:20 p.m.

This being the first meeting of the fiscal year, election of officers for the coming year was in order. The following were elected:

E. Darrell Dinwiddie	President
Joe Martinchek, Jr.	Vice-pres.
Dale E. Boss	Treasurer
Burr Blanchard	Secretary

It was moved by C. Smith, supported by Al Smith, that loans be negotiated through the two local banks to repay loans due June 30, 1962, with additional funds requested for operational purposes, and a resolution was presented asking for a loan of $24,000.00 from the Charlevoix State Savings Bank, said loan to be dated July 2, 1962, bear interest not to exceed 4% per annum, and be due and payable on September 30, 1963. Motion carried and resolution adopted. Yeas 7 Nays 0.

It was moved by Blanchard, supported by Tollas, that a like resolution be adopted asking for a loan of $37,000 from the Charlevoix County State Bank, with the same conditions set forth in the preceding resolution. Resolution adopted: 7-0.

Moved by C. Smith, supported by Tollas, that $50,000.00 in notes be paid—$30,000 to the Charlevoix County State Bank and $20,000 to the Charlevoix State Savings Bank—plus interest. Carried: 7-0.

Moved by Al Smith and supported by Martinchek that bills in the amount of $1,652.41, payable from General Fund, be approved and paid. Carried: 7-0.

Moved by Boss, supported by Martinchek, that the final payment of Bonds in the amount of $5,000, plus $50.00 interest, of the 1951 Issue, be approved and ordered paid. Carried: 7-0.

At this time the minutes of the meeting of June 18 were read and approved.

Moved by Boss, supported by C. Smith, that the Dodge Lancer driver training car recently purchased from Brown Motors, Inc., be financed as follows: $307.80 to be paid in cash with the balance of $1,000 to be paid in two equal installments of $500 each, due and payable in December 1962 and June 1963. Carried: 7-0.

Progress of the maintenance program was discussed, as was the need for new maintenance equipment — including lawn mower.

The following were appointed as an Election Board for the coming Special Election on July 20, 1962:

June Heise	Irene Seymour
Shirley Lusk	Vivian Trimble

It was moved by C. Smith, supported by Tollas, that the offer of Gayle Spencer to buy the 1951 Chevrolet driver training car for $45.00 cash be accepted. Carried: 7-0.

Mr. Martinchek recommended: 1. That the superintendent prepare the agenda and copies be given each member of the Board on those Fridays preceding a Board meeting.

2. That a monthly inventory of hot lunch supplies be presented.

3. That the County Superintendent be asked to contact the superintendents of the County with regard to the feasibility of combined purchasing of school supplies. Tabled for further discussion.

The suggestion was made by Mr. Boss that the needs for fuel oil for the garage, gasoline, lubricating oils, and greases be published in the newspaper and prices requested for the entire amount for the year 1962-63.

A letter was read from the American School Band Directors Association, asking that a study of local conditions be made because of a Nation-wide tendency to reduce the number able to participate in instrumental music. It was pointed out by Mr. Bennett that this has not been a vital problem here at Charlevoix as yet.

Details for the election on Friday, July 20, were planned.

It was moved by Martinchek, supported by Al Smith, that the official meeting of the School Board be the first Monday of each month for the year 1962-63. Carried: 7-0.

The meeting adjourned at 11:12 p.m.

BURR BLANCHARD, SECRETARY

The first round is now history with winners having been decided in the various leagues. In the Men's circuit Ellsworth Morweld Steel finished with a five game winning streak to cop the title and post an overall 5-1 record. American Mold finished right on their heels at 4-2. Two heartbreaking "bottom of the seventh" defeats cost the Moldmen the title.

In the Junior League Browe Electric rolled up a perfect 8-0 record for their best season ever. Tight pitching by Bill Marme and Larry McBridge combined by lusty hitting formed a tough combination to beat. Barnard finished in second place and gave Browes two tough games both times they met. They could make it rough for the first round champs in the second round.

The Cardinals had little trouble winning the first round crown in the Peanut League. They ran up a 6-0 record and have to be favorites to also wrap up the second round. An air-tight infield proved to be a big factor in the Card's success.

The Women's League is not broken up into rounds this year. Each team plays every other team three times during the season with the team posting the best record becoming the league champion. Right now it's a three team race with Paul-Reeds, Edwards IGA, and Barnard clustered at the top.

In the Blooper League Charlevoix number 2 is still undefeated but opponents promise them trouble in the second half of the schedule. The league champions will also be decided by the outfit posting the best win-less record for the season.

We are aure that our fair city has the greatest number of softball players compared to city population in the state.

A break down of all our leagues would look like this:

Leagues	Teams	Players
Men	4	56
Senior	4	60
Junior	5	75
Peanut	7	112
Women	4	52
Girls	2	30
Pee Wee	2	24
Total	29	409

How about that? In addition to the 409 actual players there are 19 adults involved in managing teams plus the 10 playing managers. Our umpire staff numbers three, so that when you add all three figures up, there are 431 people involved in our softball program in some manner or other. Based on the last census of 2751 for Charlevoix this means that almost 20% of our townspeople are involved in the vast program. This impressive figure is thanks enough for the city fathers who provided the community with facilities and supervision for the program.

Incidently this brings up another subject that of finances. Many people no doubt wonder what the collections that are taken each game are used for. Here is the answer—Our umpires receive the following: for Men's game $2.50, Junior League $2.00, other games $1.75 each. So when we have three games a night each umpire may receive $6.25. Add this to the cost of one new ball a night ($2.25) and it costs us roughly $15 a night to operate. Our collections fall between $8 and $12 on the average. Entry fees make up the deficit so that we have managed to break even for the past seven seasons. Many thanks for your fine support.

Schroeder's Drug Store is now open on Sundays.

News Round-up at Camp Charlevoix

The fourth week of camp started off early Monday morning with Rebel Thompson and his cabin 21 having an early breakfast in order to board the boat for Beaver Island, where they spent three days. This is a very historic island, being the only place in the country that was ruled by a king. King Strang ruled this island which was inhabited by Mormons at the time, and he ruled until he was assassinated. The boys on this trip were: David Huck, David Gilmore, Marshall Moser, Marc Tayior, John Fraim, Steve Wardrop, and Carl Baum.

This being the fourth week, those boys only here for the first period were given choices of some long trips.

The next trip to leave on Monday was the three day horse trip. The cowboys accompanied these Steve Gardner, Oliver Janson, boys: Barney Kelly, Jim Niezer, Jim Sims, Larry Howell, Steve Zeigler, Andy Jacobs, C. J. Shelley, Bill Fraim, Roger Sims, Steve Sholty, Chris Ziehler, George Strapulos, Steve Armington, John Baker, Mark Stephan, Jim Alpern, Al Knobiock, and George Stearns.

John Stephenson took his cabin 13 on an overnigbt to Fisherman's Island. These boys were: Ralph Miesel, George Steinhardt. Ed Evans, Woody McAndrew, Jim Uiezer, Ed Oetting, and Berry Elliott.

Kerm Krueger took cabin 7 on a day trip. These boys were Mike Adams, David Jennings, Charlie Reynolds, Scott Pearl, Fred Ayres.

Cabins 4 and 5, with Gary Murfin and Marc Grambeau in charge took an overnight to Belle's Bay. These boys were Brad Rea, Chris Somers, Scott Somers, Jim Chalat, Jim Hutchinson and Mike Taft.

A new addition to the Nature Area, a little fox, was brought into camp. This is the most popular area in camp this summer. Ted Fleming and John Stephenson are the instructors.

Tuesday about 90 boys were out of camp on trips. These overnight and three-day trips are very important in teaching a boy survival tactics. The three day sailing trip left camp with the full sailing department in charge. The boys chosen for this trip were: D. J. Somers, Tom Hoyt, Scott Pearl, Frank Kolbert, Steve Sholty, Lee Gonsior, Jim Niezer, Tom Rotz, Ed Oetting, Mike Strapulos, Elliott Berry, Bruce Douglass, Lwight Alpern, Steve Martin, Mark McGinnis, Bob Logan, Peter Eberback, Peter Crew, Bob Hamburger, and Billy Kuntz.

The three day canoe trip down the famous Au Sabie River left this morning after an early breakfast. The following boys left for this trip: Wayne Standefer, Joe Hutchinson, John Martindale, Mike Bugar, Jack Gould, Don Thwaite, George Pfleger, Dave Arndt, Paul Kerwin, Bill Henderson, John Guba, Weidon Standefer, John Deane, Jan Steffensen, with Dave Garland and Joe Berry in charge.

A racoon has been added to the Nature Collection.

Wednesday was another warm, sunny day. The horse trip returned after a great time. Cabin 21, Rebel Tbompsons boys returned from Beaver Island and from all reports a good time was hsd by all. In the evening, we had a movie, Charles Laughton in "Captain Kidd".

Thursday the sailing trip returned and the boys were mighty pleased that they had such a fine three day trip. The camp teams were busy practicing for the Algonquin meet on Friday. Cabin 6 with Bruce Nasb and Bill Wright went on a day trip to the Charlevoix Beach. These boys were: Jim Alpern, Bill Fraim, Bill Stout, Tom Laskey, Jim Carkhuff, and John Danaher.

We had our first rain and it was a slow gentle rain and everyone was so grateful.

Friday we sent teams over to camp Algonquin for a day of competition which Camp Charlevoix won five to three. We lost the Archery match by six points; the Junior Softball game by one run, and we lost the Intermediate Swimming meet. Our Senior Tennis team won all three matches: John Fraim won bis match 8-7; Dave Connelly won his match 8-4; and Jim Ratliff won his match 8-6. Both of our riflery teams won. The Junior Team had the following scores: (these are scored out of a possible hundred) Sandy Coakley, 97; Dave Gerber, 95; Lee Gonsior, 91; Peter Eberbach, 91; David Jansen, 75. The Senior team had every man shooting above 90. Bruce Nyland was high with a 99; next was Al Knobiock, 96; Steve Wardrop, 95; Dick Flaningham, 93 and Bob Hamburger, 91.

Our Senior softball team won in a walk-away with a 15-3 score. Jay Heitz hit three bome runs, one a grand slam homer and had 9 runs batted in. Al Knoblock pitched and Marc Tayior and Jim Ratliff started in the field. Other members of the team were John Deane, John Fraim, Rusty Smith, George Pfleger, George Stearns, and Bob Logan.

The Senior Swimming team won. Point winners being Pete Renchard, Jay Heitz, John Fraim, Carl Baum, George Pfleger, Marc Taylor, John Deane, and Sandy Coakley.

In the evening, the four week boys were busy packing to leave camp on Saturday. It was a sad time for many of the boys. Life iong friendshps have been made these first four weeks and they will be greatly missed.

Saturday was the four-week change over. Parents arrived all morning to take their boys home. Some of the boys left by plane, bus and train and cars were shuttling back and forth between airports and depots. Twenty-eight boys have enrolled for the 1963 season. We are well on the way to get the first 50 who will be eligible for the Machinac Island trip next summer. The second four week boys arrived in the afternoon. There was much activity with cars pulling in camp all afternoon. Old campers were busy showing the new boys around the camp, and the parents enjoyed coffee or iced-tea in the club house.

In the evening we had the traditional pillow-fights. The matches were: Danny Steketee, won over Artie Schultz,; Dan Buckley won over Scott Walters; Dick Schultz beat Mike Danaher; Dave Pliskin beat Keith Graves; Steve Shina beat Tom Steketee; Chuck Herrington beat Ellis Rogers; Rick Gillett beat Dwight VanSteenkiste; Brad Rea won over Chris Somers; Peter Calvin won over John Waddell; Tom Laskey beat John Danaher; Brady Shea won over Louis Raden; Jeff Gray tied with Keary Sawyer; Steve Smith beat Jimmy Kuehn; Scott Graves beat John Hartz; Art Daane beat Jim Warner; Bill Whitesell tied with Mac Wyatt; Steve Steketee won over David Peets; David Fernstrim tied Tom Lambert; Dick Mueller tied with Bill Kuntz; D. J. Somers won over Weldon Standefer: Steva Martin won over Russell Washburn and David Gilmore won over Steve Wardrop.

It is always such a pleasure to have the parents in camp. We certainly do enjoy having them bere.

Sunday morning at chapel, John McFariand was the speaker, taking as his topic "Making Your Contribution". The older boys of the camp, Cabin 21, participated in the service.

We took eight horses and four campers to the horse show at Petoskey and at the end of the day we had garnered twenty ribbons to add to our growing collection. The boys winning rihbons were Rusty Smith, Wayne Standefer, Dan Strutz, and Rohbie Pliskin won a beautiful trophy as the boy's high point winner. Naturally the boys and the cofboys were very pleased at the showing Camp Charievoix made.

The campers were given swim tests today and the new boys also had their physical exams.

In the evening, the Junior Section was taken over to Greensky Hill to visit the Indian Church and the little cemetery. They also saw the circla of trees where Indian Chiefs used to meet in council. They found it all most interesting.

At Senior Vespers, Bob Baker was the speaker, using Conrad Hilton's "America on Its Knees". It was most inspirational for tha boys and gave them something to think about.

In a simple ceremony the Rev. Louis Wren O.F.M. (Conv.), pastor of Holy Cross church at St James, will bless the new ship. Mrs. Sylvester (Mary Connaghan) McDonough, 83-year-old mother of Lawrence McDonough, skipper of the craft, and Lloyd S. McDonough, vice president of the boat company, will then christen the ship.

Mrs Sylvester McDonough

Mr. Erber, Mayor E. D. Hawley of Charlevoix, directors of the boat company, Mr. McDonough, D. Archie LaFreniere, secretary-treasurer, Roger W. Caelisle, and Henry Allen will also appear on the brief program.

Mayor Hawley, members of his official 'family' and other city officials will make the trip to Beaver Island aboard the ferry Sunday for the ceremony.

Company and island officials will then return here for a buffet luncheon at the Argonne at 3 p.m. Sunday.

The Beaver Islander made its maiden voyage early Saturday when it arrived at 8 a.m. to take over the ferry route from the Emerald Isle. The first trip was made in two hours and aeven minutes, trimming approximately 35 minutes off tbe old time. The new ferry was delivered to Beaver Island late Friday from the builder, the Sturgeon Bay Shipbuilding and Drydock Co.

The 72 ft. Emerald Isle which had been in service since it was constructed at the Chrsity Corp. yarda in Sturgeon Bay seven years ago was turned over to its new owners, the Arnold Transit Co. of Mackinac Island late Saturday and taken to the island where it will be placed in service.

The 96¼ ft. Beaver Islander was designed by Walter W. Maertel, naval architeet, and built under his supervision.

It is powered by a pair of Caterpillar diesel engines of 500 hp each, driving twin screws for a speed of 15 miles an hour.

Construction is of steel and aluminun, welded, witb the hull reinforced for operation in ice. The main deck will accomodate 12 large cars and the upper deck has seating for 150 passengers. During the cold weather operation, the roomy passenger eabin will be heated to comfortably accomodate 68 passengers on countoured benches. Large wash rooms are entered directly from the cabin

The overall length of the vessel is 96 ft. 4 in. with the length on D.W.L, 90 ft. beam on the main deck is 27 ft. and its gross tonnage 95.4 tons. Its draft with a normal load is 7 ft. 5 in.

Making the trip from Sturgeon Bay to St. James Friday with Capt. McDonough in command were Lloyd McDonough, Mr. Allen and Vernon LaFreniere, representing the owners, Walter Plambeck, chief engineer for the builders, Eugene Kiehnau, diesel engineer for the builders and Mrs. Kiehnau, Mrs. Mamie Gallagher and nephew, Clyde Pischner of Green Bay, Wis., Capt. Shipment of Nuclear Fuel Headed for Big Rock

The first shipment of nuclear fuel for Consumers Power Company's Big Rock Nuclear Plant arrived at the plant site north of Charlevoix Monday. It is being inspected and atored preparatory to the loading of the reactor a few weeks hence.

Twenty-nine of the latest type fuel assemblies have been ahipped from the San Jose manufacturing facilities of General Electric's Atomic Power Equipment Department. The remaining 27 fuel assemblies for the first loading are comoleted and will be shipped soon, Consumers officials said.

Each fuel ossembly consists of 144 fuel rods composed of uranium dioxide pellets encased in stainless steel tubing. The entire first load for the 50,000-kilowatt boiling water reactor will contain about nine and one-half tons of uranium dioxide fuel, enough to meet tbe electrical needs of a city of 80,000 for more than three years.

Now more than 95 per cent complete, the Big Rock Point nuclear plant is expected to begin operations on schedule in September. The plant will be the largest power generator of any kind in northern Michigan. It also will be used as a proving grounds for development of high power density nuclear corea.

Research and development work at the plant, which is being supported by the Atomic Energy Commission, is expected eventually to increase power output by 50 per cent and contribute greatly to lower costs for future nuclear power stations.

G-E derigned the nuclear steam system and is supplying the nuclear fuel. Bechtel Corporation of San Francisco is the engineer and prime contractor for the plant.

Predict Light Vote In Tuesday's Primary Election

The Primary Election Tuesday is expected to bring out only a comparatively light vote was the opinion of Fenton R. Bulow, Charlefoix county clerk, who said that he has found only scattered interest in the forthcoming election.

He went on to say that he thought the election would bring out from 2,500 to 3,000 of the county's 7,200 registered voters with voting running the heavest in Boyne City and Charlevoix and very light in the other precincts.

A contest for Lieutenant governor on the State ticket plus contests for the state legislature and county prosecutor on the Republican ballot are expected to bring out the majority of tbe voters. Clarence A. Reid, John H. Stahlin and Rockwell T. Gust Jr. are seeking the nomination for the post of lieutenant governor.

Clarence B. Meggison, veteran representative from the Charlevoix district, is being opposed by Don Gordon of Leland for the nomination.

On the county level, incumbent prosecuting attorney Harvey C. Varnum will be opposed by Robert C. Klevorn of Boyne City.

Other candidates on both ballots are unoppoaed for nomination.

Polls will be opened from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

To Share Cost Of Rebuilding Bad Sidewalks

Various sidewalks about town are being marked with yellow paint. It signifies that the walks are in bad condition and should be replaced, according to James Taylor, city auperintendent.

The city council recently adopted a policy of participation in the cost of rebuilding aidewalks that are a hazard to pedeatrians. If the property owner so desires, the city will pay 25 per cent of the cost of building a new walk. The 75 per cent cost to the property owner can be paid in eash or spread on his taxes, Mr. Taylor reports.

Walks designated as in bad condition or hazardous doea not mean they have been condemned and that the city will force replacemen', Mr. Taylor pointed out. It merely means the property owner can apply for 25 per cent city participation if he wishes to replace the walk. Applications should be made to the city superintendent.

City Proposes Vote To Raise Library Fund

The Charlevoix city council, at its regular meeting monday night, agreed to underwrite the cost of a speciol election in which residents of the Charlevoix school district will be asked to raise from one-half to ¾ of a mill to finance the operation of the public library now operated by the school district.

The council agreed to underwrite an election in the amount of $200.00.

In ogrecing to foot the cost of the election, the council said that it wanted it understood by residents of the school diatrict that the council did not consider it the duty of the taxpayers of the city to entirely support a library operated by the school for the use of the entire area. Last year the city contributed $2,500 toward the support of the library but has not included this support in its current budget.

The council engaged the Brewer Engineering Company of Owosso to draw up a master plan for the municipal airport project. The company's bid for the work, one of three submitted for consideration, was for $5,000.

The contract with the State Highway Department for the maintenance of the state highways located within the city limits was approved for the 1962-63 fiscal year beginning July 1.

A Carey Oil Co. representative appeared before the council to ask that several phases of the resolution passed earlier regarding the sale of city-owned property to the company be clarified.

Bills totaling $20,309.91 were approved and ordered paid. Included in the total was $5,187.50 for diesel fuel oil and a payroll of $7,979.12.

Holy Island to be Restored a Real Island With Bridge

Holy Island, located about two miles south of Ironton on the south arm of Lake Charlevoix is again to become a real island, according to William Saunderson, supervisor of Eveline township. Plans have been completed for construction of a 40-foot bridge connecting the island with the mainland and dredging of the channel separating the two land areas.

In yeara past the island was connected with the mainland by a bridge that eventually deteriorated. Then a fill was constructed to build a causeway to provide a means of transportation for the inhabitants of the island, mostly summer residents. This has lead to an area of stagnant water, which is not only unsightly, but is unsanitary and emits an offensive odor.

Cost of reverting Holy Island to a true island again will be shared by property owners, the township and the county, Mr. Saunderson said.

There are 82 lots on the island and a number of cottages.

Holiday Terrace Hotel to be Scene of Gala Summer Ball

A committee composed of Mrs. Ernest Murray, Mrs. Thomas Bassett, Mrs. L. H. Bruce, Mrs. Carlton Ikens and Mrs Ralph Hamilton were in chorge of typing and mailing invitations to area residents onnouncing the ball.

Mrs. Donald DeMor is in charge of the program.

Tickets may be purchased from Mrs. Gebeau, Mrs. Floyd Brown or Fran Martin who will also accept reservations for those wishing them.

Linda Neff Crowned Queen Of Venetian Festival

Linda Neff, 17, was crowned queen of the Venetian Festival ot a coronation ceremony during the variety ahow in East Park Sunday evening.

Queen Linda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Neff, is 5 ft. 5 in. tall and has hazel eyes and brown hoir. She will be a senior at the Charlevoix bigh school this fall.

She received her crown from the retiring queen, Lorraine Heise, during the variety show which preceded the Venetian Boat Parade.

Queen Linda was selected for the honor from among 10 candidates at an informal coffee held at the Weathervane Inn Wednesday by a panel of three judges, Mrs. Thomas Borisch of Walloon Lake, Mrs. Herbert Johnson of Traverse City ond Bob Humphries, chairman of the Petoskey Winter Sports Festivel.

Serving as members of her court were Sharon Wood, Nancy Staley, Susan deCastro and Kathy Gallagber. Other candidates were Lynn Maxfield Jan Burns, and Barbara Schwab.

Queen Linda was presented with a variety of gifts contributed by Hess Furniture, Bellinger's Jewelry, Massrey's Linens, Polly Kay Shop, Shop of the Gulls, Lieberman's, Campbell's Boot shop, Central Drug, Murdick's Candy Kitchen, Schroeder's Drug, Edwards' IGA and the Chamber of Commerce which presented a charm bracelet bearing a disk resignating the year of her reign.

Mrs. Harold Geiken, Miss Katherine Fitch and Mrs. Paul Kohler were members of the queen's committee.

Parsel's garage made available to the Venetian Festival and the Queen's committee a fleet of 10 white Oldsmobile convertibles.

Approve Funds For Improving Local Airport

A fund of $105,000 for the development of the Charlevoix airport has been approved by the Federal Aviation Authority, the Courier was informed Wednesday morning in a telephone call from Congressman Victor A. Knox.

The fund was approved for the purpose of acquiring land for the airport development, clearing approaches; clearing zone to construct an east and west runway 3,500 feet long and 75 feet wide; taxi way and aprons, clearing lights on east and west runway and beacon tower and windcone, Mr. Knox said.

Most of the preliminary work for improvement and expansion of the airport has been completed even to the point of letting the contract, subject to approval from FAA. The city already has engaged the Brewer Construction Co. of Owosso to draw up a master plan at a cost of $5,000.

Total cost of the airport improvement and expansion program is set at $210,000 with the Federal government paying $105,000 and the state paying $47,000. Cost to the city will amount to $57,000. The city already has spent $13,285 in the project and has $40,000 which has been set aside to pay the city's share of the cost.

When the expansion program is completed it will provide adequate facilities for the larger planes which at present have to use airfields 40 or more miles distant and passengers then complete their trip to charlevoix by car. The larger and adequate airport could possibly lead to having commercial air service directly from the city.

A host of new entries and the loan of three original paintings by famous artists promises to make Charlevoix's fourth annual Waterfront Fair for Artists and Craftsmen the most successful in its history, Mrs. Jack Rader, chairmon of the Fair sponsored by the Charlevoix Chamber of Commerce, said Wednesday.

The paintings have been brought to Charlevoix by Mr. and Mrs. Cummings especially for the Waterfront Fair.

City Sidewalks

The city council has taken a step in the right direction by adopting a policy to pay 25 per cent of the cost of rebuilding hazardous and dilapidated sidewalks. It is hoped many property owners will avail themselves of this cost sharing plan.

Sidewalks that need rebuilding were marked last week with yellou paint. These markings indicated the city will share in the rebuilding cost. Property owners in the past have had to stand the full cost for such replacements. Some property owners are aware of the fact that a damage suit might develop if a person is injured on a hazardous sidewalk. They have, on their own, rebuilt the walk. Some even carry insurance for their own protection.

We believe the city should have gone a step father and adopted an ordinance permitting the city to condemn in and rebuild the walk and spread the cost on the prohazardous walks. Under such a policy the city would step perty owners' taxes over a period of years.

Blasts at State Court Decision

Newspapers in small, medium and large cities across Michigan last week were caustic in their criticism of the State Supreme Court decision abolishing present Senatorial districts.

Some blasted the court for the haste in which it acted. Others protested the speed with which the court demanded new districting to be carried out. Virtually all concluded the court, by its ruthless condemnation of the 1952 constitiutional amendment, has stripped 7,800,000 Michigan citizens of their right to self determination, and tossed the state's elective machinery into utter choas. Sample blasts:

Flint Journal: "The court's ruling practically handed control of the Michigan senate to Gus Scholle and his labor-dominated Detroit industrial area".
ingly unjudical haste in this matter

The Lansing State Journal: "There has been a seem-a precipitate action which has wrested from the people an opportunity to express again their views through the new constitution."

The Detroit Free Press: "As Michigan's government is now constituted, with the new court action, there are no guarantees of checks and balances. The majority is new free to do what it wants — a system which Thomas Jefferson called 'elective depotism".

The newspaper added: "If democracy is a process of majority rule, it is also a process under which minority rights are protected. Districting both houses of the legislature strictly on the basis of population deprives those minority rights."

Grand Rapids Press: "To apportion both houses of the legislature strictly on a population basis would be to turn over virtual control of the legislature to one section of the state, the southeastern. The court's decision opens the door to confusion."

The Flint Journal summarizes the contempt of most state newspapers in a biting statement: "Michigan has long been described as having one foot in the economic grave. Wednesday (July 18, 1962), the State Supreme Court slipped a banana peel under its other foot."

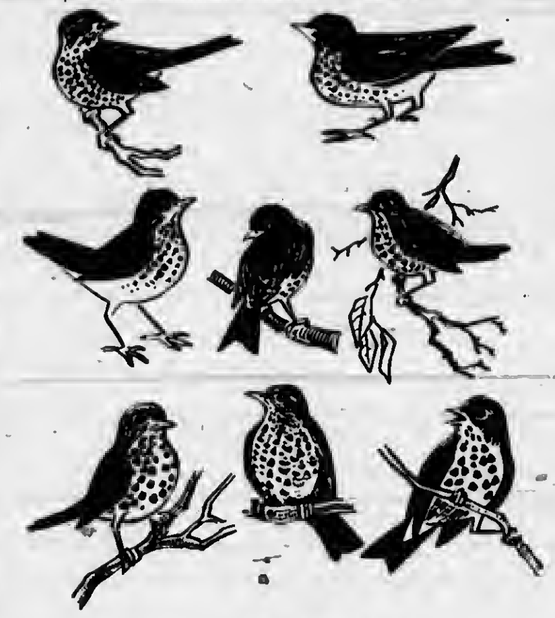
BETWEEN YOU AND ME

- By Harold E. Kohn -



- WOOD THRUSHES -

Our Restless, Nervous Neighbors

Nature sentimentalists often picture the outdoors as a place of perfect tranquility and our wild neighbors as creatures completely at peace with the world. But the realm of nature is not always serene, and our furred, feathered, and finned kinsmen of the wild suffer a tension quite like our own.

Birds are particularly apprehensive, restive, and tense. With the exception of some birds of prey, such as eagles and hawks, the birds of our forests and fields are constantly alert. Watch the wood thrush, that celestial-voiced close cousin of the robin, whose ethereal evensong has given him the name "swamp angel." His serene, rich chant betrays no sign of inner tension. But when he alights on a bough, cocks his head first this way and then that, looks up and then down, trying to see in every direction at once, he is seeking to escape the perpetual peril of surprise attack by marauding fox or cat, hawk or man.

If the rate of beartbeat is any measure of the nervous energy of a bird, our feathered friends make us appear to be sluggishly calm in comparison. A man's heart is regarded to be somewhat "normal" if it beats seventy-two times per minute, but a wood thrush's heartbeat is several times that number. A black-capped chickadee'a beat is about four hundred times a minute when the bird is asleep and approximately doubles when the bird is excited. And even the seemingly placid domestic chicken has a heart that throbs about three hundred times a minute.

We think of birds as being most patient while brooding their eggs, but wood thrushes fidget and fuss, leaving their nests many times each day. Black-capped chickadees average only about twenty-four minutes at a time brooding and then must spend a few minutes away from the nest. Song sparrows can endure from twenty to thirty minutes on the nest and then must have relief for six or eight minutes.

A life-saving feature of a bird'a nervous activity is found in the fact that these feathered packets of energy are not as consciously fear-ridden as they may appear to be. That is to say, they do not conjure up imaginary enemies pouncing upon them or picture a predator lurking behind every bush and tree. Instead, they possess an automatic alertness. Perhaps they do not know exactly what they are looking for or why they suddenly leave the nest for brief relief. Their action is unpremeditated, unburdened by nagging doubts as to their security. Heads turn, eyes brighten, because vigilance is the order of their lives and the price of staying alive. So they scan the earth below and the sky above, hide themselves in the canopy of the forest or the leafy bowers of a fence-row with no thought of "I must be watchful lest I die." They jerk their heads about as naturally as they snatch an insect from the stem of a goldenrod or pluck a seed from a sunflower plant.

Is a birds's life, then, a hectic life? I doubt it. While a wood thrush cautiously, protectively peers into the lengthening shadows of a birch copse at eventide, it sings.

Voice of Our Readers . . .

To the Editor:

Our Chamber of Commerce really should be congratulated by every person who viewed the Venetian parade because of their leadership and enthusiasm it was the most beautiful one we have ever had, and I have seen every one since the beginning.

Over the years the Terrace on Belvedere Avenue has been a choice spot to view the parade but the last few years the trees on the north side of Belvedere avenue have been allowed to reach such great heights that our million dollar view is worth about a nickel. It would seem that the city could do something about keeping trees trimmed to a less formidable beight so as to preserve one of the natural beauty spots of Charlevoix, the view of Round Lake.

The people who bave bought homes on Belvedere Avenue have done so for the view, which is now reduced to a few peep-holes.

Michigan Mirror

EVERY YEAR A new record. That's the story of Michigan's state government budget, which this year jumped to $511.5 million.

In recent years it has grown in leaps, from $436.5 million in the 1960-61 fiscal year to $462.6 million last year, and now $511.5 million.

But many of the large budget-consuming departments and divisions will work this year with basically the same budget they had last year.

Educational institutions, from the grade schools through the colleges and universities, gained the highest boosts. The education budget last year was $109.6 million. Some $116.5 million was set aside for it this year.

This year a boost in the school aid formula and the anticipated increase in primary enrollments pushed the budget for school aid payments to 66 million from $46 million in the past fiscal year.

Republican majority leaders in the Legislature estimated revenue from taxes around $536 million. The excess, if there is any when the taxes are collected, is designed to reduce the still mounting deficit.

MICHIGAN OFFICIALS have high hopes of cornering about 10 per cent of the Federal appropriation for manpower development and training programs.

Initially 14 courses under the act will be offered to some 400 persons in Alma, Battle Creek, Grand Rapids, Jackson, Kalamazoo, Lansing and Muskegon. Later courses are planned in Bay City and Detroit, as well as several other cities.

The projects will be a prime example of federal-state-local cooperation.

The Federal government set down the ground rules and will provide the funds. State officials are coordinating the programs, which are suggested and designed by local committees working with public school officials and the Michigan Employment Security Commission.

Charles C. Killingsworth, Michigan State University labor-industry expert, predicts great success for the program in the state.

The courses offered are set up on recommendation by local officials after a study of the needs of th labor market. Killingsworth estimates that 4 out of 5 trainees under the program will have jobs waiting for them when they conclude the courses. The others will "have a good chance to get a job," he said.

Courses under the program will be similar to several already conducted in various areas under the Area Redevelopment Act, with one major change. Under the Area Redevelopment Act, communities must be classified as "distressed areas" to qualify for Federal funds.

Success of the ARA courses has already been evidenced. In the Detroit area, three nurses' aide programs were completed in May. Of 19 persons who completed the courses, 15 were employed.

A similar ARA course in Port Huron for spring machine operators had 30 students. All 30 had jobs waiting for them.

Basically, the manpower development and training programs will be geared to help the unemployed re-situate themselves in a lobar market for which they are not presently qualified.

Killingsworth said Michigan hopes to receive $43 million of the initial $435 million Congressional appropriation. This would allow the training of an estimated 100,000 persons in Michigan.

SOMETHING NEW was recently added to Michigan's network of freeways. A 24-hour patrol by State Police was inaugurated on a semi-permanent basis after a month-long pilot study.

"About 100 troopers split into three shifts will be assigned to the freeway patrol from 20 posts," said State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs. "They will be there to assist stranded motorists as well as for traffic supervision and crime prevention."

The uses of the freeway patrol were shown well in the preliminary study of the idea.

The pilot test covered an 83-mile stretch of Interstate 94 beduring the month ahowed assistween Battle Creek and New Buffalo. A special compilation tance was provided to 571 motorists.

Of these, 169 were for tire failure; 91 motorists ran out of gas; 164 had motor trouble; 37 needed help with other mechanical failures; and 100 wanted information on food and lodging or routes, became ill or needed assistance for other miscellaneous reasons.

Childs said cars which run out of gas on freeways will be supplied enough to get to the nearest filling station.

The test patrol also handled its share of traffic control problems. The compilation show 261 arrests for traffic violations and 584 oral warnings to drivers, most of them for speeding. During the period 32 accidents were handled, two of them resulted in traffic deaths. "The patrols will be in the experimental state for some time," Childs emphasized. "We still have the same manpower as before and must carry out our usual other duties on other highways."

"One thing kids can't understand is why a country that makes nuclear bombs would outlaw firecrackers."—Owingsville Bath County News-Outlook.

Three Rivers Firm Wins $63,320 Bid For Sub-Station

The Clifton Engineering Co. of Three Rivers was awarded tha contract for the construction of the new electrical sub-station to permit a tia-in with Consumers Power Co. lines at the regular meeting of the City Council Monday night.

The company's bid, one of six received for the work, was for $62,320.32 and included $26,632.76 for the construction of the sub-station which will be owned by the city and $34,676.54 for new distribution lines and for larger lines to replace existing ones.

The work is scheduled to begin at once on city-owned property adjacent to the new street department garage on Stover Rd. The contract also includes the cost of moving the small Bellaire hydro sub-station now located near the diesel plant to the new location.

Top bid entered was for $69,-900.

The work is expected to be completed this fall. The city will then purchase total power, with the exception of that from the Bellaire plant, from the Consumers Power Co. for resale. Consumers is completing work on its lines to the new sub-station.

The city will then offer for sale the seven diesel engines now in use at the municipal light plant.

Students Transfer from N C M C Without Loss of Credits

Thirty students who have completed two years work at North Central Michigan College, have applied for and have been admitted to a number of universities as full-fledged juniors for the 1962 fall semester, as of mid-July, according to A. D. Shankland, dean of the Petoskey community college.

These students, many of whom have received scholarships, have been accepted with no loss of credit in transferring to their respective institutions of higher learning. They will go on to receiva bachelor's dagrees.

Other students are considering entering universities this fall but at this time hava not compiated their spplications. In contrast to students entering the universities directly from high school, in which an early application is imperative, the universities hold spots for transfers from Michigan community colleges and students from these colleges are able to be admitted to the universities up until almost the beginning of the college year.

In the three years students have been transferring from North Central Michigan College, no studant has lost a credit in transferring and only two students have failed to maka tha grade once they were admitted to the universities. In addition, at the University of Michigan and Michigan State University, where they conduct detailed surveys on the achievement of transfer students, North Central Michigan College students have ranked near the top in academic achievement at both universities.

Schools where students will be going this fall and the number transferring follow: Western Michigan University, 11; M.S.U., nine; Central Michigan University, three; University of Michigan and Northern Michigan College, two each; Wayne State University, Evangeline College of Springfield, Mo., and Capitol University at Columbus, Ohio, one each.

Mr. Shankland estimates that these students, by attending North Central Michigan Collega for two years, have saved $2,000 each, and in many cases, they can now afford to get the additional two years of college training, where they would not have been able to do it if they had had to finance four years of college training away from homa.

The sverage cost for students attending NCMC last year was $300 for resident and $375 for non-residents. tha averaga cost of attending any state four-year college or university in Michigan is a minimum of $1,200 per year.

AGRICULTURE in ACTION .....

MICHIGAN FARM BUREAU

Anhydrous Ammonia—Danger!

When the Billie Sol Estes case broke, one farm expert in Washington complained that all he did was answer calls from newsmen asking, "what's anhyddous ammonia?"

To oversimplify, it is a nitrogen compound frequently used as a soil fertility builder. Further, it is commonly stored in tanks from which it is dispensed to smaller tanks connected to applicators for field spreading.

Quite apart from the Estes affair where for a time everyone was out counting missing ammonit tanks,—the lively liquid is capable of getting into the news strictly on its own.

Used properly, anhydrous ammonia is not a bit more dangerous than many other farm tools, but when coupled with carelessness, things can happen in a hurry. Common ammonia is found in most households and if you stop to notice, the bottles are marked "poison." Just add 70 per cent more strength and you have anhydrous ammonia.

In view of National Farm Safety week (July 22-26)Farmers would do well to acquaint themselves with proper safety precautions when dealing with this potent poison. For example, should a tank leak or a hose blow off an applicator, a farmer can easily become sprayed with the dangerous material. If he is overcome by Ammonia fumes, someone might try to use an ordinary mechanical resuscitator on him. Although these devices are perfectly safe (even for babies under normal conditions,) IT WILL RUPTURE THE LUNGS of a victim that breathed anhydrous ammonia.

Soap and anhydrous ammonia simply do not mix. If a person sprayed by ammonia washes with soap anytime within a 24 hour period HE CAN END UP WITH THIRD DEGREE BURNS!

What to do? Farm Bureau safety experts when consulted said: "The best thing is to flood the exposed area with a heavy spray of water and keep it flowing for ten minutes or more. If this is done, chances are there will be no real ill effects."

They recommended getting into the shower, jumping in the creek or horse tank, just anywhere to be in water, . . . but especially flowing water. A hose turned on the victim can be a life saver.

How many people know of these things? Unfortunately, not many. Farmers must realize that science has made major changes in their work and that each presents new safety problems.

Special Games

Large crowds enjoyed the All-Star special games held over the weekend as part of the Venetian celebration. Friday night the West Junior League All-Stars edged the East in a well played game 3-2. The winners scored all their runs in the second and third innings with Steve Faculak and Frank Fowle each collecting triples. Larry Edwards key one-bagger led to the two runs in the East's second inning. Bill Marme was the winning pitcher while Mike Crain took the loss yet allowed only three hits.

The City Merchants composed of the outstanding players from the Mens League, edged Bare Construction, winner of the Petoskey softball league, 2-1 in an exciting nine inning affair. Ted Potter's strong pitching plus Bob Klooster's long home run held Bsre in check for the nine innings. Finally in the bottom of the ninth Andy Anderson blooped a single to left and hustled into second on the slow throw in. Sam Supernaw bounced a high hopper back to the pitcher and when the hurried throw went into the stands Anderson scored the winning run.

The Saturday night double header with the Kalamazoo All-Stars produced more exciting play although the locals lost both games. In the first game the winners scored all their four runs in the sixth inning taking advantage of two errors, a couple walks and a single. The only base hits for Charlevoix were doubles by Nate Boss and Ken Wojan, in the 4-0 loss. In the second game it was closer-3-2. Bob Klooster pitched a neat three hitter but two hits came in the same inning and produced the margin of victory.

In the Peanut League All-Star game the South easily defeated the North 8-1. Shoddy fielding hurt the North and the winners scored three times in the fourth inning with benifit of a hit.

Mens League

American Mold and Ellsworth racked up important wins in opening games of the second round. Both used timely hitting and strong pitching to fine advantage. Mold defeated Lake Construction 4-2 scoring the winning runs in the fifth on Ken Wojans and Ken Balch's base hits. Ted Potter made a strong bid to upset Ellsworth but an unearned run in the second inning proved the undoing in a narrow 2-1 win for Ellsworth. Ironton's run came in the second inning on Potters single.

Peanut

The Cards picked up where they left off in the first round to easily defeat the Tigers 16-6. Bill Williams and Chuck Masely led the winners with two hits each. The Cubs scored early and then hung on for a 11-9 win over the Lions.

The Tigers got into the win column with a 9-2 win over the Dodgers. Dick Lewis led the winners with two safeties.

Women

Puff's got into the win column by pulling a mild upset and defesting Edwards IGA 5-2. Myrna Boss pitched a neat one hitter while her teammates backed her up with timely hitting. Mary Moore had two hits for the winners.

Junior League

Al Wojan of Browes is leading the hitting in the Junior league with a fine .650 average. Below are the top ten.

Beaver Island Ferries Have Come and Gone

By Fran Martin

The new motorship, Beaver Islander, largest boat ever built especially for the Charlevoix-Beaver Island ferry run, arrived in Charlevoix at 8 a.m. Saturday to take over the route which links America's Emerald Isle with the mainland.

The gleaming white vessel with its shamrock green trim made a pretty picture as it glided into the harbor after covering the 32-mile trip from the dock at St. James to the municipal dock here in two hours and six minutes, approximately 34 minutes less than the present schedule.

The Emerald Isle, which has served as a 'bridge' between the two points for the past seven years, entered the harbor at 10 p.m. Friday for the last time as the Beaver Island ferry and late Saturday was moved to a new mooring area to make way for its successor. Later in the day, officials of the Arnold Transit Co. which has purchased the vessel from the Beaver Island Boat Co. arrived to take it to the Straits of Mackinac where it will be operated between the mainland and Mackinac Island.

To the residents of the mainland, the Beaver Islander, the Emerald Isle and other boats that have served as ferries between Charlevoix and Beaver Island have been crafts that enter and leave the local harbor throughout the navigation season, carrying mail, passengers and freight to the island located northwest of here in northern Lake Michigan.

But to the island residents the ferry, no matter what its name might be, is much, much more than a boat for it is its chief link with the mainland and all the outside world, the boat that brings letters from loved ones and a supply of reading material, a supply ship that keeps the island residents in food, fuel and all other needs and a passenger vessel, bringing residents to the mainland when the need arises, families home for a visit and summer residents, who have become dear friends, to the island for a few months stay. Its arrival and departure highlight the day for the residents of the quiet 17-mile long island which is fast becoming a sportsman's paradise and a business man's haven away from the busy city life.

Through the advent of the plane and pleasure craft, the island is not as isolated as it once was for now one may, in a few minutes, charter a plane for a hurried trip to or from the island which is also fast becoming a snug harbor for Great Lakes yachtmen.

But this has not always been the case on the island whose history dates back to the days when this area was known as the Michigan territory and the island itself was a fueling station for the sailing vessels and later steamboats which plied Lake Michigan between Chicago and the Straits of Mackinac. In those days passengers, mail and supplies were carried to the island by these vessels which picked up logs for fuel and transported tanbark, salted fish and other supplies at ports along the lake.

Then came the days of the Mormons whose leader, 'King' James J. Strang 'discovered' the island paradise while enroute from a Wisconsin port to Detroit. In the late 1840's he 'assumed' possession of the island as a 'home' for his followers who had become estranged from the orginal Mormon group in Illinois The orginal group later went west and established the Mormon colony in Utah.

Following the assassination of King Strang in 1856, the island was taken over by the Irish immigrants who flocked to it, some say, because it reminded them of the 'auld sod'.

It wasn't until the mid-1890's that the first boat took over the ferry run between Charlevoix and St. James which King Strang had named for himself. There had always been some traffic between the two points mainly because Charlevoix was the county seat and the Beaver group was a part of Charlevoix county. However it wasn't until 1895 that the mail route between Charlevoix and the island was established.

The first boat to operate between the two points was a 60 ft. passenger vessel called the "Nellie", according to P. D. Campbell whose father later operated ferries on the run. Mr. Campbell dosen't recall the name of the owner and skipper out said that Harry Sherman was the engineering officer for it was he who talked Mr. Campbell Sr. into bidding for the mail contract, a 'must' if the run is to be a financial success for any boat owner.

In 1897, Capt. Peter D. Campbell, whose home was then in Whitehall, purchased the 100 ft. wooden hull vessel, "Erie L. Hackley" at Muskegon, after submitting a low bid on the mail contract, and, with his family aboard sailed to Charlevoix to operate a ferry between here and the island.

About 1906 or '07. Capt. Campbell sold the Hackley, which later

The 120 ft. motorship, Beaver, operated as a farry between St. James and the mainland from 1907 until it burned at the dock here in 1915. This boat was also owned and operated by Capt. Campbell whosa son, P. D. Campbell, skippered the ship the last two years it was in operation.

News Round-up at Camp Charlevoix

The fifth week of camp started off with the new campers who had just arrived on Saturday busy trying to decide upon their choice of activities. Monday was another beautiful day, and this sunshine is really great for camping. In the evening the cabins had cabin nights when the groups were busy getting better acquainted.

On Tuesday two trips left camp. Cabin 20, Dave Garland's group, went down to Youngs State Park. These boys were: David Connelly, Jay Heitz, Wayne Standefer, Bob France, Neil MacVicar, Mike Stoltz, and Gary Van Gorp. John McFariand took his cabin on a canoe trip down the Jordan River. His boys were: Don Strutz, Dave Frederick, Collier Wilson, Jeff Whitesell, Keith Harrison and Bob Gunn.

In the evening we saw a movie, "The Knute Rocknie Story".

The trees and grass are getting green and the flower beds are looking great after the rain.

On Wednesday, the first order of the day was for the Greens and the Greys to get together and elect their lieutenants to help the captains run the competition. The captains are eight week boys, but the lieutenants can be four week boys. The boys elected were: Dean MacVicar, Alan Silverman, Marshall Moser, Gary Van Gorp, Steve Smith, Tim Larkin, Bob Young, Tom Briner and Tom Shwayder. The Greys are leading with a score of 16-6.

Two cabins took to the road, Cabins 17 and 18, with Jerry Flora and Spotty Adams taking their boys to Young's State Park. The boys were: Tim Sweeney, Bill Steere, Walt Silver, Tim Calvin, Don Thwaite, Bob Logan, Robby Pliskin, Bill Koller, John France, Russell Washburn, Rusty Smith and Steve Martin.

In the evening we all gathered in the clubhouse and had a very interesting and entertaining program. Ken Smith taught the boys some camp songs. Bob Carter, Head of the Waterfront, played a trumpet solo, Cowboy John Appel and C.I.T. Bob Hickam, played their guitars, and four of the C.I.T.'s, Chris and Bruce Nyland, Dave Roberts, and Bob Hickam, sang a few songs. Dave Roberts played three piano solos.

Ken closed the program by explaining the fireplace screen and then turning out the lights, and putting a huge fire in the fireplace. The boys could see the covered wagon with the oxen, and the driver with his wife and child on the seat of the covered wagon. It is a beautiful screen and was made years ago by Owen Frostic of Frankfort, Michigan. The evening closed with the singing of taps.

On Thursday, Dick Stadler took Cabin 2 on a day trip to Fisherman's Island. These boys were: Scott Harris, Dick Schultz, Andy Case, Steven Danaher, Michael Danaher, Keith Graves, and David Pliskin. In the evening, John Stephensen's Cabin 13, decided to spend the night in the TEPEE. These boys were: Ed Evans, Ralph Miesel, George Steinhardt, Hunt Harris, Jeff Hayes, Jay Jorgensen, David Peets, and Steve Steketee.

The Greens and the Greys are getting reorganized getting ready for the events on Sunday afternoon.

On Friday, three cabin groups left camp for overnight trips. Larry Eichinger took his cabin 14 down to Young's State Park, the boys being Bruce Douglass, Mike Pliskin, Peter Eberbach, Chris Calvin, David Fernstrum, Tom Lambert, and David Martin. Nick Cameron took his boys on a sailing trip. The boys were Howie Davis, Doug Laing, Tom Briner, Tom Case, John Holiday, Bill Whitesell, Mac Wyatt, and Bob Young.

Saturday evening we had another Skit Night with many very clever skits being offered. The hit of the evening was Cabin 2 with Dick Stadles and Tom Kennedy in charge. This was a "Whistling Hat Act" and was very clever. These boys were Scott Harris, Dick Schultz, Andy Case, Steve Danaher, Michael Danaher, Keith Graves and David Pliskin.

Cabin 4, Gary Murfin and Grant Washburn in charge put on "Cool Casey At the Bat" with Scott Somers taking the lead.

Kerm Krueger's cabin 7 put on "The Lighthouse Keepers Daughter".

Cabin 8, Bob Baker's put on "The Operation".

Cabin 9, Jerry Baranski's cabin put on another very clever skit with George Southwith as "The Hare." the skit was called "Hare Today, Goon Tomorrow".

Cabin 10, Montee McFadden's group put on a skit called "Home On the Range" with Mike Requarth in the lead. The evening was closed with the singing of taps.

On Sunday morning at chapel in the woods, Dick Stadler was the speaker and gave one of the finest talks heard here in several years. It was on "Tri-Cycle" and was indeed a challenge to everyone present.

In the afternoon, we had a Green-Grey Waterfront afternoon, and after the many events were over, the Greens had picked up three points to the leading Greys 1. The score now stands at Greys-19 Greens-10. The event winners were: Seniors, Dave Huck, Bob Gunn, Collier Wilson, Van Grop, Bill Kolier, Keith Harrison, Russell Washburn, Wayne Standefer and Bob France. Intermediate winners were: Pete Renchard, Dave Peets, Art Daane, Hunt, Harris, Mac Wyatt, and Pat Smith, Bill Whitesell Mike Plickin. The winners for the Prep Section: John Hartz, Chuck Adams, Jimmy Carhuff, Scott Graves, Jim Kuehn, George Southwick, Jeff Grey Jimmy Jordan, Mike Adams.

The watermelon event was greatly enjoyed and proved a lot of fun. The Greens won this with the great help of David Gilmore, with Rusty Smith proving a help for the Greys.

In the evening, the Juniors and the Preps had their Vesper Service in the Paul Bunyan Ring, while the Seniors and the Intermediates met in the Bigwam.

At this writing there are thirty-two boys enrolled for the 1963 season and boys are already looking forward to the second Mackinac Island trip this year which is coming up on Monday, August 13.

The Marold Blew Up on New Years Day 1937

The Motorship Marold, operated by Capt. L. L. Hill and his son, Leon, as a ferry boat between Charlevoix and St. James during the 1930's. On New Year's Day 1937 the ship blew up in the Straits of Mackinac where it was salvaging gasoline from a tanker that had gone aground on a reef during a November storm. The owners and three Beaver Island residents were lost in the explosion.

Beaver Island Ferries Have Come and Gone

was lost in a storm on Green Bay, and purchased the "Oval Agitator" which was being used in Lake Superior by Booth Fisheries, renamed it the "Beaver" and used it as a ferry on the 32 mile run until it burned at the dock here in 1915. During the last two years the boat was operated, Mr. Campbell who now operates Campbell's Boot Shop here served as skipper of the vessel.

The Roe Brothers of Harbor Springs took over after that and operated a small boat out of Harbor Springs, Emmet McCann, island native and former Great Lakes sailor who now lives here, recalls.

Capt. James Sanford, returned the mainland terminal to Charlevoix when he purchased the "Agontz", renamed it for himself and operated the 100 ft. ship out of Charlevoix.

This was the first of a long line of boats that were to serve as ferries during the next 45 years. There is no history of the exact dates these boats operated out of here but among them was the "Bruce" which was owned and operated by Harry L. Oldham who built the home now known as the Tower Hotel and casino to the rear of the property overlooking the entrance to the harbor.

Then came the 150 ft. "Bainbridge" which was only on the run one year because it proved too costly to operate. It is now operated in the Straits of Mackinac under another name.

The ill-fated Marold, 140 ft. yacht converted for use as a passenger and freight vessel by its owners, Capt. Hill and his son, Leon Hill. It will be remembered that this boat, which was being used to salvage gasoline from a tanker that had gone aground on a reef in the Straits of Mackinac during a storm in late 1935, blew up on New Year's Day, 1937, with the loss of five lives. Among them were the owners, the Cole brothers, Everett and Raymond and Bruce McDonough, the latter three of St. James.

This was followed by the 'Mary Margaret" operated by Capt. Leroy Allers with Lawrence Feindt as engineering officer. Then came the "North Shore", owned and operated by the Lyons brothers, Jack and Richard, who later sold it to the Beaver Island Transit Co.

In 1955, the Beaver Island Boat Co. was formed by a group of island and mainland residents who foresaw the potential of the island as a summer resort and sportsmen's paradise. This company, then headed by Henry Allen of Ann Arbor and St. James, purchased the "Emerald Isle", first craft ever built especially for the run. It was constructed at the cost of $100,000 by the Christie Corporation of Sturgeon Bay, Wis., and placed in operation in April 1955. It is 72 ft. in length, is powered by a 310 hp. engine and carries 115 passengers and eight vehicles.

With the growth of the island, the boat began making two trips daily on weekends for several years during the summer months but this did not keep pace with the demand for more trips so last winter the boat company officials placed an order for the new "Beaver Islander".

The bid was awarded to the Sturgeon Bay Shipbuilding and Drydock Co. which built and equipped the vessel at a cost of $208,000. It is 96½ ft. in length, is powered by twin screw 510 hp. engines and will carry 150 passengers and 12 vehicles.

The Emerald Isle will be placed in service at the Straits of Mackinac by its new owners.

The christening of the new ship will be held at St. James Aug. 5.

While there were difficulties in placing the new Beaver Island ferry in pre-planned position for the christening Sunday at St. James, Mrs. Sylvester McDonough coped with the situation and properly christened the new Beaver Islander with a bottle of champagne. The job done, Mrs. McDonough turned around for a picture. At her right is her son, Lawrence, captain of the ship and at her left is another son, Robert, of Grand Rapids. Directly in back of Robert is a third son, Lloyd, who is one of the directors of the Beaver Island Boat Co.

Artists and Craftsmen To Exhibit Saturday

Charlevoix's fourth annual Waterfront Fair scheduled for Saturday promises to be the most successful to date with more than 90 entries on the list Wednesday, according to Mrs. Jack Rader, general chairman.

The Waterfront Fair for Artists and Craftsmen will be held in East Park beginning at 10 a.m. Saturday with the exhibitors displaying their works of art on the rolling terraces of the park from which the fair takes its name.

Art in many forms will be found among the exhibits, Mrs. Rader said. Among them will be oils, water colors, pottery, lapidary, silhouettes, ceramic jewelry, serigraphs (silk screen prints), sculpture, wood carving, metal work, wood cuts, collage, gouache, drawings, gem jewelry, enamel jewelry, charcoal portraits, portrait sculpture and others.

Highlight of the fair for true art lovers will be three originals loaned by Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Cummings of Chicago and Charlevoix from their private collection for exhibit at the Waterfront Fair. They include an India ink drawing on linen of Sir Winston and Lady Churchill by Picasso, Henri Mattisse's "Portrait of Michael Stein" and "Duex Personages" by George Rouault.

A number of other artists who have gained fame through their works will also display them. Among them will be Walter Midener of Detroit, sculptor, Peggy Midener, also of Detroit, a well-known artist Charles Culver, top Detroit water colorist and a comparative newcomer, Maribelle Busher of Grand Rapids whose lead-oil relief, "The Seven Tribulations of Man" has been sold to Alfred Krupp art collection in West Germany.

There will be works, all of them originals, by other Michigan and out of state artists on display during the day.

Held on the rolling terraces of the park which offer a perfect setting for works of art, the Waterfront Fair will open at 10 a.m. and continue until 8 p.m.

The fair offers art lovers an opportunity to wander through the park at their leisure, viewing the works and talking with the artists. There is no charge for spectators. A small entry fee is charged exhibitors, most of whom offer a piece of their work as 'door' prizes.

In the event of inclement weather, the Fair will be held in the nearby County Building on State st. between Mason and Antrim sts.

New Beaver Isle Ferry Christened Officially Sunday

"I christen thee the Beaver Islander"

With these words, Mrs. Sylvester McDonongh, 83 years old native born resident of America's Emerald Island, broke a bottle of champagne over the bow of the new Beaver Island ferry at high noon Sunday.

The 96½ ft. craft built by the Sturgeon Bay Shipbuilding and Drydock Co., thus became the first boat to bear the name of the historic island located in northern Lake Michigan which once gained fame as a Mormon Kingdom more than a century ago.

On hand to witness the christening were Mrs. McDonough's sons, Lawrence McDonough, skipper of the craft, and Lloyd McDonough, vice president of the Beaver Island Boat Co. which owns and operates the ferry between St. James harbor on Beaver Island and the mainland at Charlevoix.

Others who were present and participated in the program were the Rev. Louis Wren O.F.M. (Conv), pastor of Holy Cross church, who blessed the new vessel, Karl J. Erber, president, D. Archie LaFreniere, secretary-treasurer, Roger Carlisle and Henry Allen, directors of the boat Company, Mayor E. D. Hawley of Charlevoix, and Capt. John Roen of Sturgeon Bay, Wis., whose company built the boat.

More than 100 island residents joined with Charlevoix residents at a buffet luncheon at the Argonne late Sunday afternoon to celebrate the event.

Miss Beth Lewis was scheduled to arrived early this week from Palo Alto, Calif., for a two weeks visit with her mother, Mrs. Ira Olney and Mr. Olney and other relatives.

Hospital Guild To Sponsor Gala Summer Ball

More than 70 Charlevoix area summer residents have lent their support as patrons and patronesses to the Gala Summer Ball to be held at the Holiday Terrace Hotel Saturday evening, Mrs. Harry Gebeau, president of the sponsoring organization, the Women's Guild of the Charlevoix Hospital, has announced.

The ball benefiting the Charlevoix Hospital will begin at 9 p.m. at the popular resort hotel overlooking Lake Michigan whose facilities have been made available through the owner-managers, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Wilson.

Music for dancing will be by the Joe Hanna orchestra, a four-piece combo from Petoskey, Mr. Wilson said.

Topiary trees will be used to decorate the ballroom on the lower terrace of the hotel, according to Mrs. Gordon Freedman, chairman of the decorating committee.

Tickets are available from Mrs. Gebeau, Mrs. Floyd Brown or Fran Martin who will also accept reservations for the event. Tickets may also be purchased at the door.

It's Circus Day In Charlevoix

Sells and Grey circus is scheduled to have its city of tents set up today on the grounds opposite the Charlevoix airport for an afternoon and evening performance. The one-day stand here is sponsored by the Leslie T. Shapton post, American Legion.

The Sells and Grey combined circus has won public approval in its tours of the country. The entertainment program is said to include highly skilled acrobatic artists, trained animals, clowns and all the other fascinating features that go with the "big top".

Features will include the Kantolina Family of bareback riders La Bella Lucia, proclaimed the world's youngest wild animal traineress, Capt. Wayne Fremont and his educated bears; the Florez troupe of tight wire artists.

Performances start at 2 and 8 p.m. Doors will open an hour before each performance.

List Program Cutbacks in Charlevoix Public Schools

The Charlevoix board of education, faced with the task of cutting back the school program for the 1962-63 school year to meet the budget after a two-mill tax levy was turned down twice earlier in the summer, has decided on the following curtailments in the program. Other issues have been taken under advisement and decisions regarding them will be handed down shortly.

In listing the cutbacks, a spokesman for the board said that the board members have tried to protect the academic program while cutting expenses by various other means.

The majority of the suggested changes made earlier were followed in cutting the program.

Under the austerity program, the size of classes, which the board had hoped to cut, will remain as high as 45 in some instances. Earlier, it had been planned to engage new teachers in order to open more classrooms to care for the growing enrollment. At the present time, plans call for one new teacher in the elementary grades.

It was decided to change a rental fee for textbooks which, until now, have been supplied at no cost to the students. There will be a $2.00 fee for each student in the elementary grades beginning with the third grade and $1.00 per course in high school.

It was also voted to eliminate instrumental music in the grade school and reduce the number of students participating in the band program; to postpone the television program for a year; close the school buildings at 5 p.m. except for scheduled games or a rental system for the gymnasiums, cafeterias or classrooms; eliminate the publishing of the school board minutes in the Charlevoix Courier; postpone becoming a registration district for one year; eliminate the teacher-training program for one year and increase the price of lunches in the cafeterias from $1.00 to $1.10 in the elementary school and from $1.25 to $1.35 in the high school.

A survey is presently being made of the transporation system to determine if children living within the 1½ mile limit from the school should be transported.

The board is also meeting with the athletic council to decide if the price of admittance to games should be increased and if the number of students participating in athletics should be limited.

A decision regarding the financial support of the public library will be withheld until after the planned election to raise extra millage to underwrite its cost. In the past the library has been supported by the schools along with some financial help from the city.

Other means of cutting the cost of operating the school are also being studied and further cuts may be made as the school year opens.

Dr. Haynes Named B. I. Physician

St. James, B. I.—The appointment of Dr. Howard Haynes of Traverse City as island physician for this northern Lake Michigan island has been announced by Dr. Albert E. Heustis, chief of the Michigan State Department of Health.

Dr. Haynes, who has been a visitor to the island where he has had a cabin for the past four years, has arrived here with Mrs. Haynes to assume his duties.

A native of Corruna and a graduate of Adrian College and Wayne State University School of Medicine, Dr. Haynes was a physician and surgeon in Lansing for 26 years. While there he was vice chief of staff at Sparrow Hospital. For the past 15 years he has served as surgeon at the Traverse City State Hospital. He has done postgraduate work at Arizona State Hospital and in Chicago. He also had five years of special training in psychiatry past two years he has served as at the State Hospital. For the faculty and student counsellor at Alma College, visiting the college twice a week for consultations.

Dr. Haynes said he loves to hunt and fish and is looking forward to life on Beaver Island where during the summer he will care for the needs of the large summer population and the more than 200 year-around residents during the winter months.

Dr. Haynes succeeds Dr. Sidney Schochet as island physician. He was there from Oct. 1961 until April 1962. Others who have served are Frank Luton, 1956-'61; Dr. Harry F. Vale, 1953-'56 and Dr. Russell E. Palmer, 1925-'52.

Delegation Urges Highway Signs for Each Community

Paul Kohler, secretary-manager of the Charlevoix Chamber of Commerce, was among the 26 representatives of 13 northern Michigan communities who were in Lansing recently to meet with State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie regarding the placing of directional signs on US 27 and I-75.

Among those attending the meeting were Chamber of Commerce, Road Commision, legislators and business men who have been interested in having directional signs at roadways leading from the above mentioned main arteries to their respective communities.

"At the present time, US 27 and I-75 are carrying traffic right through northern Michigan to the Canadian border without one sign to tell travelers that there's a community known as Charlevoix," Mr. Kohler said. "If we are to attract these tourists we must have signs directing them to our respective communities. That is what we are trying to convince the State Highway Department which now prohibits such signs within a given area of the intersections," Mr. Kohler added.

Mr. Kohler was named to a five-man committee to meet and draw up suggestions for presentation to Mr. Mackie.

Primary Attracts Only 25 Per Cent of Registered Voters

In the primary election which brought out only 25 per cent of the registered voters in Charlevoix county, incumbent Harvey C. Varnum polled a total of 994 votes to win the nomination for prosecuting attorney over newcomer, Robert C. Klevorn of Boyne City who tallied 586 votes.

In the only other contest of major interest in the county, incumbent Clarence B. Meggison received 847 votes to 635 for his opponent, Don Gordon of Leland, for State Representative from the Charlevoix district. However, in the four-county district, Gordon won the nomination by approxmately a 2 to 1 margin.

Both contests were on the Republican ballot.

Many voters crossed party lines in Charlevoix county to vote in the two contests on the Republican ballot.

Candidates on the ballot and the votes each polled follows: Governor: (R) Romney, 1481, (D) Swainson 373; Lieutenant governor: (R) Reid, 725, Stahlin, 373 and Gust, 277; (D)Lesinski, 344; Congressman-at-large: (R) Bentley, 1325, (D) Staebler, 332; Representative in Congress 11th District: (R) Knox, 1378; (D) Cleary, 327; State Senator 29th District: (R) Schweigert, 1302; (D) Schneider, 321 State Representative Charlevoix District, (D) Wolf 307.

On the County level, where there was only one contest, the results were of follows: Sheriff: (R) Rose. 1438; (D) Karlskin, 272; clerk, (R) Bulow, 1381; treasurer, (R) Flanders 1369; Register of Deeds, (R) Geneit, 1330, (D) Osborn, 293; Coroner, (R) Stackus, 1318; Surveyor, (R) Feindt, 1318.

Dr. Robert G. Martin Named Community Chest Chairman

Dr. Robert G. Martin has accepted the chairmanship of the 1962 Community Chest fund campaign in the Charlevoix area, Mrs. Dean Davenport, president of the board, has announced.

This year the fund campaign to raise $11,278.00 for 48 local, state and national agencies will be conducted in six divisions; namely, they are the Special Gifts division, gifts from summer residents and from clubs and organizations; Retail Business division; Industrial gifts; Professional gifts, those from self-employed professional people and from the staff of the hospital, schools and government employees; Residential division and Townships division.

A. L. Livingston and Robert Bridge are serving as co-chairmen of the Special Gifts Division which is already underway. They have mailed letters to summer residents who have given such generous support to the Charlevoix Community Chest in the past. These letters are being mailed earlier this year for the convenience of non-resident contributors who prefer to make their gifts to the Charlevoix Chest while they are still in town.

During the month of August, volunteer solicitors will be calling on business places which operate only during the summer months.

Minimum goals have been established for each of the six divisions. It will be necessary for each division to make 100 per cent of its goal if the campaign is to be successful.

The People Pay

What idea, what philosopy, dominated the minds of the men who founded this country, and laid down the principles they meant it to abide by?

Thomas Jefferson expressed a fundamental thougt perfectly when he said: "I am for a government that is rigorously frugal and simple, and not for one that multiplies offices to make partisans, that is, to get votes, and by every device increases the public debt under the guise of being a public benefit."

Admittedly, there have been vast changes in the nation and the world since the great Jefferson's day. But this does not excuse the development of an attitude which makes the attraction of votes the paramount objective of great numbers of government officials who show small concern for the value of the dollar and who seek more and more monolithic and dictatorial power.

The people put up every dollar that is returned to them by government through welfare state charity. And they pay not only in money but in the infinitely more important coin of lost liberty.

Our government is spending hundreds of millions of dollars annually in disease prevention, in research and in other ways which involve health, so much so that it is not strange that many citizens are wondering how necessary it is to give the various drives and canvasses for funds for this and that association. There must be a fearful amount of duplication. This was not so before the government entered the field.—Virginia, Minn, Mesabi Daily News.

DOCTORS and PHARMACISTS bring an invaluable ingredient to their professions. This ingredient is natural aptitude, which is reflected in your doctor's diagnosis and treatment, and in your pharmacist's skill. While money does buy many things—the necessary medical and pharmaceutical training, for instance—it can't buy natural aptitude. We say, "The next time your doctor prescribes, bring your prescription to us." This is because we put that invaluable ingredient into every prescription we fill.

When Mr. and Mrs. Henry Guttentag and three children of Detroit registered at the information center at Consumers Power Co. Big Rock Nuclear plant they were most innocent of the fact that they were the 100,000th on the registration list. They were no doubt startled when the receptionist, Miss Pat Kujawski, gave a blast on a horn kept in readiness for such occasions.

The reward, Mr. and Mrs. Guttentag received was a portable televison set. The two older sons, Steven, 7, and Michael, 6, each received transistor radios and David, 2, was given a gift certificate. The family also were guests of Consumers Power Co. at a dinner at a popular restaurant.

It is reported the parents and the children had disagreed on the vacation program for the day. The children wanted to go swimming but the parents won out. Mr. Guttentag is employed in the research and engineering department of Ford Motor Company at Dearborn. The family was vacationng in northern Michigan.

Shell dealers suggest 7 things to tell your son when he first borrows the family car

1 Don't take other drivers for granted. They sometimes do unexpected things. In the U.S. in 1960, they ran into stationary objects more than 150,000 times.

So don't be too optimistic. Cars backing out of parking spaces do sometimes back out blindly. Cars coming from the other direction might swing into your lane—especially on hills and curves.

Your best protection is to drive defensively. The only driver you can really be sure of is yourself.

2 If the car won't start, there are a number of simple things worth trying. Use the starter in short bursts. Press accelerator to the floor once, then hold it there while you try starter.

With manual shift, keep clutch pedal all the way down. With automatic transmission, jiggle lever to make sure it's in neutral.

Note from Shell: We recently published an advertisement with 7 simple starting tips. For a free copy, write to the Shell Oil Company, P.O. Box 272, New York 46, N.Y.

3 Courtesy is contagious—and adds to everyone's driving pleasure and safety. Nobody ever cured a traffic jam by losing his temper. If you can keep your sense of humor and wait your turn, everyone will probably get where he's going sooner. Including you.

Another suggestion: It takes only seconds to let someone enter the roadway ahead of you, but it can save the other driver minutes. Just remember to signal the car behind that you're slowing down or about to stop.

4 Cars respond to good care. Have the oil, battery and water checked every time you stop for gasoline.

When you're driving, listen for unusual mechanical sounds. If you hear one, have it checked right away. It could save a big repair bill later on.

On rough roads, take it easy—tires are tough, but they are destructible.

Note: For a free copy of Shell's 12-page booklet, "44 ways to make your car last longer," write to the Shell Oil Company, P.O. Box 272, New York 46, N.Y.

Many a young man first borrows the family car for a summer dance. On this page, your local Shell dealers offer some driving tips that can be useful to him all his life.

5 Remember what you learned to get your driver's license, and you'll be a better driver. Eight out of ten car accidents stem from improper driving practices—such as speeding, failing to yield right-of-way and following other cars too closely.

Truck drivers and other professionals have very few of these accidents—mile for mile, about one-quarter as many as other drivers. The professionals know the rules of good driving—and obey them.

6 If you're going to be late, call home. And if car trouble is the reason, call the nearest service station, too.

Park off the traffic lanes and wait in the car until help arrives—with the hood up to show you're disabled. Making repairs close to a busy road can be dangerous.

Note from Shell: Over 12,000 of our dealers go to special training schools each year. There, they learn how to spot trouble in a hurry. A Shell dealer can be helpful to you in almost any emergency.

7 Have a good time. So far, almost everything you've heard about cars has to do with safety.

Now you're about to find out what a pleasure they can be. Here are the keys. Just take your responsibilities in stride. And have fun.

Comforting fact for parents: Drivers with less than three months' experience account for very few serious accidents. That's a good sign that most new drivers do take their responsibilities seriously. So you can relax.

In the evening, the MUG-WUMP was once again hidden and to the finder was the right to start the competition off for the week. Dave Huck, Senior Captain of the Greens, found it. but before he had a chance to hide it in the woods, the Greys had it and hid it.

On Tuesday, Bruce Nash and Nick Cameron from the sailing staff took Cabin 6 on a sailing trip down to Whiting'a Park. These boys were: Jimmy Carhuff, Tom Loskey, Dan Baxter, Tom Danaher, Jimmy Jordan, Paul Rifenberg, and Kirk Rogers.

Leaving in the afternoon for an overnight to Fisherman's Island was Kerm Krueger's cabin 7. These boys were Brady Shea, Mike Adams, David Jennings, Morton Charnley, John Levin, Jeff Owen and John Sears.

We were hosts in the afternoon to a group from Bay View, and we had competition in both archery and softball. We won botb the archery match and the ball game.

In the evening, we had a Capture-the Camper Game in which the campers all hid out in the woods and after being given time to get located the staff hunts them. The team having the fewest boys caught gets the points in the Green-Grey competition. At the end of the hunt, which lasts an hour, the Greys garnered two points and the Greens one.

On Thursday, Cabin 15 with Dan(Kookie) Ross in charge took a trip to Fisherman's Island and reported as having had a great time.

The big event of the day was the annual nature trip leaving camp with the two instructors in charge assisted by Dave Roberts and Bruce Nyland. John Stephenson and Ted Fleming arranged this trip, and the following were the lucky boys to be invited to go: Mike Rees, Scott Harris, Hunt Harris, Tom Steketee, Jim Warner, Arthur Daane, Tom Harper, Tor Shwayder, Rudy Palombit Freddy Birkhill, Scott Somers and Jay Jorgensen. They had a perfect night to sleep out, and the boys reported as having had a most enjoyable time. Our oldest boys in camp, Cabin 21, with "Rebel" Thompson, took a canoe trip down the Jordan River and paddled all the way back to camp, arriving in time for breakfast on Friday. These boys were: David Huck, David Gilmore, Marshall Morser, Alan Silverman, Brian Dicken, Skip Kessler, Steve Wardrop, and John Gillett.

On Friday, the nature trip returned with the boys all chattering about the things they had seen, the traps they had set, and the fun they had.

Our tennis team, with Bruce Nash, as coach, played a match at the Belvedere and Camp Charlevoix was victorious winning six matches out of seven. The only boy to lose was Alan Silverman and his scores were close.

The winners were Keith Harrison, Skip Kessler, Steve Smith, Ernie Kelly, Steve Steketee. Silverman and Kessler won their doubles match 6-2; Smith and Steketee won 8-4; 8-2; and Kelly and Harrison won in one set 7-5.

The new barn at the stables is finished and everyone is proud of it as it is a gift to the camp from Don' Strutz's grandfather, Mr. Hudson, of Fort Wayne, Ind. It adds much to the set-up at the stables and is greatly appreciated.

Boys are enrolling for the 1963 and at this date we have 36 already enrolled for next summer.

Quiz programs were held in all the sections Saturday morning between the Greens and the Greys. The Greys added four points to their total, winning in all four sections. The score stood at this time Greys 29 Greens 11.

In the afternoon, the sun came out and it was another great camping day with all activities going full force. Bill Fors, Senior at University of Michigan Medical School, and here for eleven years as camper, C.I.T. Assistant Counsellor and counsellor came to visit us as did Kent Gibbs, Junior at the University of Michigan Medical School and here at camp for ten years as camper, C.I.T. Assistant Counsellor and counsellor. In the afternoon, the C.I.T.'s were busy decorating the dining room for the dance with Chippewa Trails Camp that night. The theme was "Peppermint Lounge". The logs, listing the campers of each year, which hang down in the clubhouse were wrapped in white paper with pink stripes. Christmas tree lights around the whole dining room added much to the effect and the C.I.T.'s should be given a lot of credit for doing such a fine job. The girls arrived for the dance about 7:30. The rest of the camp met in the Bigwam where camp slides and movies of previous years were shown.

Sunday morning chapel was held in the "Chapel in the Woods" and Dennis Eichinger was the speaker. He gave a most provacative talk, one which gave the boys and men something to think about.

In the afternoon we had the second Mile Swim of the season. The weather was ideal for this important event. Two of our Juniors finished the swim, Rick Gillette, and Freddy Birkhill. The first ten to finish were: Gary Van Crop, Bill Koller, Hunt Harris, Skip Kessler, Dick Mueller, Dave Huck, Collier Wilson, Keith Harrison, John Holliday, and there were four tied for tenth, Walt Silver, Tim Calvin, Don Thwaite, and Dave Peets. Congratulations to all of those boys.

In the evening, we did something new for Camp Charlevoix. Bill Townsend, director of activities, arranged with those in charge of the Indian Church at Greensky Hill for a Vesper Service in this 100-year old church. Ken played the organ, and a very inspiring service was held. Bill Townsend gave a history of the church and explained about the old burial ground, the Council Circle of trees, and it was all very interesting and most inspiring. The Catholic members of the staff had a service back in camp for the Catholic boys, and this was another high-light of the season. We feel that this Sunday evening will remain within the boy's memories for a long time as it was truly one of the nicest things we have ever done.

As we enter the sixth week of camp, the boys are all excited about the long trips, three day trips leaving camp. The first one to leave is the horse trip with 36 boys on this trip.

We would like to remind the parents and friends that we are busy with rodeo preparation and the Indian Dancers started work with Rodney Deyo arriving to get his Indian Ceremony in shape for the close of camp. We hope all parents will be here for our closing on August 17 with the boys leaving on Saturday morning, August. 18. The Rodeo is at three o'clock on Friday afternoon, August 17 with the final Indian Ceremony that night at 8:30 p.m.

Much well deserved credit has been given the architect and builders of the New BEAVER ISLANDER, a beautiful ship and a great asset to our beautiful Charlevoix harbor; but our very hearty congratulations at this time to the owners of the BEAVER ISLAND BOAT COMPANY whose foresight and initiative made this possible.

Most particularly, we want to extend our best wishes to the crew. We have seen them go out on their regular trips in fog, rain, bitter cold, sometimes fighting a gale, and we were proud and happy to provide the very best in electronic equipment for the safety of the ship and the protection of the passengers and the crew. Delegates Share Experiences At Senior Girl Scout Roundup

Delegates to the 1962 Senior Girl Scout Roundup held at Button Bay, Vt., Marilyn Lesher and Sherry Holborn, have returned home from the two weeks camping session attended by 10,000 Girl Scouts and adult leaders and have written the following report of their trip.

Dear Charlevoixans,

It seems only yesterday that we departed for the big Girl Scout Roundup in Vermont. Now we are home with our beads still awimming with a round of events that has made this the most thrilling two weeks in our lives.

It was July 18 when we left here to join the rest of our patrol at Traverse City for the motor trip to Flint to join the Roundup train. A hurried trip to the planetarium there where we saw a program entitled "The Birth and Death of the Sun" was enjoyed by the group before we went to the atation, only to find the train would be almost an hour late.

At the station we found 12 passenger cars, overflowing with Girl Scouts from throughout the midwest, with diners between every three cars. Enroute we had a three hour stopover at Montreal.

At Essex Junction, Vt., we were met by a band led by majorettes, mounted police, Brownie Scouts snd Boy Scouts, all carrying placards welcoming us to the Roundup. We made the trip from Essex Junction to the Roundup site via bus.

On our arrival at camp, we were met by a staff member who checked us in.

We picked up our tents and equipment and made our way to our camp site where we pitched our tent and prepared our camp site.

Most campers agreed that none of us realized just how big the Roundup was until we attended the First big arena event in an amphitheatre cut out of a hillside overlooking a huge atage where we were a part of 10,000 participants.

The first big arena event for the entire camp was held July 20 and was entitled "Honor the Past". Mrs. C. H. Culmer, president of the Girl Scouts U.S.A., spoke to us and we heard a tape recording by Lady Baden-Powell of England. We also heard a speech by President Kennedy, also on tape, in which he issued a serious challenge to the campers of the 1962 Roundup. In it he said "With my greeting I send you a serious challenge . . . I ask you to pause to consider how best you, as individuals, can prepare yourselves for services to your country and to mankind".

The second arena event held July 22 was our "50th Birthday Party".

As a special guest for the program we had Mrs. George Trapp, mother of the famous Trapp Family Singers. It was during this meeting that the lights in the arena were turned out and, at a given signal, all Scouts lighted matches, making the billside look like a massive lighted birthday cake.

Our third and last arena was held July 28 and was entiled "Serve the Future". In this program we answered President Kennedy's challenge.

Later in the program was the entrance of the Girl Guides representing 15 countries with each group carrying the flag of its country.

Upon a signal from Mrs. Culmer, national president, packages that each patrol had received upon entering the area were opened. In them were small Girl Scout Trefoils, with a tiny mustard seed attached, representing each girl's development as a woman. Each camper received one of these.

On July 24 a special ceremony was held on the Village Green to introduce a new stamp commemorating the 50th anniversary of the Girl Scouts of the U.S.A.

One of the first places we visited after setting up camp was the Village Green. Here they had the Avenue of Flags, a flag from every state as well as every country represented at the Roundup, the Trading Post, the arena, a lost and found building, a demonstration area, band stand and several displays including the "Picture Your Home Frontier Project".

Most of the campers congregated at the Trading post to do their swapping and almost any time one could find groups sitting around the area.

Farther down the Village Green was the demonstration area where, during the space of an hour, you might see an Indian dance by a Wisconsin troop, a Confederate drill team from the land of Dixie, basket weaving from Hawaii or a group of Texans strumming on guitars and singing 'native' tunes. Our troop presented its vinegar pie demonstration which won us an invitation to present it again in the arena but a warning that fires could not be built within the area cancelled our appearance.

For all of us the Avenue of Flags was one of the most impressive sights. In all there were more than 110 flags. Our patrol participated in the last lowering of the flags. Some of us had the Michigan flag, some the Missouri and others the New Mexico flag.

Another of the things that impressed us was the scenery. All of us wondered why the Adirondacks in that particular area were called the Green Mountains of Vermont. Even before we arrived at the aite we discovered the answer for ourselves for the mountains are clothed in a beautiful green coverlet of treea. They were especially beautiful when the sun shone on them which, to us, seemed very seldom for we had wind and rain all but three days of the Roundup.

Our troop leader Mrs. Nowack, of New Jersey, asked us to give her a nickname. The name we selected for her was 'Noah' and after several days of rain we felt it was most appropriate. In fact it rained so much that one girl we met swore solemnly that she awoke one morning to find everything in her purse floating at the top.

But rain or shine or hip deep clay, our guests for meals always (or nearly always) came through! We had many interesting guests including a leader from Brazil and another from Colombia. Mrs. Colmer was also troop guest one day.

One of the most outstanding things that not only our patrol but everyone noticed was the friendliness of everyone while we were traveling and at the Roundup site. After living and working with the other girls in our troop for two weeks, the time for the first patrol to leave for home was a sad one.

Our patrol had everything packed the night before we were to leave so we spent the night in the Assembly tent with two other patrols. We awoke at 4:30 a.m. to the sound of flapping canvas and crashing thunder and the feel of rain splashing in our faces. Thus our departure via bus at 7:30 a.m. for Essex Junction was damp and dreary.

After another three-hour stopover in Montreal, we arrived in Michigan where we were met in Flint for the final phase of our return trip. Tired but happy, we arrived in Traverse City at 10 a.m. Aug 1.

It hardly seems possible that we are home again after having the most thrilling two weeks of our lives. We only wish you could have been with us to share the many, many exciting experiences and happy times.

Note: The awaps the two delegates brought home are being displayed this week at Gills Appliance and Belding Real Estate.

Girl Scouts Plan Chicago Trip

',Why can't we go to a big city instead of a camping trip?"

This question was asked at a meeting of the patrol of alternates to the 1962 Roundup of Senior Girl Scouts at a meeting held in Traverse City after it was found that the camp session at a Girl Scout camp near Rockford, Ill., had been cancelled.

A quick poll of the patrol gave unanimous approval to the idea and Aug. 12 to 18 was decided as the dates for the trip to the midwest's largest city, Chicago.

On Sunday, Charlevoix's alternates, Barbara Wood and Frances Arnold, and their local roundup trainer and leader of Senior Girl Scrout troop 13 will leave for Traverse City to join the remainder of the troop for the motor trip to Chicago.

Other members of the patrol are Jacqueline Blanke, Virginia Winkler, Roxanna Hodges and Betsy Welton of Traverse City, Polly Gibson of Beulah and their other leaders, Mrs. Robert Thompson of Traverse City, Roundup trainer and Mrs. J. L. Blanke, also of Traverse City.

While in Chicago, the group will tour the city as an official Girl Scout group, wearng their uniforms. Their headquarters will be the Harrison Hotel.

Among the places they plan to visit are the Adler Planetarium, Shedd Aquarium, Museum of Science and Industry. Brookfield Zoo, the Chicago Art Institute, Soldiers' Field, the Chicago and Regional offices of the Girl Scouts, and Marshall Field Co. store.

One of the highlights of the trip will be the stage show "Sound of Music".

They will also tour the city, visiting such places as China Town, Maxwell street market, Hull House and other points of interest. They also plan to see Chicago, both in the daytime and at night. from the top of the Prudential Building, the city's tallest structure.

They will return home Saturday.

The alternate troop was a group selected as 'understudies' to the delegates to the 1962 Senior Girl Scout Roundup. They trained with the Roundup patrol and were prepared to go as delegates in case of illness or some other emergency. Initial plans called for the Charlevoix-Traverse City patrol to join alternates at a camping session at Rockford, Ill., until the session was cancelled in June. The trip to Chicago followed this decison.

The trip will be financed with funds raised by Troop 13 and contributions by the Kiwanis Club and other local organizations.

Waterfront Fair Attracts 100 Exhibitors

Courier Photo

The fourth annual Waterfront Fair for Artists and Craftsmen broke all previous records in both number of exhibitors and exhibits. Nearly all of the available space in the park was needed for the exhibits. There was a steady stream of visitors through the day admiring the work of the artists and craftsmen.

Exhibitors and patrons alike had only praise for the fourth annual Waterfront Fair for Artists and Craftsmen held Saturday in East Park under the sponsorship of the Charlevoix Chamber of Commerce.

The show, which last year had 54 exhibitors, this year attracted a total of 100 including a number of late entries not listed on the program. The fair was held under perfect weather conditions, bright sunny skies and temperatures in the 70's

The appearance of two European artists, Gio Calucci of Paris who exhibited his paintings, sculpture and ceramics and Kat Lindeman of Berlin who showed her water color landseapes gave an international flavor to the show for the first time.

In addition, Mr. and Mrs. Natban Cummings of Chicago loaned three works of art including a Picasso India ink on linen drawing of Sir Winston and Lady Churchill, Mattisse's portrait of Michael Stein and Rouault's Duex Personages for display at the fair.

Many other exhibitors who are winning recognition in their respective fields of art were included on tbe list of exhibitors who came from throughout the state, Ohio, Missouri and California. A number of the exhibitors are vacationing in the area.

This year's show attracted new types af entriea as well as new artists and craftsmen in fields represented in the past.

Mrs. Jack Rader was general chairman of the fair. Her committee included Mrs. Julius Gilbert, Mrs. Karl Erber, Mrs. J. F. Webb, Mrs. Robert Schleman, Mrs. Paul Kohler, Robert Seller, Clark Nehls and Fran Martin.

Division Chairmen Named For 1962 Community Chest

Division chairmen for the various phases of the 1962 Community Chest fund campaign were announced this week by Dr. Robert G. Martin, campaign chairman.

A. L. Livingston and Robert Bridge are co-chairmen of the Special Gifts division which is elready underway; William Carey and Don Anders will serve as co-chairmen of the Retail Business Division of the campaign. Summer businesses will be contacted this year by Mr. Carey and members of his Summer Business committee. Mr. Anders and his corps of volunteers will contact other retail businesses.

Byron Wright will head the Industrial Division campaign with Max Novak serving as chairman of the Professional division which will include professional offices, hospital and school employees, city, county, state and federal groups.

Mrs. Robert Foss will bead the residential diviaion and Fran Martin the township division.

In announcing the progress of the drive, Dr. Martin said that individual contributors will probably be contacted twice this year, once when he works and a second time at his residence.

This does not mean, however, that everyone will be expected to contribute in both places, Dr. Martin added and then went on to explain that this is tbe only way that workers can be assured that everyone has been approached. Everyone in the community has a stake in Community Chest and it is our alm to see that these people are given an opportunity to give their FAIR SHARE to support the many agencies in the one united drive.

A & W Drive-in Wins Merit Award for '62

The local A & W Root Beer Drive-in, operated by Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Withers, has received the 1962 merit award for high quality food and root beer and the high standard of cleanliness of the establishment by the A & W company.

The local A & W is a link in one of the world's largest drive-in chains of which there are nearly 2300 throughout the country. Each is operated as an independent business by a franchised local dealer. However, all franchised operators must comply with rigid company standards which help to assure maximum uniformity and quality throughout the chain.

City Officials to Take Boat Trip To Beaver Island

City officials and wives and officers and directors of the Charlevoix Chamber of Commerce and their wives have been invited to take a boat trip Sunday to Beaver Island on the new ferry Beaver Islander, James W. Gallagher, manager of the Beaver Island Boat Co., has announced.

Special excursion rates will also be in effect for all Charlevoix residents who wish to make the trip, Mr. Gallagher said.

It was first planned to have city officials and C. of C. officials as guests of the company for the christening of the ferry, followed by a luncheon at the Argonne. The boat trip was postponed at that time due to the number of advance reservations for that day

Charlevoix residents wishing to take the excursion will leave Charlevoix at nine a.m., and may return on either the 12 o'clock noon trip or the 6 p.m. trip. Rates for the round trip will be $3 for all Charlevoix residents.

To Locate Bomb Scoring Unit in Charlevoix Area

Congressman Victor A. Knox (R-Mich.) announced he has been informed of the U.S. Air Force plans to move a Radar Bomb Scoring Detachment into the Charlevoix area in early 1963 for a stay of approximately two years. Knox explained these units, which involve mobile trailers loaded with electronic devices to assist Strategic Air Command (SAC) bomber crews in simulated target runs, are completely mobile and will operate in an area of approximately 100 miles radius from Charlevoix. They are used to measure the accuracy of SAC bombers on practice runs. The unit coming to Charlevoix is Detachment 12 of the 10th Radar Bomb Scoring Squadron.

Knox said this squadron is being moved from the Ironwood, Michigan area in accordance with an Air Force policy to prevent the SAC crews from becoming overly familiar with one area in their practice runs by periodically presenting new and different terrain as simulated target locale.

Knox said the Air Force informed him tbe unit involves some 74 military personnel equipped with trailer- mounted scoring devices. Knox also said the exact date after the New Year when the Unit will move into Charlevoix is dependent on the training of the necessary construction in the Charlevoix area.

Knox further stated that it is anticipated the personnel of the unit will seek housing in the civilian community.

Knox emphasized "this is in no sense a permanent installation, but the Air Force does expect the unit will remain in the Charlevoix area about two years."

- By Harold E. Kohn -

A Wondering Place

Much has been said these days about the absence of contemplation in our busy world.. We moderns are accused by writers, editors, lecturers and preachers of taking too little time for serious thought, for thinking widely, deeply and generously upon the meaning of current events, the boundless potential of man doing good, the power of human fellowship and cooperation, our individual reponsibilities toward the world, our weaknesses and failures, the claims of God upon us, the beauties of creation. Full schedules and overcrowded programs are criticized. A multiplicity of social duties and the countless distractions we find in the realm of entertainment are blamed. We either cannot find time for wondering about the meaning of existence, or if we find time we don't take it.

This criticism of our modern thought-life is just. We do not take sufficient time for careful reflection upon the meaning of life. But I am convinced that we do not find time for thought because we do not find a place for it. We have no wondering place. Even if we had all the time we wished for silent, reflection we would be unlikely to use it if we did not also find an appropriate place conducive to meditation. Like education and worship, habitual meditation is difficult without a place set aside for it. Perhaps it is possible to gain a splendid education without going to school or college, but in fact few people do so. It is possible to engage in worship outside of a church, but in practice those people worship best outside the church who make a practice of regularly attending a place of worship. We all need a time and a place where we can go with regularity to satisfy our basic needs. Everyone ought to have someplace of private meditation—a corner in the attic, basement, or garage if one's home is deep inside the city limits. A country dweller may choose a certain bridge over a certain stream, a big boulder on the lake shore, a grassy mat beneath a great elm, or the shade of a particular birch along a secluded woodland trail. If we are to do any profound wondering we must have a wondering place.

The wondering place where I feel most fully alive is Hidden Brook. This forty-acre plot of birch and evergreen forest I have christened "Hidden Brook" because its most endearing feature is a happy little stream, skipping with bubbling excitement and playing hide-and-seek among the flowing skirts of matronly spruce, cedar and balsam.

While water may be inorganic the brook still seems the most vitally alive creature I have ever met. Never still for a minute. from the time it dashes under our east fence until it rolls under the barbed wire that marks the south boundary of our acreage the spring-fed stream is a collection of childish moods. It creeps. It crawls. It runs. It laughs up at the balsams, tugs playfully at tolerant cedar roots, and dances around graceful paper birches. It rolls stones along the creek bottom, pushes playfully at the trout, and teases the tamarack, pulling its pigtail tresses. When our neighbor's cattle poke cloven hooves at its sandy bottom, the brook clouds up as if about to give vent to a childish outburst of bad temper. But its hurts are soon forgotten. Its sunny disposition triumphs and its countenance clears again. This dominating little personality, this showoff of a stream, is known on the county maps as Woods Creek. But from the time it hurls itself under our east fence until it whirls under the wires of our south inclosure it is Hidden Brook to us. And the loveable little exhibitionist has given the entire forty acres its flavor and its name.

Hidden Brook is our wondering place. Here the myriad hosts of creeping and crawling and running and swimming and flying things excite the eyes and set thoughts astirring. Here the mind is quickened to fascination by smells washed by gentle breezes to nostrils dilated for exploring the winds. There are tastes here, too, no longer ordinary in our highly civilized world—tastes of running creek water, potatoes roasted in the ashes of an open fire, hamburgers that have sizzled to the touch of open flame and whose juices have drunk deeply of birch and maple smoke. The tangy taste of fruit from ancient, arthritic apple trees, the sweet lusciousness of low-growing strawberries, and the subtle wildness of morel mushrooms—these flavors open the mind to new appreciations.

Tall grasses sweep against the wanderer's legs and low hanging cedar bows whip his shoulders. Tree barks, rough and smooth, invite the touch of an exploring hand. The brook cools tired feet with a tingling chill. Warm sun, pelting rain, stinging sleet, or caressing snow are the weather's greeting to the cheek. These touches of the out-of-doors are nature's partial answer to inquiring minds.

A soft call-note sounds from a clump of birches. What sort of bird is that? At once the mind plunges headlong into a maze of questions from which it might never altogether emerge. A glimpse is caught of a scarlet body carried from birch to cedar on jet black wings. A scarlet tanager, a male! Has the female arrived, too, from the South? Is this bird a transient or a homesteader at Hidden Brook? Where will the nest be? Of what material will it be built? How many young do scarlet tanagers have? Will they live to maturity? What are their natural enemies? Are scarlet tanager babies subject to diseases, like human infants? When do these birds return southward? These questions and endless others may be kindled by the flash of a tanager's wing.

Every day of the year countless sights and sounds, smells and touches bombard the senses of any visitor to Hidden Brook, and every impact of nature, like flint striking upon steel, can set innumerable questions burning in the mind. Because Hidden Brook is a place of nature's profuse variety of animal and vegetable life, of high banks and low swamp, of somber hills and laughing stream, and of all manner of sensations, it is my favorite wondering place.

We have done little to Hidden Brook since we purchased the acreage in 1953. We've built Hideaway House there—a two-room study, one room fashioned with both ends almost entirely of glass, a feature which brings the outside inside, and the other room lined with books.

Through the mad tangle of evergreen boughs we have cleared a path along the brook. This we did for the sake of visitors who felt "roughing it" in the out-of-doors need not include being strangled by clutching branches nor smartly slapped by stinging spruce twigs. We have placed some stepping stones across the brook and built a tiny dam of limestone upstream from the cabin. Downstream, by a little natural dam formed by an ancient log we have thrown in stones to reenforce the decaying barricade nature has formed. We have done little else to Hidden Brook.

But Hidden Brook has done much to us and for us. By just being there, less than ten minutes from Charlevoix, this sanctuary of brook and forest and meadows renders a kindly service. It is the promised rest just beyond exhausting work, the welcome silence beyond the din of civilization, the solitude just on the other side of a world of crowds, the realm of the natural that lies but a step on yonder side of the artificial.

George Tyrrell, the Irish mystic, frequently said that our daily experiences should become the food of our souls. But to make spiritual nourishment of new experiences we must lie down and ruminate on them, much as cows in the field, after eating, lie down and chew their cuds. Tyrrell said that more than half a century ago. It is more emphatically true now. In our fretful search for new experiences we miss the meaning of experiences we are currently having. We buy new records of operas and symphonies before we have absorbed the music we heard last week. We rush through magazines, movies and museums, dash through books, race through country scenes, gulp down new impressions. No wonder we suffer from mental indigestion.

We need time for rumination, for absorption, for turning raw experience into spiritual muscle and sinew. We need time for wondering—and a wondering place.

May you find your wondering place somewhere near.

Voice of our readers

Gentlemen:

ATTENTION: To Whom It May Concern

We sure are happy when we receive a Charlevoix Courier. We have a library where we can read books and magazines, but it doesn't compare to reading our home town paper. ALL the boys in our barracks read the Charlevoix Courier, now! It sure is delightful to show them pictures of our beautiful town and tell them some of the events that are happening.

We realize the work it takes to publish the paper and we are truly thankful to get one. Thanks again from four Charlevoix boys.

Where the money goes

Your Community Chest

The annual Community Chest fund campaign is now underway. In order to better acquaint the residents of the community with the agencies included in the Chest, this article relating to the work of the agencies is published in the Courier as a community service.

City Recreation

City Recreation has entered a request for $800.00 from Community Chest.

According to James Taylor, city superintendent, these funds are applied to the parks and recreation budget. Included in this are the lifeguards, swimming program in which more than 100 youngsters have participated this summer, the ice rink during the winter, the softball program in which more than 325 youngsters and aduits take part and other recreation facilities.

The sum does not pay for the program but is used to supplement tax monies appropriated to the program in the city budget, Mr. Taylor explained.

Retarded Children

The Charlevoix Association for Retarded Children Inc., has entered a request for $950.00 which will be applied to the 1962-63 estimated budget of $4,760, according to the report and budget submitted by John S. Sutherland, president of the oranization.

The association trains and educates susceptible retarded persons to improve their ways of life. The purpose and policies conform with those of the Michigan and national associations for retarded children and the child who is not mentally qualified to participste in normal school programs but who is either trainable or educable under special instruction geared to his pace is accepted by the association. Last year 10 area persons were accepted.

Following several years of experience with the uncertainties, high maintenance costs and unsuitable arrangements of rented quartera in which to conduct its activities, the association has purchased property on East Garfield ave., and is having constructed a modest but sufficient building which will be ready by Sept. 1.

Other sources of income include $1,000.00, Charlevoix county board of supervisors; membership dues; dues from out-of-county attendants; sale of handicraft made by children; contributions from individuals and organizations; gifts of services and equipment; and weekly dues from Charlevoix, as well as out-county parents, to help defray miscellaneous expenses incidental to operation of the Retardees' Center.

Charlevoix Hospital

Another agency included in the Community Chest is the Charlevoix Hospital whose request this year is for $1,000.

This money is used to help defray indigent patient services at the hospital.

This amount does not fully compensate for the cost of these services but is applied to the cost of caring for patients whose accounts are not covered in any other way.

Cirelin' The Bases

By DEANO

Rain again played havoc with the week's softball schedule. Two nights were completely rained out and one game was played in a steady drizzle.

Men's League

Ellsworth continued to hold down first place as they scored four late inning runs to beat Lake Construction 8-3. Jack Van Loo paced the attack with four base hits while Roger Towsley had two in a losing cause.

American Mold kept their dim title hopes alive with a 7-4 win over Lake Construction. The winners picked up only four safeties but Lake Construction opened the door with errors and the winners took advantage to score five unearned runs. Ken Boss's three bagger was the key blow for the Mold while Sam Supernaw picked up two safeties for the losers.

Junior League

Barnard continued along undefeated but the Scouts gave them a scare before falling 4-3. Herb Cummings double produced two runs for the margin of victory. Jim Stewart and Steve Bergmann each contributed two hits for the Scouts. Barnard made short work of winning the second game from the Scouts scoring six times in the third inning for the 8-4 victory. Bruce Murray's triple and home run paced the winners.

Browes stayed one game behind the leaders with a double victory over VFW winning the first 5-0 behind Larry McBride's piching then romping in the second game 15-5.

Peanut League

The Cards scored five times in the bottom of the sixth against the Cubs then hung on for a 6-5 win. Chuck Masley pitched well in relief to keep the winners unbeaten record intact.

The Lions got into the victory column with eight seventh inning runs for a 16-8 win over the Tigers. Paul Kelley and Craig Lieberman paced the winners with three hits each while Spook Coleman had a double and single for the losers.

Women's League

Edwards moved out in front in the Women's league with double victory over Barnard. They won the first game 2-1 in a well-played contest with Doris McBride's home run making the difference, and then blasted Barnard 10-4 with seven runs in the third inning in the second game. McBride also homered but had hitting support from teammates Pat Scheck and Evelyn Peters.

Paul-Reed dimmed Puff's hopes with a 4-0 shut out behind Betty Bergmann's two hit pitching. Betty Seese paced the winners with two hits.

Special Games

Ellsworth nipped the City Merchants as Bob Klooster made up the difference as he pitched a shutout then personally accounted for the victory by blasting a solo homer in the final inning for a 1-0 victory. Nate Boss pitched a three hitter in defeat.

The Boyne City Women proved why they are a state-ranking team as they romped to a 24-2 win over the Charlevoix women. The vistors scored in every inning but one as their man-like hitting, throwing, and running excited the crowd.

Batting Title

The batting trophy, depicting the league's top hitter, was still up for grabs as the season neared an end. Jack VanLoo, with a current hot streak, has taken over the lead for teammate John Swanson. Both Sam Supernaw and Roger Towsley still remain in the race, but must close fast in Roger Towsley atill remain in the race but must close fast in the final game.

News Round-up at Camp Charlevoix

The seventh week was a week of long trips. These are activity trips, in which the heads choose the most proficient boys to go.

The long horse trip left camp Monday morning with all the cowboys in charge. The boys on this trip were: Mike Adams, Peter Calvin, Bob France, Bill Gross, Jeff Hayes, Mason Jenkins, Jim Jordan, Bill Koller, Jim Kuehn, Tom Lambert, Tom Laskey, Sandy Lungershausen, Dean MacVicar, Fred Myers, Tom Peets, Mike and Robbie Plisken, Kirk Rogers, Chris Searles, John Standefer, Bill Steer, Don Strutz, Don Thwaite, Jeff Whitesell, Bob Young, Bill Zaring and Jeff Owen.

Ken presented the boys who rode in the Top of Michigan Horse Show at Gaylord on Sunday. Rusty Smith took a third place with his horse "Cricket" in the halter class; and Don Strutz, 14, with his horse "Dun Time" won several firsts in the Men's Classes and won the trophy for high point man. Ron Kirk, Assistant Cowboy won several ribbons with Squaw and Marble. Bruce Nyland also won a ribbon.

On Tuesday morning, Marv Crain and Bob Harding took their cabinl, down to Young's State Park for the day. These boys were: Art Schultz, Tor Shwayder Dan Buckley, Kirk Kirlin, Alan Schneider. Dan Steketee, and Scott Waiter. It was great sight to see this long line of riders, with the cowboys spaced out at regular intercals.

On Wednesday, Cabin 2, Dick Stadler's cabin took a day trip. The boys were Scott Harris, Dick Schultz, Andy Case, Steve Danaher, Mike Danaher, Keith Graves and David Plliskin. The three day ssiling trip was delayed another day. The three day canoe trip was taken by truck down to Lake 26 where they were put in to paddle through the Intermediate Lakes. The trip was headed by Dave Garland, canoeing instructor, Rusty Gilmore, Assistant on the Waterfront, and C.I.T.'s John Baird, Bob Hickan, Jon Steffensen and Chris Nyland. The boys on the trip were Walt Silver, John Levin, Tom Peets, Rusty Smith, John Hartz, Dave Fernstrum, Brady Shea, Irving Ingraham, Scott Graves, Brad Rea, Steve Smith, Bill Lambert, Tom Case and Gary Van Gorp. On Wednesday night we had our last "skit night" and the cabins performing did a very fine job.

Thursday morning the sailors took off on their trip. The entire sailing department plus Bob Lohman and C.I.T.'s John Deane, John Rotz, and Geoff Smith supervised the following sailors: Billy Kuntz, D. J. Somers, Steve Martin, David Huck, Chris Calvin, Howie Davis, George Steinasrdt, Peter Renchard, Marshall Moser, Dick Mueller, Jack Requarth, Weldon Standefer, Peter McCully, Tim Calvin, Ralph Miesel, Tim Larkin, Ed Evans, Brian Dicken, Mac Wyatt and Roger Thompson.

The riders were busy getting ready for the rodeo and the general momentum of the camp has suddenly increased.

On Friday, the canoeing trip returned with everyone reporting it as a most successful trip.

Saturday morning, the campers were surprised to find caricaures of staff men tacked to trees around the camp, each one denoting the reward on his capture. Bob Baker was the artist. Saturday night was the annual "Capture of Counsellor" which is always a fine event. At the end of the event the Greys had picked up three points and the Greens one point, making the score at this time, Greys-33, Greens-17. It was evident on Saturday night that the Greys had won the competition for the summer.

Saturday at dinner all the boys who had birthdays during the season were seated at the head table which had as its centerpiece a huge maple burl (a knot from a tree) filled with fruit. Each birthday camper was presented a gift.

On Sunday morning, Kerm Krueger was the speaker at the chapel service which was held in the Bigwam. He gave a very fine talk, speaking on the subject "Taking Camp Home". Cabin 21 assisted in the service. The boys who have assisted the last four weeks have been David Gilmore, David Huck, Marshall Moser, Steve Wardrop, Brian Dicken, Skip Kessler, Alan Silverman, and John Gillett.

Sunday afternoon the movie "The Kyber Patrol" was shown in the Bigwam. The annual Obstacle Relay, an event which takes in 120 campers, had to be postponed due to rain.

Sunday evening, the final Vesper Services were held in all sections.

The boys who were to take the second Mackinac Island trip were busy making plans for their visit to this historical Island on Monday. The boys who mada this trip were: Scott Harris, David Washburn, Chuck Herrington, Jimmy Jordan, Jeff Owen, Buzzy Hatcher, Mark Gillett, Tom Bothwell, Chuck Dort, David Oberhelman, Ernie Kelly, Pat Smith, Doug Laing, John Hollilday, Hunt Harris, Mike Pliskin, Robbia Pliskin, Steve Martin, Russell Washburn Bob Logan, Walt Silver, Don Strutz, Bob Gunn, John Gillett, and Dean MacVicar. They were accompanied by Ken, Joe Berry and John Stephenson.

Excitement gains by the day as the season is drawing to a close. As has been the custom for the last several years, this last week of camp we go on a Sunday schedule which means each morning the rising bell isn't until 8:30 with breakfast at 9:15. Everyone likes this as we feel that campers and staff enjoy all the special events much more if they are well-rested.

Walker Memorial Carillon Dedicated at Battle Creek

The dedication services of the Walker Memorial Carillon given in memory of the lata Rev. Quinton S. Walker and his wife, Mary Edith Walker by their daughter, Miss Louise J. Walker of Kalamazoo was held recently at the First Methodist church in Battle Creek. The gift was also given in behalf of her deceased brothers, Quinton John and John Munro Walker.

Rev. Walker, former pastor of the First Methodist church here, served as minister of the Battle Creek church from 1921 to 1928. A native of Scotland, he had lived in Illinois and Michigan before entering the ministry, serving charges in Leonidas and Sherwood, Lewrence, Clare Charlevoix, St. Joseph and Hastings before going to Battle Creek. During his ministry in Battle Creek, he raised the membership from 900 to 1600, paid off a $23,000 mortgage and saw a $15,000 organ and $3,000 redecorating project completed. Ha died June 13, 1928.

His wife, Mary Eadie Walker was a native of Canada and was trained in architecture. She drew plans for the Clare Methodist church and took an active part in music as a contralto soloist. She died at Clare on Apr. 3, 1912.

The carillon, given by Miss Walker in memory of her parents and brothers, provides a tonal equivalent of over 100,000 pounds of cast bells tuned to the finest standards. The 'harp bells', which are a part of the "Americana" Carillon, are a new tone color in bell music, and add the mellow beauty of the plucked harp, enabling the musician to play selections which are not possible heretofore. Selector switches permit the bells to be heard within the building alone, from the tower alone, or both together.

Carilloneur for the dedication service was Dr. Cyril Barker, minister of music at Central Reformed church in Grand Rapids.

BETWEEN YOU AND ME

- By Harold E. Kohn -

Your favorite hardwood trees, standing in yard, meadow and forest, would have died of insect bite long ago, had it not been for their super-abundance of leaves.

Although nearly every part of a tree is subject to insect attack, leaves are the most frequent victims. A larger variety of insects feed on the highly nutritious leaves than on any other part of the tree. Leaf tissue is especially vulnerable to the mouthparts of the larvae of butterflies, moths, beetles and sawflies which gnaw upon the rich, green succulence from early springtime through autumn. As leaf-chewers dine they greatly reduce the tree's capacity for making food, interfere with the tree's ability to move food about within the circulatory system of the great plant, and disrupt the exchanges of water vapor and vital gases between leaves and the enveloping atmosphere. When too large a proportion of the tree's leaves are consumed the tree dies.

Nearly every tree you see has been injured by leaf-chewers. The reason a tree remains healthy in spite of insect onslaught is because it produces a total leaf surface that greatly exceeds the needs of the tree. It has been estimated by horticulturalists that it takes about thirty leaves to make a Jonathan apple and fifty leaves to make a large Delicious apple, while a peach tree needs thirty leaves to produce each peach. But in actual practice these trees produce many more leaves than their fruit will require, so that out of their surpluses they may feed their insect attackers without exhausting themselves. A healthy tree can afford extensive injury and recover from it because of its built-in sufficiency.

The answer to many a human problem lies in the secret of sufficiency. We are not at our best when we are spared misfortune and injury. Far from making us spiritually healthy, continued freedom from irritations, frustrations, burdens, disappointments and dangers may make us fall victim to complacency and self-satisfaction which are among life's most destructve enemies.

The God-blessed life is the "abundant life" open to Power beyond ourselves, in touch with the Divine Sufficiency, as a tree is in vital touch with earth and sky. Then we can afford injury and trouble, for we shall have more patience and endurance, more love and forgiveness, more faith and trust than life can ever demand of us.

To Revise Program at Mercy Central School of Nursing

The Mercy Central School of Nursing with headquarters at St. Mary's hospital in Grand Rapids will make a drastic change in its educational program beginning with the new school year Sept. 4, it has been announced.

Under the new program, the school of nursng is operating more on a college basis with emphasis on the education side of the program.

Under the revised program, a complete nursing course is finished in 27 months. There will be no internship such as under the program since 1952.

Jean Elzinga and Mr. Dougherty Marry in Church Ceremony

Christ Episcopal church was the scene Saturday evening of the wedding of Jean Elzinga and DuWayne Dougherty.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Julius Elzinga and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Dougherty of East Jordan.

The Rev. Alexander Wood officiated at the double ring service before an altar decorated with arrangements of lavender and white gladioli, ferns and evergreens in the presence of more than 100 guests. Mrs. Stewart E. Coleman, at the organ, played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied the soloist, Nancy Koteskey, who sang "O Perfect Love" and "I Love You Truly".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a waltz length gown of nylon lace over taffeta for her wedding. The fitted bodice of nylon lace featurned cap sleeves and a square neckline. A taffeta cummerbund and a bow which added back interest topped the flowing skirt of lace over tiered jersey and taffeta. Her fingertip veil fell from a coronet of pearls and sequins. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and sweetheart roses entwined with pearls.

Mrs. Rtchard Bayliss of Petoskey, as matron of honor, wore a waltz length gown of blue sheer nylon over taffeta fashioned with a fitted bodice, scoop neckline and bouffant skirt. She wore a matching headband and carried a colonial type bouquet of pink carnations.

Janet Dougherty of East Jordan, sister of the bridegroom, and Linda Lewis, as bridesmaids, wore gowns similar to the honor attendants in pink sheer nylon over taffeta, matching headbands and carried colonial bouquets of pink and white carnations.

Carla Elzinga, cousin of the bride, as flower girl, wore a light blue dress and carried a miniature colonial bouquet of pink carnations.

Mr. Bayliss assisted the bridegroom as best man. Harrison Elzinga, uncle of the bride, and Ernest Walden of Mt. Morris, uncle of the bridegroom, seated the guests.

A reception followed at the Deer Lake Grange hall. Assisting were Mrs. David McCullough of Covington, Georgia, Mrs. Norma Brown, Mrs. Joseph Battle, Mrs. Thomas Nielsen and Mrs. Lawrence Elzinga of East Jordan. The hall and refreshment table were decorated in a blue and white motif.

After a brief wedding trip, the couple will be at home at 3205 Shay st., Flint. For traveling the bride wore a yellow cotton dress and matching accessories.

The bride attended the Charlevoix high achool. The bridegroom attended the East Jordan high school and is employed at the Chevrolet V-8 plant in Flint.

Wedding guests were present from Oak Creek, Wis., Mt Morris, Detroit, Traverse City, Petoskey, Boyne City, Central Lake and East Jordan.

SUNDEW REPORT

It has been a long time since we of the Sundew have had the opportunity to let you at home know what we've been doing. The Coast Guard Cutter Sundew has been a busy ship since we last talked to you in the Feb. 8 issue of the Charlevoix Courier.

The first three weeks of June were spent in the shipyard at Sturgeon Bay, Wis. While there, we performed major overhaul work where needed from stem to stern. The Sundew was drydocked so that her hull could be inspected thoroughly; electronics equipment was modernized to increase our search and reseue capabilities and we watched with interest the progress of Charlevoix's new "Beaver Islander", under construction in the same yard.

Following Sundew's departure from Strugeon Bay, LCDR Francis J. Mann relieved LCDR William R. Richards as Commanding Officer and we immediately proceeded to Grand Haven, Mich., for small arms training practice at the Coast Guard range there. One week later we inspected every Aid to Navigation from Grand Traverse Bay through the Straits of Mackinac to False Detour Passage, southern tip of the Upper Peninsula. In addition to this work, Sundew delivered thousands of gallons of fuel to the offshore lights in the area.

No sooner had we completed this work when we found ourselves enroute to Alpena where the CGC Acacia relayed a 94 foot Coast Guard work barge to us for delivery to Frankfort, Mich. With the barge delivered, we commenced minor construction work at Mission Point light in Grand Traverse Bay. This completed, Sundew spent a few days in the Straits area searching for two lighted buoys that were reported sunk. After our seach, we were able to spend a few days in Charlevoix.

On Sunday, Aug. 12, we asaisted the Superior Marine Divers in lowering a Crucufix into Little Traverse Bay just off the Petoskey breakwater as a safety reminder and memorial to all skin divers.

The following day, Aug. 13, the Coast Guard Cutter Sundew moored at the city dock to begin three weeks of "Charlie Status", a period of time during which major work can be accomplished on the engineering plant with minimum chance of putting to sea. Painting and minor structural repairs are in order for this period, also. During this time, the personnel will undergo intensive drilling in such ship's operational functions as small boat rescue, small arms training, visual communications and ship's damage control exercises. These drills are a part of the Sundew's extensive program to maintain highly trained crew, "always ready" to meet every emergency.

While the Sundew is receiving a "face lifting' the ship's complement is taking on a new look, too. Lt. Paul T. Anderson arrived in Charlevoix to relieve Lt. Norman B. Lynch as executive officer. Lt. Lyneh is going to Washington, D.C., where he will attend George Washington University to graduate aa a Coast Guard lawyer three years hence.

Ensign Jon P. Ryan also is a newcomer to Charlevoix. He will take over Ensign Robert C. McFarland's job as Operation Officer in the near future.

Sundew Scuttlebutt

Hearty congratulations are due Charles R. Finn, The Sundew's First Lieutenant for being promoted to Commissioned Warrant Officer (W-2).

David R. Van Dreumel was recently transferred to the CGC Sundew from Washington, D.C. Van Dreumel, a Yoeman second class, previously served with the Coast Guard in Charlevoix from 1958 to 1961 at the Group Office, Coast Guard Moorings.

George A. Hoganson's shipmates expressed their concern that the Sundew was losing a good Electrician's Mate First Class but all wished him "Smooth sailing" as he atepped into civilian life last Friday.

All the members of the CGC Sundew are looking forward to an enjoyable three weeks at home in Charlevoix. Since the Sundew's Aids to Navigation work schedule during the navigation season keeps us quite busy, our rare summertime "Charlie Ststus" gives us a chance to relax and enjoy Charlevoix.

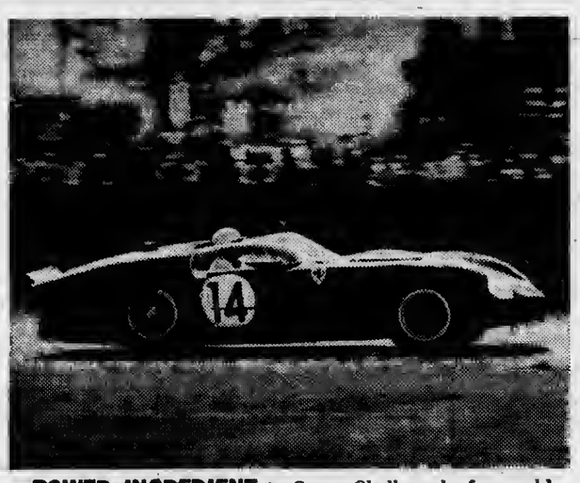
How Super Shell's 9 ingredients can give cars top performance



POWER INGREDIENT in Super Shell works for world champion driver Phil Hill (above, in Ferrari racer). Hill, first American to win the World Championship for Drivers, relies on Super Shell. One important reason: power. Today's Super Shell contains "cat-cracked" gasoline—a power ingredient made by cracking heavier petroleum molecules into lighter, livelier ones. It works to give you the power you need for top performance.

NOISE-FIGHTING INGREDIENTS in Super Shell work for a quiet engine at all speeds. Shell scientists even use a stethoscope (above) to check effect of Super Shell's anti-knock ingredients. One of these ingredients, an anti-knock mix, is so effective that a teaspoon per gallon can boost anti-knock rating five points. Alkylate, another Super Shell ingredient, is noted for controlling knock in hot engines at high speeds better than anything else yet available.

MILEAGE INGREDIENT in Super Shell is Platformate. Shell scientists test it in many cars, many places. In a recent test in San Francisco (above), exactly 250 cc. (about half a pint) of fuel without Platformate was fed into test car. Car ran until fuel was used up, then coasted to a stop (left). Distance: 6186 feet. Test was repeated, using same blend of fuel with Platformate added. Same amount of fuel. Same car. Same conditions. In this test, Super Shell with Platformate took car 6454 feet (right), gave a mileage bonus of 4.3 percent.

TCP* AND FOUR OTHER INGREDIENTS complete Super Shell's 9-ingredient blend. TCP additive can help restore power lost due to combustion deposits—can also extend spark plug life. Butane is for quick starts. Pentane mix helps engines run smoothly during "warm-up." The gum preventive ingredient is to help keep carburetors clean inside. And, when the weather calls for it, Super Shell contains an anti-icer. That's nine ingredients in Super Shell—scientifically blended to give your car top performance.

Lake Construetion pulled a mild upset when they shut out Ironton 2-0. Sam Supernaw's three basehits combined with two costly passed balls provided the margin of vietory. Ellsworth picked up only two hits, both infield angles.

YOU'RE MAKING A BIG MISTAKE IF YOU'RE NOT DRINKING 80 PROOF GIN!

If you think higher proof means higher quality — that's a mistake.

If you think you have to pay more money to get a better gin — that's a mistake.

If you think the gin most Englishmen drink is more than 80 proof — that's a mistake.

You should know, to begin with, that America is practically the only civilized country in the world that drinks high-proof gin. The British, who perfected gin, know that gin has an ideal taste and flavor balance, and they prefer it at milder, smoother 80 proof. Here's the whole story:

80 PROOF GIN TASTES BETTER

"Proof" is no measure of quality. It's a measure of alcohol content alone. (100 proof means 50% alcohol.) Alcohol itself has no flavor. The pleasant taste of gin comes entirely from the herbs with which it's distilled.

The best test of gin is to drink it straight or on-the-rocks. You'll find 80 proof gin has the big taste advantage of 80 proof mildness — with the same full flavor of higher proof gins.

80 PROOF GIN COSTS LESS

Gins are taxed by the U.S. on their proof or alcohol content, only. The lower the proof — the lower the taxes, and the lower the cost to you. When you buy an imported label, you add the cost of shipping and duties. That pushes the price even higher, without giving you 80 proof quality.

80 PROOF GIN MAKES BETTER MARTINIS

it makes them extra dry, as you like them, but not extra strong. Twenty years ago, the 3-to-1 Martini was standard. Today, with the trend to dryer Martinis, they're made 6-, 7-, even 8-to-1. As a result the modern Martini has climbed from a smooth 76.5 proof to an overwhelming 84 proof! Solution? Mix with 80 proof gin. It gives you the same full, dry gin flavor, but it returns the Martini to its original, more moderate proof.

80 PROOF GIN MAKES BETTER TALL DRINKS

When you mix a tall drink, like a collins or a gin 'n tonic, you dilute the strength of the gin "to taste." You also mix for balance of flavor. 80 proof gin will give you better balance. You don't have to drown it to drink it.

HOW TO MAKE DRY MARTINIS MAKE MORE SENSE

Using Standard 86 Proof Dry Vermouth	Using 90 Proof Dry Gin	Using 80 Proof Dry Gin (or Vodka)
3 — to — 1 (Traditional)	76.5 Proof	69.0 Proof
5 — to — 1 (Dry)	81.0 Proof	72.6 Proof
8 — to — 1 (Extra Dry)	84.0 Proof	75.1 Proof

(The "standard" proof for today's bottled Martinis is a moderate 67.5 proof!)

OLD MR. BOSTON IS THE FINEST GIN YOU CAN BUY

It's vacuum distilled at an unusually low temperature in special glass-lined stills. Only at such a low temperature, is it possible to capture the most delicate essence of the herbs. This is one reason for Old Mr. Boston's flavor distinction. It is America's first and largest-selling 80 proof Dry Gin!

Save Your Library

It's an old adage that "one doesn't miss the water until the well runs dry." It is just as pertinent today when applied to the library which for years has been operated by the public school system for the benefit of the public as well as the students.

Those who most use the library to obtain reading material, both for reference work and reading pleasure, are more aware of its value to the community than those who only occasionally turn to the library for informative material. The latter group, however, would be concerned if suddenly they were deprived of this source of information when they urgently needed it.

Simply stated, the school district cnn no longer operate a centrally located library for the benefit of the public without public support. That would mean the only library in the community would be located in the high school for the benefit of students only and open during school hours.

As far back as the year 1958 adults borrowed 12,320 books from the library and 9,814 books were loaned to students and juveniles. This did not include the number of persons who did their reading and reference work at the library building. Book withdrawals during the past year totaled 10,106 by adults and 6,643 by juveniles and students not including books borrowed from the library at the new high school. Last year 3,684 persons held library cards which permitted them to borrow books from the library. If all of these card holders vote "YES" the community may be assured the library will continue to serve the public.

Members of the board of education have assured the Courier that, with public support, the present library in the Carnegie building at the corner of State and Clinton streets will be operated throughout the year for the benefit of the entire community. Public support could also mean the library would be open longer hours daily and the present inventory of books could be increased with both reference works and fiction.

This community will be taking a step backward if the people fail to give their support to the library at the election Friday. We urge you to vote "YES" on the library proposal. Don't wait until "the well runs dry" and then wish you had done something about it.

Local Bridge Walkers Challenge the World

Charlevoix challenges the world in the annual Labor Day Bridge Walk at the Mackinac Bridge. The challenge is for four generations of one family to enter and complete the five-mile trek.

Four generations of Charlevoix men will again take part in the Labor Day Bridge Walk at the Mackinac Bridge, when two lanes of the Bridge are open to the public for a free, recreational stroll.

Eldest of the Charlevoix family group is great grandfather, M. K. Chew, 92 years of age. Mr. Chew practices for the annual five-mile bridge walk by walking two miles every day.

Youngest of the family is Dale Boss, Jr., 6 years old. Dale is one of seven children, and his sisters and brothers and parents will all be making the walk with him.

Dale Boss, Senior, the father of the family will be striding along the bridge. He is a Charlevoix insurance agent. Grandfather, John E. Boss, manager of Maxbauer's Creamery in Charlevoix, will also be walking along, as will great-grandfather, Ed Boss, a young 84 years of age.

The entire family "just loves to walk" . . . and the Labor Day walking races and recreational strolls on the Bridge are an annual event they say they wouldn't miss for the world.

Future of Library To be Determined At Election Friday

On Friday (tomorrow), the residents of the Charlevoix school district will go to the polls in a special election to vote on a one-half mill tax levy for a five year period to underwrite the cost of operating the school district library for the benefit of both the public and the students located at the corner of State and Clinton sts. and commonly known as the Charlevoix public library.

The polls at the new high school will be open from 10 a.m. until 8 p.m. Friday for the convenience of the voters.

In the past the library has been operated, in part, with school monies but with the school district operating at a deficit, the board of education has decided to take the issue to the people of the Charlevoix area. Last year the city of Charlevoix contributed $2,500 to supplement other funds but this year the council decided this was not the responsibility of the city and so did not include any funds for this purpose in its budget.

As a result, the future of the library in Charlevoix is dependent on tomorrow's vote by the residents of the school district which takes in the major portion of those who patronize the library.

In recent years,, the hours the library has been kept open have been cut and the purchase of new books limited. Also with the opening of the new high school which maintains a strictly school library, many books have been transferred from the library on State st. to the library at the school.

If the millage issue is approved, it is the intention of the board of education to place the revenue in a special library fund to be administered by the board of education to support the library a spokesman for the board said.

Efforts will be made to improve the service at the library by keeping it open longer hours, supplying more adult books and replacing others which have been removed from the shelves for use at the school.

Because operational monies have had to be cut to a minimum, this may take two or more years to accomplish, but with a known income it is the intention of the present board of education to re-vamp the program and improve the services as monies become available.

As was stated before, the cost of operating the library has been cut to a minimum. During the 1961-62 fiscal year the cost was $6,517.50 and last year it was trimmed to $8,250.00. A breakdown shows the monies were spent thusly: during the 1961-62 fiscal year: salaries (librarian and relief librarian during vacations, etc), $3,500; books, magazines and periodicals, $431.68; supplies, $118.87; repairs on building, $100.53. janitor services, $1,350.00; insurance $38.72; utilities including heat, lights water and sewage, trash removal, telephone, etc., $710.40.

The following funds were utilized to underwrite the cost of the operation for the same period: $2,500.00 contributed by the city, the only time such funds were made available; $121.15, fines and fees collected by librarian on overdue books, etc.; $1,976.47, penal fines distributed by the state which vary each year. For instance, during the 1960-61 fiscal year the amount was $2,531.-00. The same year $266.51 was received in State Aid to Libraries but last year there was no income from this source. The remainder of the cost, which did not allow for improvements or any major purchase of books, was taken from tax monies allocated to the schools.

State Tax Commission Reviews Tax Appeals

The Michigan State Tax Commission will hand down a decision within 15 days from Friday on the appeal by the Charlevoix county board of supervisors regarding the final action of the Charlevoix county tax allocation board, Robert Eckhardt, chairman of the commission said Friday following the hearing at which county and school officials aired their views.

The county board of supervisors, meeting in special session on May 31, voted to appeal to the State Tax Commission after the schools were allocated nine mills and the county only five mills by the county tax allocation board at its final meeting May 25.

The appealing body based its request for relief on the fact that variable millage rates were being levied in school districts fractional with Otsego, Emmet and Antrim counties and that two of the school districts would receive more revenue than their budgets required as a result of the nine mills being levied by the schools. The first applied to Vanderbilt where 7¾ mills was allocated by Otsego county and in the areas fractional with Emmet and Antrim counties where eight mills was allocated.

Ironton No. 4 and Melrose districts were listed as the districts where nine mills would bring in more than budgets required. At Ironton where the budget was $8,440 nine mills would give the district $9,318.28 and in Melrose where the school budget was $27,125 the nine mills would give $27,962.33 to the school.

Spokesmen for the board of supervisors, the allocation board and the schools appeared at the hearing and presented information which will be evaluated by the State Tax Commission before the decision can be made regarding the millage as allocated.

Following the hearing, the board of supervisors held a brief meeting at which the members approved an appropriation of $500.00 to underwrite the cost of painting and repairs on the exterior of the county jail.

Where the money goes

Your Community Chest

Among the agencies in this year's Community Chest campaign are the Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts and Mt. McSauba Recreation Corp.

For the first time, the Girl Scouts have been organized under an area council with headquarters in Traverse City. Charlevoix county is included in the 11 county council.

Under the new set up a centralized board of directors will assume the responsibiltiies for the many services available to girls under the program.

At the present time, Charlevoix has 140 girls in 11 troops. Two Senior Scouts were sent to the International Girl Scout Roundup for the first time; two alternates enjoyed a trip to Chicago; 90 Brownie Scouts participated in the annual Day Camp where they were joined by a Brownie troop from Ellsworth and 40 intermediate Scouts camped at the Charlevoix Girl Scout camp site in two sessions of three days each.

Extensive training courses for new leaders and professional advisory services will be made available to Charlevoix Scouts and their leaders under the area council which will be supported by Community Chest. The Council's request this year is for $750.00.

The Boy Scouts have long been under the council form of organization. In this area it is the Scenic Trails Council with headquarters in Travesse City for the 18-county Council.

The Scenic Trails Council has asked for $1,450 with the number of people served by Scouting as well as the per capita buying income of the county as determined by the Michigan Department of Economic Development serving as a yardstick for the request. The council'a request is 2.4 per cent of its budgeted needs.

In Charlevoix where the Scouting program is sponsored by the Kiwanis club, there are Cub Scouts, Explorer Scouts and Sea Scouts, all under the guidance of volunteer adult leadership. There are also adult committees who have available to them the services of a trained Boy Scout executive. In the northern district the area representative is Guy Molby of Alden.

The Mt. McSauba Recreation Corp., a non-profit organization whose chief purpose is to provide a skiing area for local skiers, has entered a request for $500.00. The funds have been earmarked for development of a new run and the revamping of the youngsters' rope tow and for ski instruction and fees for beginning skiers, a major part of the program since the park was opened. A small amount ($50.00) will be used to help defray the operational loss at the park.

City Recreation Awards 119 Badges At First Swim Day

More than 250 spectators enjoyed the recreation department first Swim day Sunday. First on the program was the presentation of 119 swimming badges and awards. Seven youngsters were awarded the Red Cross Intermediate Swimmers badge; 19 the Swimmers award and 41 the Red Cross Beginners pin. Fifty-two were presented with recreation departments certificates indicating the youngster was short of Red Cross standard yet had passed several of the Red Cross skills.

Deano Davenport, recreation director, introduced each youngter receiving an award and praised the instructional staff of Mrs. Stanley Harwood, Gary Smith, and Sam Supernaw for their fine work in the program.

Next on the program were the finals in the city swim championships. During the week preliminaries were held and all but forty-five participants were eliminated.

Several outstanding performances were turned in during the afternoon. Dave Darton swept individual honors winning four first place ribbons in the Boys senior division. In the junior boys division, Bruce Meggision turned in a fine performance winning three first place ribbons. Lyn Fiedorek paced the junior girls with three firsts and a second. Janice Sunberg had three firsts and a third in the senior girls division.

The exent was such a success that it will become a fixture in the city recreation program.

Mr. and Mrs. William Denemy and children of Ypsilanti are spending 10 days with Mrs. Denemy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Mort and other relatives. Mr. Denemy is now stationed at Ypsilanti with the Michigan State Police.

Grass Roots Upinions

"An editorial on 'Yankee Imperialism' by Dr. Ricardo Castro Beeche, editor of LaNacion, Costa Rica's leading newspaper, comes as a cheerful interlude amid all the fuss and fury of the Fidel Castro communistic regime in Cuba and tells the world how the 'American way' is regarded by another Latin nation to the south of us. Says Dr. Beeche: 'Yankee Imperialism means a country which has gone into two world wars with enormous sacrifices of lives and money and which hasn't taken a single inch of land from the beaten countries. It means a nation which devoted hundreds of millions of dollars to the reconstruction of battle-torn countries after World War II through the Marshall Plan . . . Yankee Imperialism says a man has a right to happiness through a worthy life. Perhaps the Soviets could tell us how this compares with Russian Imperialism. The Soviets hold all the countries defeated by them under their yoke without any freedom at all."—WINTER HAVEN, FLA., HERALD.

Voice of Our Readers . . .

To the Editor of Courier:

Vote "YES" to keep the Charlevoix Public Library open.

On Friday August 31st at the High School from 10 A.M. to 8 P.M., you will decide to keep the present Public Library in operation. With your "YES" vote there will be the necessary funds.

Instead of letting our Public Library die, we can have increased service, some evening and Saturday hours, new fiction for adults and children and more reference books.

Both summer and winter residents, young and old, look to the Library as the book and information center of the Community—which is not only a repository of book materials, but an active, dynamic, educational force.

A "YES' vote for ½ mill levy will assume the continuation of our library for the benefit of the public as well at students at the present central location

The Library will serve the residents of the entire school district—the ½ mill levy will be specifically earmarked for Public Library operation.

Dear Sir:

Last week I visited your very nice public library and learned from the librarian that the residents of Charlevoix will vote on August 31 on whether or not to continue the library. I should like to appeal to them to vote in favor of the slight millage increase in order to maintain the library.

While I was in the library I noticed that persons of all ages came in to borrow or return came in to borrow or return closed, where could adults go for the reading material they wished to read but not to buy? The library is used by summer residents; where could they go if it were closed? It is used by college students both during the school year and during the summer. In my freshman year of college I used the Boyne City Public Library during vacations to work on term papers; last year—my sophomore year— it was closed, and I had to carry books home from college. Since the Boyne City Public Library has been closed, it has been greatly missed by year-round and summer residents alike The presence of a library might attract new residents and summer visitors; its absence might discourage them from coming. Even the elementary and high school students, who have school libraries, would benefit from a public library, both in the summer and in the winter. An elementary student may be prepared for advanced readng not found in the school library; how can he find challenge and nourishment for his mind if there is no public library to meet his need for older reading? The same is true of high school students, many of whom might be interested in subjects and books found in a public, but not a school, library. Students especially need a public library during the summer, for it is then that they can devote the most time to leisure reading, and to that part of education which is most treasured and lasting because it is gained by independent study.

I hope that you voters of Charlevoix will take advantage of your right and privilege of voting, and will cast your votes as you see fit. I hope, of course, that you will vote to maintain a library. You pay taxes to run the city, state, and federal government; why not pay a small additional tax to insure that in Charlevoix, at least, children and adults have an opportunity to learn about those governments and to study those things which will make them both better citizens and better officials? You pay taxes to maintain public buildings; why not pay a tax to maintain the mind? You pay taxes to light the city streets; why not to illumine the spirits and intellects of your people? You pay money for your schools; why not let your children know also the joys of independent study, the refreshment and relaxation of summer reading, the progress of reading beyond their own grade level? Why not let your adults continue their education through reading? You pay taxes for all of these things, you spend your money for recreation, you pay for the best of clothing and food for your families; why not invest a small amount in maintaining a community servant which more than pays for itself in the enjoyment it offers, the enlightenment it brings, the part it plays in the ceaseless fight of light against darkness, knowledge against ignorance, love against hate? Every person of Charlevoix—be he a townsperson or a summer visitor—should be willing to do his part to maintain this servant. PLEASE don't let your library be closed!

Sincerely yours,
(Miss) Mary Fuday

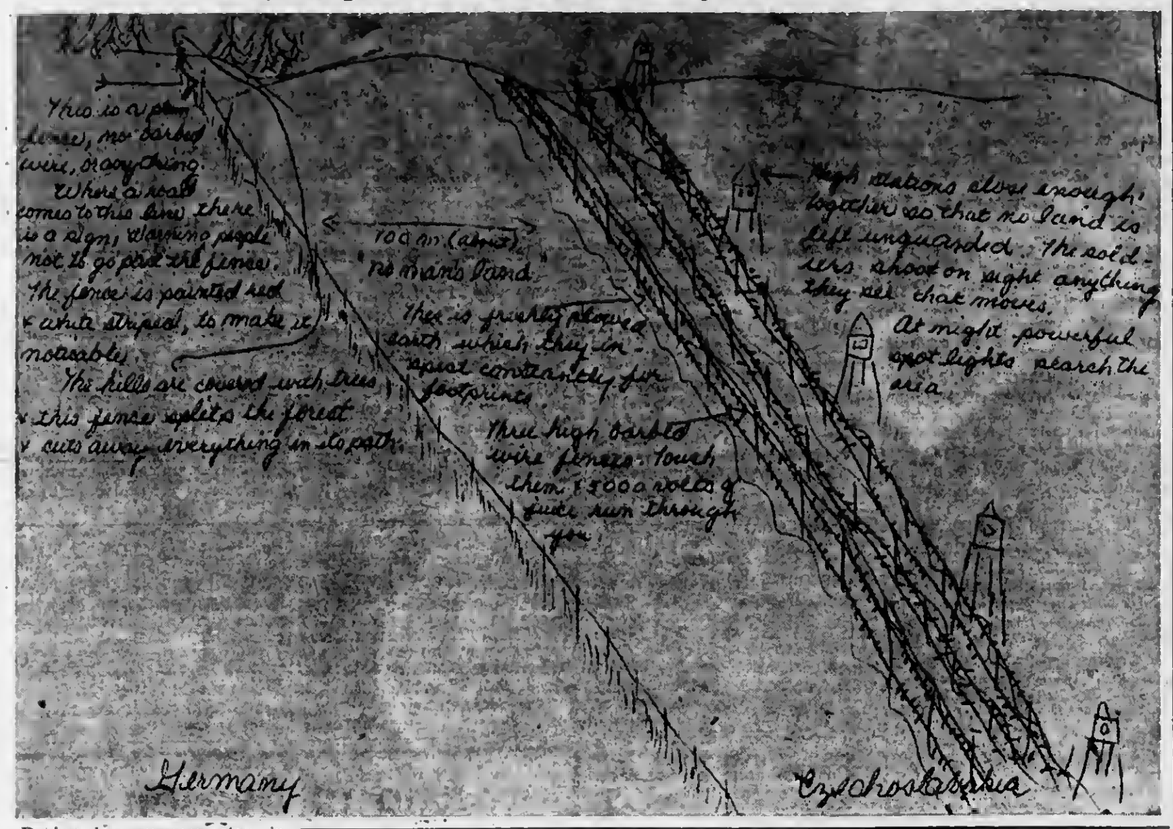
Exchange Student's Sketch of German Wall



This is a plain fence, no barbed wire, nothing.
When a road comes to this line there is a sign, warning people not to go past the fence.
The fence is painted red & white striped, to make it noticable.
The hills are covered with trees & this fence splits the forest & cuts away everything in its path.
100 m. (about) no mans land.
There is freshly plowed earth which they inspect constantly for footprints.
Three high barbed wire fences. Touch them & 1000 volts of juice run through you.
High stations close enough together so that no land is left unguarded. The soldiers shoot on sight anything they see that moves.
At night powerful spot lights search the area.
Germany
Czechoslovakia

During her summer stay in Germany, Elaine Martin daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Martin, visited a little town on the border of Germany and Czechoslavakia where she was confronted with the East German wall. Above is a sketch she included in a letter to friends in Charlevoix.

She had this to say: 'We drove through the Bayerischerwald, which is like the Schwarzald, only more mountainous. It was very pretty and reminded me of the wilds of Northern Michigan. We went to a little town on the border of Germany and Czechoslavakia. At the border the road suddenly stops and there is nothing but tall grass on the other side. The town suddenly stops—everything suddenly stops. We could see one house over there. The windows that faced Germany were cemented up."

Girl Scouts Give Account Of Recent Trip to Chicago

Two members of Senior Girl Scout Troop 13 who were named as alternates to the International Roundup at Button Bay, Vt., joined other membera of their patrol in a trip to Chicago recently. Earlier a camping trip at a Girl Scout camp in Illinois had been cancelled because of lack of interest so the northern patrol had decided on a trip to the Midwest's largeat city as an 'alternate' choice. The following account of the trip was written by Barbara. Wood and Frances Arnold.

Dear Charlevoixans,

All around us were the smoke stacks of the ateel mills; the air was full of fumes. This was Gary, Ind., so we knew Chicago was near.

Ever since that evening in June when the alternate Roundup patrol had first decided on this trip we had been waiting for this! We'd worked, we'd planned and now, here we were.

We checked in at the Harrison Hotel late Monday afternoon after an uneventful trip from Traverse City where we'd joined the patrol the night before.

"We", in this case, included our adult leaders, Mrs. R. F. Thompson and Mrs William Blanke our own leader, Mrs. Lloyd Arnold, plus the other members of ths alternate patrol, Roxanna Hendges, Betsy Walton, Jackie Blanke and Virginia Winkler, all of Traverse City, Polly Gibson of Beulah and the two of us, Barbara Wood and Frances Arnold.

After settling in our rooms, we went on a walkng tour of the Loop area and that event went to the top of the Prudential building, 48 stories up, to see Chicago at night . . . a breathtaking view that seemed to spread out for miles and miles and one we will long remember.

North side, South side, all around the town we went by various means of transportation the next day. This was followed by trips to the Garfield Park conservatory where we saw plants and flowera from all over the world, to the Adler planetarium, Shedd Aquarium and the National History Museum.

That evening we took a bus tour ineluding visits to China town, Maxwell st. and little Italy. We stopped at McCormick Place and Buckingham Fountain, the latter beautiful with an array of colored lights.

Ths next morning we began the day with a tour of Marshall Fleid Co. store, a rare experience and a visit to the Art Institute. That afternoon we donned our 'dress-up' clothes and went off to see "Sound of Music", a stage production of the popular musical which was one of the nighlghts of our trip.

In the evening we took a ride on the subway and the "el" . . . a new experience for all of us. We're atill trying to decide if we liked these various means of transporation.

On Thursday we spent most of the day at the Museum of Science and Industry where we all found somethng of interest to each of us including the German submarine, the first vessel taken by the U.S. Navy since 1915 and Colleen Moore's castle-like doll house and a beautiful array of dolls.

On Friday the patrol broke up with aome of us taking a boat tour of the city via the Chicago river and Lake Michigan and the others shopping in the downtown stores. In the evening, we again broke up with some going horseback riding and swimming in the park while the rest of us attended a Chicago White Sox-Detroit Tiger baseball game at Comisky Park.

We were up early Saturday in anticipation of the return trip. We left Chicago at 9 a.m. and arrived home at 8:30 p.m. after a memorable trip . . . grateful for the trip but happy to be back to the quietness and eleanliness of northern Michigan.

Circlin' The Bases

By DEANO

Less than a week is left of the 1962 season. Several league champions have been decided with several others to be decided shortly.

Motor Accidents Kill 20 in County In Five Year Period

During the past five years 20 persons were killed in motor vehicle accidents in Charleviox County according to a report released by James M. Hare, chairman of the Michigan State Safety Commission.

Using the most recent yardstiek established by the National Safety Council, the estimated total cost to society of these fatalities is $3,800,000.

In explaining the technique used in arriving at this figure, Hare said accident costs are one of the most useful measures of the importance of accident prevention work. No statement on this subject is complete without some reference to the financial loss which is incurred. However, it is not always possible to make precise calculations of dollar costs. They can only be approximated.

The calcuable costs of motor vehicle accidents are wage-loss, medical expense, overhead cost of insurance and property damage. Last year these costs averaged about $180,000 per death for all accidents, fatal, nonfatal and property damage. This 'per death' total includes the cost of one death 37 injuries and 250 property damage accidents.

The ratio of 250 property damage accidents per death thus excludes cases of minor damage which may not be repaired, such as hub caps smashed against curbs in parking. The unit costs are: death, $31,800; nonfatal injury, $1,900 and property damage, $320.

Michigan Mirror

By Elmer E. White

THE 1962 LEGISLATIVE session was, by tradition, supposed to be short and unproductive because this is an election year.

Productivity conformed to tradition for the most part, but by sheer length and amount of activity, the Legislature made history.

During the 102-day session, extemely long for an election year, nearly 1,250 bills were introduced to set a new record. Of these 251 passed. This was also well up among the record-setting sessions for the number of measures approved.

Gov. John B. Swainson vetoed 10 of the measures presented for his approval. Last year he turned down 17 bills.

Pehaps most notable of the session was the perennial tax squabble which resulted in the enactment of a $77 million package of nuisance taxes.

Other laws enacted of note include the complicated "Sunday closng" regulations affecting the entire retail industry; a rider to create a state conservation camp for teenagers; a new commercial code covering all commercial transactions and paper; and a boating control measure to provide uniform regulations over lake uses.

RESEARCH IS AND WILL BE a "basic industry" in Michigan, according to a Michigan State University spokesman.

Dr. Milton E. Muelder, vice president for research and development, predicts that in 10 years the expansion of research will be as great or greater than in the past decade.

During the past 10 years, he said, investments in research have tripled nationally, from $5 billion in 1953 to an estimated $6 billion this year.

Michigan and most of the Midwest "stood idly by" during the last decade while areas on the East and West coasts delibertely attracted most of the funds spent on reseach, Muelder noted.

"These areas have succeeded, not because they have railroads, or raw materials, but because they have had reservoirs of ideas," he said.

Muelder contends the universities in a state provide much of the attraction for research. Universities in Michigan can help attract research industries by providing for cooperation with industrial scientists and pointing out resources and cultural benefits.

"Efforts of chambers of commerce, realtors and special promotional agencies are also needed," Muelder said. "These groups must provide favorable industrial sites near our universities and make them available to interested concerns."

Another requirement for attracting research work to Michigan is a high quality of faculty members at institutions of higher education, he said.

"It has been observed many times that the more qualified and distinguished the faculty, the more extensive and available are research programs supported by off-campus agencies," he said.

"Dollars invested in distinguished faculty and research unquestionably represent one of the finest investments a state can make."

THE MAN WHO indirectly issues all Michigan driver's licenses stands in probably the No. 2 power lot in state government.

Aside from this benefit of the elected post, the Secretary of State has probably the most varied responsibilities of any Michigan officer.

In the line of succession to the governorship, the Secretary of State stands behind the Lieutenant Governor. Like most top state officers, his position is established in the Constitution.

Michigan's Secretary of State wears many hats during a working day.

At one hour, he is the keeper of the Great Seal and all the records and archives of the state government. He also is the State's chief election offieer, responsible for establishing rules and regulations and enforcing the laws relating to ballot procedure.

At another time he is responsible for registering motor vehicles; licensing motor vehicles, operators, chauffeurs, dealers, and watercraft; and maintaining 228 branch offices in all the county seats and other centers of population.

Certain times of the year, the Secretary of State is given the aditional jobs of compiling, publishing and distributing laws, pamphlets and administrative rules; licensing private detectives and dective agencies; regulating savings and loan associations; and registering trade marks, legislative lobbyists, chattel mortgages, trust receipts, railroad leases, city and village charters, and an almost never-ending list of other documents.

Agriculture ... in Action

What Farmers Believe

"I'm sorry, but I simply do not believe in your philosophy." With that statement a brilliant young man turned down a promising career with a large Michigan farm organization. His background and training did not allow him to accept the principles to which most farmers subscribe.

What do farmers believe? A check of policy statement endorsed by a majority of Michigan's "commercial" farmers in annual policy sessions of the Michigan Farm Bureau reveals this partial list of basic beliefs:

Farmers believe in and support the American competitive enterprise system.

They hold that the Constitution is the basic law of the land and that that its interpretation should be in accordance with the intent of its authors.

Farmers believe that man's search for progress should be encouraged by maintenance of opportunity, not hindered by illusions of security.

That a person should be rewarded in accordance with his productive contribution to society.

That every person is entitled to own property, earn money honestly, save, invest and spend as he chooses.

That property rights cannot be taken away without infringing on rights guaranteed by the Constitution.

That government should operate impartially in the interest of all.

That government's regulatory functions should be based on law.

That government should provide only minimum controls and aids.

That government should stimulate, not discourage, individual initiative.

That propagandizing by government is dangerous to the maintenance of self-government.

They believe that monopoly, whether by government, industry labor or agriculture, is dangerous.

That all candidates for public office should state their beliefs with respect to communism, socialism and capitalism.

With the fall season coming, diversional therapy will he assumed and perhaps a long range list of workers could he made allowing the groups to plan activities they wish to carry out. If anyone has ideas on the formation of this Auxiliary or has had contact with people in other hospitals who arleady have an auxiliary, we will appreciate having them call or contact either Mrs. Hartlep at the facillty or Mrs. Hugh Gidley at LE 6-2264.

Glenn S. Allen Jr. of Kalamazoo candidate for state treasurer, congratulates K. P. Brooks of Mt. Pleasant and Pine Point who met the first passenger train arriving in Charlevoix as they met Saturday at the C & O depot to bid adieu to the last scheduled passenger train to make the run. The fathers of both men were ective in founding the Belvedere club.

C & O Discontinues Regular Passenger Train Service Here

Departure of the southbound Chesapeake & Ohio passenger train Saturday marked the end of a once flurishing transporation business that played an important part in the development of Charlevoix from a lumbering town in the nineties to a thriving resort area.

The endling of regular passenger service Saturday atlracled little or no public altention excepl for two persons who made il a point to be al the atation to bid the train and its crew a last farewell.

The occasion was of particular interest to K. B. Brooks of Mt. Pleasant and a regular summer resident of Pine Point and Glenn S. Allen Jr. of Kalamazoo, the Republican candidate for state tresaurer who is presenlly spending a short vacalion here with his father, Glenn S. Allen Sr., 94, wbo has been a regular summer vacationer since his father and others founded the Belvedere club. Mr. Brooks' grandfather, H. P. Paige was also one of the founders.

Mr. Brooks as a lad of 18, living at the Belvedere club with his parents, was al the station to meet a friend he expected to arrive on lhe first passenger train into Charlevoix. As he recalls the incident, he had rowed a boat to the station but failed to tie it securely and it went adrift. He said he ran back to the club, gol another boat and retrieved his boat, fearful every minule the train would arrive before he could get to the stalion. He said he made it but was disappointed thal the friend did not arrive.

The coming of rail passenger travel to Charlevoix contributed to the rapid development of the Belvedere club and the Chicago club as well as to the growth of the community as a resort area.

The first rail service was made possible by a group of individuals who raised sufficient funds to buy a right of way and organize the Chicago and Weat Michigan Railroad. Passenger aervice was firsl operated in 1892 and rail transportation thrived for the nexl lhree deeades.

The railroad was evenlually laken over by the Pere Marquette Railroad and In 1949 Pere Marquette was officially laken over by the Chesapeake & Ohio.

Dwindling passenger travel in recent years resulted in the C & O requesting permission to discontinue the services. It is understood the schedule this past summer was operated to satisfy the demands of communitiea wbich might be affected by discontinuing the service It is the opinion of aome persons acquainted with the situation that a particular occasion mighl prompt a special excursion bul that regular passenger service will never be resumed.

Who was the last person to depart from Charlevoix on the final run of the last regular passenger train? It was Mrs. R. L. Lewis who boarded the train on the first leg of a lrip to California where she plans lo make her home in the future. A few of her friends were on hand to bid her a good-bye. Thus ended the travel by rail to Charlevoix.

Approval of a special lax levy lo support the school distriet library, commonly known as the Charlevoix Public Library, was given by the voters of the Charlevoix school district Friday.

The proposal to levy one-half mill lo raise funds lo supporl the library was approved by a vote of 340 to 79 with two ballots spoiled.

For many years the library has been operated by the board of education and the cost of operation aupported by tax monies allocated to the schools and supplemented by funds from other sources. - By Harold E. Kohn -

A Greater Fruitfulness

The apple trees in our small orchard are short, wizened and arthritic looking, but they are prolifically fruitful, as the deer have long since discovered. Fruit hangs heavy in the tranaparent, crystal air of September. Boughs bend low within reach of browsing deer. Limbs release well-ripened apples that tumble into the long grass, there to await the opproach of hungry whitetails.

It has always astonished me to see how many apples one diminutive tree can bear. Some apple growers contend that smallness of the tree's structure and fruitfulness are related. Big apple trees are often too much absorbed in producing wood to give much botanical attention to yielding fruit. When the early orchardists in Maine had trouble with their apple trees growing too fast while producing little fruit, they used to correct the difficulty by wounding the tree. With a mighty swing of an axe they cut a deep gash in the tree trunk. Orchardists claimed that when an apple tree was hurt in this way the tree changed for the better. Instead of growing into a big woody plant, it converted its energy into greater fruitfulness and an abundance of apples.

Some people are like erring apple trees that misdirect their energies into accumulation of quantity. Such folks seem to think that what counts most is the number of years they live rather than the quallty of their lives. Others measure life in terms of growth of material possessions, the amassing of things. Then some deep wound is sustained. A hurtful disappointment or a profound sorrow gashes them and they become suddenly aware of quality. No more do they care to produce merely more wood. They become fruitful. Far from being final disasters that destroy them disappointment and sorrow become wounda that save them.

Could it be that our hurts are intended to enhance the quality of our living?

The Rev. A. R. Gould of Cedar Springs, retired associate minister of the local church and the Rev. A. AGRICULTURE in ACTION .....

by M. L. Woell

Farm Labor Coalition?

"If only farmers would join labor unions, what atrength we would have!" This wishful statement is commonly heard around the labor bargaining tables.

But somehow, the appeal for a farm-labor coalition is received with something less than enthusasm by agriculture. Farmers have grown cynical over the years from hearing too many political promises,—and seeing too little sincerity on the part of those who make them.

Most of the conflict comes from the dual role evory farmer plays. He IS a laborer, . . one of the greatest,—but he is much more than that. He is a capitalist in every sense of the word and he is management. Above all, he is management. His labor and his capital amount to less than nothing if he is not first and foremost a capable manager.

To begin, every farmer is more of a laborer than a capitalist. For this reason, the appeals of labor unions seem most reasonable to the beginning or small farmer. But in his beart, this beginning farmer, who still gets more out of his labor than he does out of his investment in machinery and land or his ability to manage them, has dreams of another day. Every small farmer dreama of becoming a bigger farmer,—and his labor is aimed at the day when he will become more of a capitalist than laborer.

Because of this conflict caused by the dual role each farmer plays, some farmers become confused and feel that organized labor offers them the only way to improve their income. They see how labor has succeeded in "collective bargainaing"—and cannot be blamed for wanting some of the same kind of success.

But unless such farmers want to REMAIN laborers more than they want personal success,—there is little value in joining a labor union or union-type "farm" organization.

It is nonsense to think that labor unions would help raise farm prices to benefit the ten per cent of the population represented by agriculture,—thereby causing higher food prices for the laboring majority of the population which they truly represent. Being capitalists, laborers and management, farmers need the kind of help that labor unions cannot offer. The best way for farmers to get the kind of help they need is for them to freely work together in their own farm organizations to get the job done.

Belvedere Golf Course Selected For State Tourney

The Belvedere golf course will be the scene of the 1963 Michigan Amateur golf championship according to an announcement made in Detroit last week by Hoard Neilson, co-chsirman of the championship committee.

The field will also be limited next year with applications being accepted from only 224 players with an established handicap of six or less.

Previously, the handicap requirement had been 10 but the field has been growing larger every year. Another factor is that the 36-hole medal play qualifying for the match play will be held on only one course.

The tournament will be played June 26-30. Stroke play will be June 26 and 27 with the 63 low players joining defending champion Mike Andonian in match play.

All applicants will be required to submit tbeir entry form certified as to handicap by their club handicap chairman or professional or, In the case of public course players, by their local public association or handicap chairman.

This Is the first time the tournament has been held outside metropolitan areas since it was held here in 1958.

Where the money goes

Your Community Chest

During the early weeks of the 1962 Community Chest campaign, the Charlevoix Courier is reviewing the agencies included in the current fund drive.

Among these is the MUF (Michigan United Fund) which raises funds for some 18 state and 20 national agencies. The agency's request is for $1,003. Of this total the Michigan United Fund, allocates the larger portion of its budget to 16 health agencies.

Many feel that the residents of the area do not benefit from these agencies. However, statistics tell a far different story for they show that though Charlevoix contributed only $1,564 to the MUF in 1961, area residents received $2,920 in services.

The Michigan chapter, Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation participated in casework with Rackham Arthritis Research unit, Arthritis Out-patient and In-patient service at the University of Michigan Hospital, serving one county patient who made four visits to these facilities at a cost to the agency of $8.00.

Michigan Diabetes Association processed one diabetes detection kit at a cost of 63c; extended informational and counselling service to four residents at a cost of $3.50 and provided patients education service to one resident at a cost of $2.96 or at total of $7.09.

Michigan Association of Better Hearing provided mobile unit screening tests for 160 residents at a cost of $579.24 and mobile unit comprehensive tests to 14 residents at a cost of $362.10 for a total net cost of $9.41.34.

Michigan Children's Aid Society conducted four adoptive home studies at a cost of $352.00, completed and supervised three adoptive placements, $288.00, assisted seven unwed mothers, $1,110.00; maintained 12 children in foster care, $8,214.00 and provited miscellaneous services at a cost of $365.00. The total gross cost amounted to $10,870.00 with the agency receiving reimbursements in the amount of $6,645.00 leaving a net cost to the agency of $4,225.00.

Michigan Chapter, National Multiple Sclerosis Society provided statewide informational materials to three residents at a cost if $9.90.

The United Service Organizations (USO) was one of the major beneficiaries, statistics show. As of Mar. 31, 1962, approximately 171 men and women from Charlevoix county were reported in the armed services. The USO maintains centers in this country and abroad wherever large or isolated concentrations of military personnel require their services.

The Michigan United Fund supports USO programs at the current average of about $7.563 per year for Michigan resident serving in the Armed Forces. Accordingly, the cost of maintaining USO services for enlisted personnel from Charlevoix county was approximately $2,186.29 per year.

MUF agencies are those known to have rendered services to individuals and communities in the county in 1961 in excess of $7,317.72. Charlevoix are a represents 39.9 per cent of Charlevoix county and 39.9 percent of these services amount to $2,920.00.

Based on the 40½ per cent state average, the area would have received $633.00 in services to individuals and communities. Actually, the total of $2,920.00 represents 187 per cent of the 1961 allocation.

The above mentioned figures represent actual services to the residents of the area and do not include the benefits indirectly given these same people through research programs, other field and community services, public and professional education, planning and cordination activities to which the remaining agencies address themselves.

Results! Why, man, I have gotten a lot of results. I know several thousand things that won't work.—Thomas A. Edison.

As a general rule, it's best for parents to follow the identical advice they give their children. I. T.M.

Cirelin' The Bases

By DEANO

Well, another season has come to a successful close and many thanks go out to the many people involved in the program. A tip of the hat goes to our umpire crew who faithfully did their job knowing that you can never please all the people all the time. This group included Gary Smith, Bill Superman, Harry Pearsall, Jack Mol, and Ken Wojan. Special thanks to two devoted managers Lloyd Cummings and Harvey Hamilton. Lloyd Managed three teams—one in each of the junior, peanut, and women's league. Harvey doubled up by managing teams in both the peanut, and men's leagues. Max Novak also served in a double role by managing a Women's league team and aiding in coaching a blooper ball team.

All Stars Defeat Ellsworth

In a special game the City All-Stars defeated Ellsworth Morweld Steel 4-2. Ellsworth scored first in the second inning on VanDerark and H. Klooster's base hits. Charlevoix came back with all their runs in the third on Anderson's and Davenport's one-baggers, a walk, and Roger Towsley's sharp single plus an error. Ted Potter was the winning pitcher.

Cards Win Peanut Thriller

The Cardinals won the Peanut league crown in a thrilling game with the Cubs by a 3-2 score. Paul Fiedorek scored a run in the first to send the Cubs in front. Then in the fourth the Cards came to life. Rog Sharrow and Tom Webb walked, Bill Williams lined a single into right for two runs, then pitcher Chuck Masley singled Williams home with what proved to be the winning run. Chuck Pease scored a run with a single in the Cub fifth, but the Cards defense held and although the Cubs had several scoring opportunities in the late innings they could not push home the tying run.

A night earlier the Cubs had made the playoff necessary when they edged the Cards 8-7 in the contest to decided the second round champ. The Cards had won the first round. In that contest the Cubs piled up a large lead then hung on for the win. The Cubs enjoyed an 8-3 lead with two out in the seventh when the Cards poured home four runs and had the winning run on second when the Cubs put out the fire.

Barnard Tops in Junior League

Barnard won a squeeker in the junior league playoff 4-3 and in doing so copped their third straight league championship. They made great use of Browe Electric's mistakes in their victory however. An error of a possible double play ball allowed four unearned runs to score in the Barnard third. Then a mixup on the base paths cost Browes dearly in the fourth. Denny Warner and Mike Crain's singles coupled around the Browe errors accounted for the four Barnard runs. Steve Anderson and Steve Faculak lead off the Browe fourth with singles but costly mistakes running the bases allowed Barnard to get out of the inning with no run scoring. Steve Anderson's triple in the fifth accounted for both Browe runs.

Bring'em back alive every time you drive.

SUNDEW REPORT

The most notable of the Sundew activities this past week was the qualification of six new boarding officers. The men who completed the course were specially chosen for this trainng on the basis of their interest in, and adaptability for, the pleasure craft safety program of the Coast Guard.

The Coast Guard's policy tends toward aiding boat owners to comply with federal laws and regulations. A small, lucid pamphlet entitled "Pleasure Craft" (CG-290) is available without charge at all Coast Guard units. This is a short synopsis of the safety requirements for motor boats 65 ft. and under.

There exists a definite need for the equipmerit requirements stipulated by law. For example, any life preserve that floats isn't necessarily a good life preserver. A Coast Guard-approved life preserver undergoes rigorous testng before its approval is obtained. Such a factor as remaining buoyant after rigorous immersion tests is among the criteria for determining the worth of a particular type of life preserver and the floatation material used therein. The effeciency of the design and the quality of stitching and sealing are also scrutinized by experienced Coast Guard inspectors before approval is granted. In addition, periodic suprise inspections are made to insure the maintenance of acceptable standards of manufacture. The refusal of a "Coast Guard Approved" number on any life saving devicce is in the interest of public safety.

Boarding personnel will always be in uniform and will always identify themselves by name and rate when they hail a boat. If boarded, boat owners are urged to take advantage of the complete store of information available through the boarding officer.He can advise owners and operators on problems concerning "Rules of the Road" or seamanship, boat safety and, of course, federal requirements for boat equipment.

Crewmen who have completed training as boarding officers are Ens. R. C. McFarland, Julius Alama, QM1. Robert W. Gideon, QM2, Duane R. Letourneau, QM-3, George H. Lochner, En2, Michael Reitz, DC2, and Edward V. Mullins, QM3. The latter was transferred immediately after completing the training.

Sundew Scuttlebutt

Three members of the Sundew crew were transferred this past week. Robert C. Evans, Senior Chief Boatswain's Mate, was transfered to Chicago, Ill., to commence duties as officer-in-charge of the Jackson Park Lifeboat Station . . . Charles O. Community Chest Plans Victory Celebration

Plans for a victory celebration if the Charlevoix Community Chest fund campaign goal of $11,278.00 is reached by Oct. I have been announced by Dr. Robert G. Martin, fund campaign chairman.

Consumers Power Co., Charlevoix County State Bank and Charlevoix State Savings Bank have offered to jointly sponsor a victory celebration dinner for all campaign workers if they "put the drive over the top" in an intensive three week campaign designed to contact every individual, business and industry in the area.

Scott Wilson of the Holiday Terrace Hotel has offered the facilities of bis hotel to entertain approximately 125 volunteer workers who will be participating in the campaign.

This invitation constitutes a challenge on the part of the sponsoring business concerns, to all workers, to get out and get tbe job done, Dr. Martin said in announcing plans for the dinner. It also demonstrates to the residents of the Charlevoix area their support of the work done by the agencies represented in tbe Community Chest.

The campaign will officially get underway Monday with a kick-off meeting for all workers to be held at St. Mary's school at 8:30 p.m. Dr. Martin, as campaign chairman, will preside at this brief but important meeting which will afford an opportunity for all workers to meet with the Community Chest directors and learn how the agencies are budgeted and the campaign goal set. Representatives of Chest agencies will also be present to answer questions regarding their respective agencies. There will be reports form the Advanced Gifts divisions of the campaign.

Mrs. Charles A. Duerr, executive secretary to the Community Chest organization, will have a brief instruction period for all workers who will then meet with their respective division chairmen to obtain their campaign kits.

At the close of the kick-off meeting, refreshments will be served by the Community Chest board.

American Land Reform?

When the Chinese Reds swept over the msinland, apologists for their brutality said that they represented a simple "land reform" movement. Sometimes the phrase "agrarian reform" has been used instead to convey the impression that if it has to do with the soil, it must be right.

Land reform, no matter where it is found, be it Red China, India or Cuba, haas its roots in the same socialist soil. Property rights are separated from human rights, and the land is divided "from each according to his ability to each according to his need." This is in keeping with directives given by Karl Marx in his Ten Point Manifesto in 1848. Marx called for (1) "abolition of property in land and application of all rents of land to public purposes," and (2) "a heavy progressive or graduated land tax . . ." as among the best ways to bring a country into the communist fold.

It is no accident that the program of the U. S. Communist Party calls for our government to "institute agricultural reform movements." The U.S. Party asks that farmers be paid "100 per cent of parity price supports for all farm products," (from the federal treasury).

Naturally, farmers want 100 per cent of parity,—so what's wrong with that? When "parity" is guaranteed by the government and paid from the federal treasury, it means complete government control of prices and markets. This, of course, is Communism.

What is wrong with a graduated land tax? First off, most people know little about this proposal where small farmers are taxed at a lower figure, and with the tax rate rising sharply for all property over a certain level. This kind of tax is a perfect tool for land reform,—a weapon to forcibly remove land from the possession of the owner if it was determined that a person had "too much," and to balk any possibility of using efficiency to gain reasonable adequate incomes on the farm.

Social action committees working within church groups, labor unions and political parties frequently fall for some version of these land reform movements. "Do gooders," dupes and fellow travelers palm off the programs as needed social actions, unmindful of the direction the programs will eventually take agriculture, an through it, all of America.

September Brings A Romantic Moon

The romantiic Harvest Moon will make its first appearance at 11:12 p.m. on Sept. 13 and its a good bet that many of its advocates will stay up to welcome it in.

The peculiarity of this full moon, as distinguished from other occasions when the moon is near full phase, is its slight delay in rising for several nights in succession.

Due to this small retardation, the evenings at harvest time are well supplied with moon light and attract much attention. On the average, the Moon rises nearly an hour later each evening, but this delsy varies considerably during the year due to the angle that the Moon's path makes with the eastern horizon.

In the autumn, this retardation is the shortest of the whole year, being around 20 minutes in contrast to more than an hour in the spring, and hence becomes very noticeable.

Besides its rising so nearly the same time each evening, the Harvest Moon is likely to appear larger than usual and take on quite reddish appearance near the horizon. This is due to the condition of the Earth's atmosphere, and not to the Moon itself.

The apparently large size of the full moon near the horizon is considered an optical illusion and again has nothing to do with the Moon itself, but is due to comparison with nearby terrestrial objects.

Charlevoix to Host Rogers City To Open 1962 Football Season

The Charlevoix Rayders, coached by Don Carey, will officially open their 1962 football season Friday when they host Rogers City in a game scheduled for 8 p. m. at Kipke field.

The game will be one of seven scheduled for the weekend by teams of the Northern Michigan Class C league. Other games will find Boyne City playing at Petoskey, East Jordan hosting Kalkaska, Gaylord traveling north to Cheboygan, Grayling playing at Harrison, and Mancelona hosting Oscoda in games to be played at 8 p. m. Friday, and Harbor Springs taking on Petoskey St. Francis on the Ram's field at 8 p.m. Saturday.

Coach Carey has not listed the members of his starting line-up. However, be has named possible starters in all positions.

Candidates for the backfield positions will include John Pearl, Frank Curtis, Dan Pearl, Herb Cummings, Al Wojan, former center now in the backfield, and Rick Miller, all of whom lettered last season. They will find plenty of competition from Joe Smith, Jack Stockwell, Dave Novotny, Andy Loe, Larry Edwards, Chrip Terrill, Dave Smith, Vance Wood and Howard Harriman.

Brendan LaBlance is the only candidate for the end position who has lettered. Others are Bruce Kroken, Nick DeYoung, Jim Stewart, Howard M Dale Sanford and Andy Carey, all up from the Reserves.

Mike Bust and Dave Rader, the latter a former end, will head the list of candidates for tackle assignments. Others will be Rick Grunch, Bob Bascom, Ben Cunningham, Gary Moore, Tom Oleksy and Ron Wislik, the latter a transfer from the Detroit area.

Tom Browe and Charlie Mitchell who played in the guard position last year, will be working hard for starting assignments with such players as Bob Odmark, John Ochs, Terry Geer and Jerry Anderson bucking hard for the job.

The center position is up for grabs with Dick Odmark, who was sidelined with a back injury last season, Pete Ance and Lewis Poole strong contenders for the job.

Elsewhere in the loop, coaches are counting on returning veterans and lettermen who will serve the nuclei for this year's squads.

At Grayling, Coach Don Ferguson has Tom Wright, an end, Harvey Merrithew, Larry Millikin, a center, and Chris Kroll and Gary Luckstead, back, among his returning veterans along with Dick Trudeau and Tom Duncan, tackles, Norman Bancroft, a guard, and Bill Joseph, a back, returning lettermen.

At Boyne City, however, the picture is black for Coach Paul Pfahler who has only two returning veterans, Larry Gunderson, quarterback, and Bill Darbee, a guard turned halfback, and three lettermen, Gary Beaman, an end, and John Braun and Bob West, back, from last year's championship squad. Other starters must come from among players up from the JV squad.

At East Jordan Coach Wes Fleet has not only 10 returning lettermen but the heaviest line in the loop. Among the returnees are halfback Don Roberts, fullback Tom Galmore, ends Don Wilson and Fred Malpass, guards John Cox and Rich Chanda, tackle Les Hitchcook and center Chuck Reed. With a few players who saw action with the Reserves, he will field the most experienced team in the league.

Coach Matt Jacobson at Mancelona has 29 candidates for his Varsity team but among the candidates only four regulars including quarterback Pat Dutcher, Larry Hood, and Terry Johnson, tackles and Steve Ottgen, a halfback.

At Harbor Springs, Coach Charlie Paige is working with five returnees including one regular, Mickey Heinz, a center, plus John Borowski and Jim Cole, backs, Don Heinz, a tackle and Jim Gassidy, a guard.

At Gaylord Coach Jim Mongeau, who has taken over the duties of football as well as basketball has a number of regulars are reporting. Among them Art Teboe, an end, Rich Bottomly, a tackle, Bill Kohler and Gary Harris, guards and Charlie Howe, a center. Others are Bob Still, Jim Johnson, a transfer from Central Lake, Bill Borst, Chuck Malcolm and Tom Measeil.

Cub Scouts R-Day Set for Monday

Monday has been designated as R-Day . . . recruiting and registration day . . for the Cub Scouts in the Charlevoix area.

On that day all prospective Cub Scouts and their parents are asked to attend a meeting at the Community Room of the City Hall so that the boys may sign up for membership in the Cub Scout program which is open to youngsters in the eight, nine and 10 year age group. Boys who are not yet eight years old are eligible to join on their eighth birthday anniversary.

In announcing the recruiting and registration meeting both Robert Hooper, Cub Master, and Don Anders, chairman of the Cub Scout committee, said that if Charlevoix is to save its Cub Scout charter it is necessary that parents show more interest in the program than they have in the past. "Mothers must serve as den mothers or assistant den mother for a period of three months or more and fathers must become active members of the committee, they said. Without the support of his parents a boy cannot be a good Cub Scout. That is why it is imperative that at least one parent accompany each prospective Cub Scout to Monday's meeting.

Questionaires will be sent home by the Cub Scout committee this week outlining the program and asking that parents register their sons for participation in the program. Parents are urged to return the registration forms by Friday.

The Cub Scout program is sponsored by the Kiwanis club which has also made a financial contribution to the program to help underwrite the cost of supplies and needed materials.

Anyone wishing to become a den mother or committee member is invited to attend the meeting Monday.

Louis Mindel, 78 Hayes Township Resident Passes

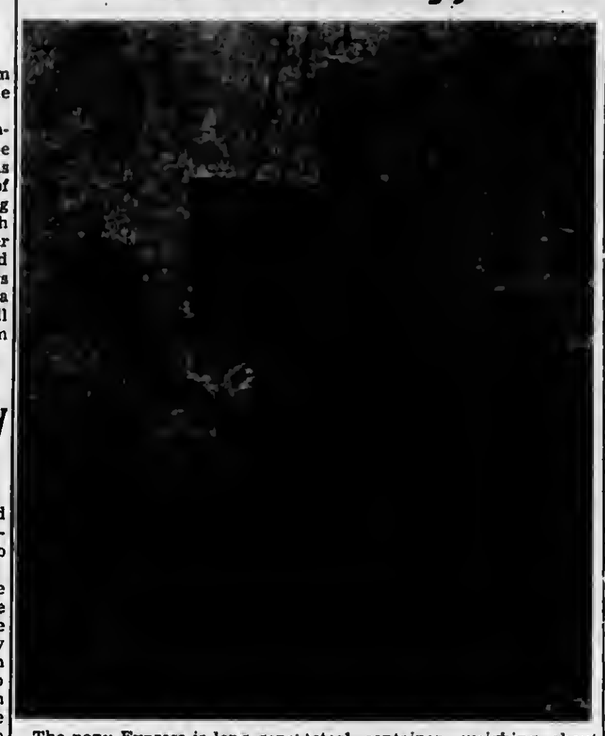
Louis Mindel, 77, retired Penn Dixie Cement Corp. foreman, died Thursday at bis Hayes township home following a lingering illness.

Funeral services were held at the Winchester Funeral Home Monday with the Elder William F. Hawkes of the Seventh Day Adventist church of Petoskey officiating. Burial was in Brookside cemetery.

Born in Mecosta county Apr. 29, 1886, Mr. Mindel came to northern Michigan at an early age and lived in both Emmet and Charlevoix counties. At one time he was employed by the Jarman Lime Co. of Petoskey and later was associated with Penn-Dixie Cement Corp. as a foreman for 26 years prior to his retirement. He had lived at his present home in Hayes township for 22 years. In 1911 he was married to the former Lula Gray at Charlevoix. He attended the Seventh Day Adventist church in Petoskey.

Besides his wife, he is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Carl Harmon of Lansing; three grandsons, Carl D. and James L. Harmon of Lansing and Davod E. Harmon, stationed at Malmstrom Air Force Base, Great Falls, Mont., with the U.S. Air Force; seven great-grandchildren; a brother, Jacob of California and one sister, Mrs. Clara Mayer of Detroit.

Condensed Energy



The pony Express is long gone; but horses are still involved in the shipment of nuclear products.

Shown being bundled in protective horse hair is the equivalent in energy of more than 5,000 tons of coal, part of a fuel shipment form General Electric's Atomic Power Equipment Department in San Jose to Consumers Power Company's Big Rock Point Nuclear Power Plant near Charlevoix, in northern Michigan.

G-E officials say the horse hair provides excellent shock protection against damage to the finel machined fuel assemblies. Each fuel assembly is strapped in a horse hair cocoon, then sealed in a sturdy three-foot by three-foot steel container, weighing about 1,000 pounds.

Each assembly contains 144 fuel elements, less than one-half inch in diameter and nearly six feet long. The elements contain slightly enriched uranium dioxide (UO_2) fuel encased in stainless steel. About 350 pounds of UO_2 contained in each assembly is enough to generate 500 megawatt days of electric power.

The Big Rock Point plant, for which G.E. designed the nuclear steam supply system and supplying the nuclear fuel, is more than 95 per cent complete and is expected to start operating this month. It will produce 50,000 kilowatts of electricity when it reaches full power later this year.

School Enrollment Shows Marked Increase Over 1961

First day enrollment figures in the Charlevoix public schools hit a new high with an increase of 80 students in the kindergarten through the twelfth grade.

Increased enrollment at St. Mary's school was equally as marked with the figure jumping from 138 on opening day last year to 173 this year.

The enrollment figures in the elementary school showed an increase of 43 students or a hike from 545 on opening day in 1961 to 588 this week. Though a second kindergarten teacher has been added to the faculty to help care for the record enrollment of 118 there is one less teacher elsewhere in the school. Last year there was a combined third and fourth grade but this was eliminated when the millage issue was vetoed earlier in the year.

Enrollment in the junior high school increased from 142 to 164 students and in the high school from 200 to 315 students in the top four grades. This brings the number of students in the high school to 479, an increase from 442.

The entire enrollment on opening day was 1,087 in the public schools, and increase from 987 and 173 in the parochial school, an increase from 138.

School Census Figures Total 4,379 in County

According to figures released this week by Charles A. Robinson, Charlevoix county superintendent of schools, there were 1,474 pre-school age children in the county and 4,370 in the five through 19 age group.

The figures are the result of the school census taken in May throughout the entire county.

One of the surprising things about the census is that Charlevoix school district has a larger number of pre-school age children although the Boyne City district has the largest school age population.

The Charlevoix district had 443 children under five years of age as compared to 421 for Boyne City, 354 for East Jordan and 118 for Boyne Falls.

Boyne City, on the other hand, had a total of 1,428 in the five through 19 years age group as compared to 1,254 for Charlevoix, 1,042 for East Jordan, 235 for Boyne Falls and 214 for Melrose (Walloon Lake) district.

Patrol Boat Goes Aground Near Seven Mile Pt.

The 40 ft. patrol boat from the Charlevoix Lifeboat Station went aground near Seven Mile Point at Good Hart on the north shore of Little Traverse Bay during an early fall storm which struck the area Monday.

The patrol boat was returning from an assistance call when heavy seas caused by southwest winds up to 40 miles an hour forced the three-man crew of the craft to turn back after the vessel started taking on water, partly as the result of broken windshields. When the heavy seas threatened the patrol boat Ernest Williams, BM1, decided to beach the craft. Williams and the other crewmen, John Sagi En2 and Kenneth Griffin, SA were uninjured.

The patrol boat was dispatched from the local Coast Guard station to assist a 20 ft. inboard cruiser owned by Don Noogle of Harbor Springs which ran into difficulties enroute to its home port from a trip to Garden Island. With him were his son, Richard, George Newberry of Wequetonsing and Leslie McClelland of Petoskey. High winds and heavy seas forced Noogle to head for shore as they entered Little Traverse Bay. Noogle and Newberry made it to shore but the lines they were carrying snapped and the cruiser was carried into the bay. The two men remaining aboard started the motors and managed to bring the craft into Cross Village.

The Coast Guard was enroute to Good Hart to offer assistance when they were notified the cruiser was safe. They turned around to return to the station when they ran into trouble.

The Cutter Sundew, which had left the harbor earlier in the day, stood by during the night Monday before proceeding to Harbor Springs Tueday morning.

On Wednesday, the possibility of removing the patrol boat from the scene via land means was being considered by the U.S. Coast Guard.

City Officials Eye Proposed Sanitary Land Fill

William Marme who operates the Charlevoix Garbage Service here appeared before the City Council Monday night to discuss a proposed sanitary land fill on his property in Marion township.

The sanitary land fill would replace the present city dump in Charlevoix township and would be used by both Mr. Marme and the city. The issue was referred to committee and will be discussed at the next meeting.

Bills totaling $35,732.32 were approved and ordered paid. The total includes a payment of $2,759.52 to the Northern Marine Construction Co. of Cheboygan for Priority No. 3 (new finger piers); $1,382, Lake Construction Co. for new sidewalks and streets; $10,984.01, accounts receivable; $5,197.50, Cities Services Oil Co. for diesel fuel oil; $2,274.47, Workmen's Compensation Insurance; $1,877.49, city-used utilities and payroll, 7,798.92.

Beaver Beacon Has New Editor

The Beaver Island Beacon, a monthly mimeographed report of what happens on the Island has lost its editor, Mrs. Burdene Stromberg. The Courier commends her for the excellent job she has done the past two years.

The Beacon is not deceased, however, and we shall look forward to the next issue which will be edited by Mrs. Philip (Lillian) Gregg. Under her editorship we are sure the Beaver Island Beacon will continue to be an interesting publication, devoted to the best interests of the Island.

Best wishes to both Mrs. Stromberg in her new home away from the Island and to Mrs. Gregg whose enthusiasm about the Island will be reflected in the Beaver Island Beacon.

Mrs. Stromberg plans to leave early in October to join her husband at Wabash, Ind., where he has opened an office as an architect.

State Tax Commission Revises Co. Allocation

The Michigan State Tax Commission has reversed the action of the Charlevoix County Tax Allocation Board by awarding six mills to the county and cutting millage to the school districts to eight mills according to a communication received Friday by F. R. Bulow, county clerk.

In its final action May 25, the County Tax Allocation had allocated five mills to the county and nine to the school districts.

The action by the Michigan State Tax Commission headed by Robert A. Eckhardt, chairman, will cost the Charlevoix school district, which is already operating at a deficit, some $16,564.86.

In handing down its decision the State Tax Commission stated that "the order of the Charlevoix County Tax Allocation Board contained an error of law in that it negiected to abide by the determination of the Joint Allocation Board of Charlevoix and Antrim Counties establishing a maximum of 8 mills for school purposes. The resolution adopted by the County Tax Allocation Board at the final meeting does not show individual millage allocations but leaves a mill free presumabiy for township purposes whereas the tentative order showa one mill for all townships except one. The State Tax Commission thereupon adopted a resolution to amend the Final Order of the Charlevoix County Tax Allocation Board for 1962 as follows:

County	8 Mills
School Districts	8 mills
Townships	As allocated by the Tax Allocation Board."

The decision by the Michigan State Tax Commission followed a hearing held here Aug. 24 at which the schools, the County Tax Allocation Board and the County Board of Supervisors presented their arguments defending their actions. The Board of Supervisors filed an appeal to the State Tax Commission at a special session held May 30 following the adoption of the final allocation rate by the Tax Allocation Board May 25.

Failing Forward

The entire length of the brook that flows through our acreage is strewn with obstacles to the stream's peace. Big rocks and little rapids make the brook falter, hesitate, stumble and sprawl. The smooth flow of the stream is thwarted by decaying logs and baffled by fallen limbs. The brook is plagued by fretful frustrations and failures, suffering from back eddies and contrary cross currents, its flow interrupted by cataracts and marred by rock-strewn waterfalls. But the stream has its main direction. It is moving toward its destination in Lake Charlevoix, and it will stand for no nonsense from back eddies, cross currents and cataracts. They can exist, but they cannot control. They can get in the way but they cannot stay in the way. They can raise a ripple or a protesting wave, but they cannot succeed in rebellion against the brook's determined course. Along its way a stream is certain to be encumbered, interrupted, delayed, and it will suffer momentary failures. But even when a stream fails, it fails forward. Even when the water falls, it falls toward its goal.

Failure is no calamity, as long as one fails forward. One of the most failure-prone men who even lived was Thomas Alva Edison. In the year 1859 Edison was a twelve year-old newsboy on the Grand Trunk railroad and showed no promise whatsoever of future eminence. But while serving in this capacity he purchased a small hand press and began editing, printing and publishing a little newspaper of his own, The Grand Trunk Herald. The paper had a circulation of four hundred, mostly among railroad employees, and his work on the little journal taught him the value of hard work and the importance of accurate observation. While working for the railroad young Tom rescued a station agent's son from almost certain death, and in gratitude the boy's father taught Edison telegraphy. He soon became a telegraph operator at Mount Clemens, Michigan. But Edison failed in his job, and in several subsequent positions, due to his dislike of routine and because of his great love of reading and his bent toward invention. His failure at telegraphy led him toward full-time employment in laboratory experimentation and invention, but even in the tasks of his choice Edison slipped more frequently than he succeeded. During his prolonged and tedious efforts to perfect a storage battery he ran ten thousand unsuccessful tests. One of his fellow workers became terribly discouraged and fretfully exclaimed, "Isn't it a shame that with all this tremendous labor you haven't any results?" Edison replied, "My man, I've got lots of results. I have discovered several thousand things that won't work!" Edison stumbled, but he stumbled forward.

Albert Einstein flunked his college entrance examination in mathematics, and that early failure was not his last. He later said "I think and think, for months, for years. Ninety-nine times the conclusion is false. The hundreth time I am right."

In his autobiography Bernard Baruch reported on his failures and then said, "I have told of my failings and mistakes, if only because I have found that failure is a far better teacher than success."

Top-notch baseball players learn to bat from striking out as well as from hitting successfully. Every baseball fan knows that a perfect batting average would be one thousand. Yet the best batters in professional baseball have batting averages between three hundred and four hundred, which means that they hit safely only three or four times out of every ten times they come to bat. One man in baseball struck out thirteen hundred and thirty times, a record in the annals of the game that is unlikely to be broken. His name was Babe Ruth. But his strike-out record is not what we remember about Babe Ruth. We remember him for his home runs. When Babe Ruth failed, he failed forward.

We ought never allow ourselves to become greatly discouraged because we fail while stretching toward a worthy goal. Possibly the cappacity to stumble is our glory. The upright human is the creature that stumbles easiest and falls the hardest. Four-legged beasts are not as prone to falling as are humans, and the snake and worm can hardly fall at all. Or, to return to our parable, small puddles are not plagued by eddies, cross currents and cataracts. Streams and mighty rivers are. Puddles are not going forward; they evaporate into thin air. Streams are going somewhere, at times hesitatingly, sometimes stumblingly, but always persistently toward some rendezvous with a body of water greater than themselves.

It is not the perfection, but the direction, of your life that counts.

Bring 'em back alive every time you drive.

Antlerless deer hunting will be held concurrently with the regular firearm buck season this fall in 32 northern areas shown above where forests have been growing up and over-browsing has occurred to create serious winter food shortages for whitetails. Nearly 86,000 permits will be issued for any-deer hunting with the hope that hunters will beat winter to the draw in taking some 37,000 surplus antlerless deer. If not harvested by hunters in November, this surplus will be wasted by starvation and other causes of mortality ocer winter. Permit application cards will be available at hunting and fishing license dealers in mid-September. They are to be mailed in completed form to the Department of Conservation, Lansing 26, and postmarked not later than Oct. 10. Hunters are reminded that a large part of areas 5, 16, and 22 involve private hunting club lands. Permit applications must be made for numbered areas---not counties. No person may submit more than one application.

Decrease in State Deer Herd Blamed on Shortage of Food

Michigan's deer herd went through a hard winter last year. Deep snow came early and stayed well into spring. Temperatures were low.

But the hard-pressed deer got a break in March. The usual cold spring rains that take such a heavy toll of nearly-starved fawns, and even older deer, didn't occur. A hesvy crust on the snow permitted deer to get around and reach some food. Considering the winter, deer came into the spring in fair shape.

But there is no surplus of deer food for the coming winter in most areas and this lack makes it important that enough deer be taken by hunters this fall to avoid further losses.

Some have raised the question: After a hard winter, why shoot does and fawns? Shouldn't the herd recover for a year or two?

The Conservation Department's answer is that even after a hard winter more deer are produced than will be harvested in the next buck season. There will be about 134,000 surplus deer available for hunters this fall. These are whitetsils supplus to the herd's basic breeding population, onimals above and beyond the level of available winter food supplies.

Less than half of these will be taken during the buck season. Permit holders should take the rest. Last year, Michigan hunters took 57,880 bucks while 81,000 other deer were lost to illegal kills, starvation, and other causes. Most of these deer should have been taken legally by hunters in the 1961 season. As it was, they were left to rot in the woods, a situation the Department hopes will be diminished by special seasons planned this fall.

Hunters often complain that there are not as many deer as there used to be and "doe shooting" generally gets the blame. In the 1940's hunters in parts of the northern lower peninsula saw 20, 40, and even 100 deer in a day. Most were does and fawns, out at least they were deer.

Upper peninsula hunters didn't see that many because there were fewer deer and not enough hunters to move them around.

Today, there are not as many deer in Michigan and in some areas, particularly in the northeastern lower peninsula, there are a lot fewer deer. This is not because of over-shooting. There are fewer deer because there is less food than there used to be.

Deer feed mainly on brush and low growing trees. But brush soon grows into taller trees, out of reach of deer. Big trees also shade out other plants near the ground, which are the only food plants of value to deer. Field studies show that Michigan's deer food production is dropping three to seven percent each year.

This won't keep on forever. Timber cutting and other range improvement work will slow down the decline and a leveling off will gradually occur.

Deer management does not mean getting rid of deer, or letting nature handle the herd. It does mean shifting needless waste into a bigger legal kill. Even from a smaller herd, hunters can kill a lot of deer, but in the future some of them will have to be does and fawns—the deer that are being wasted now.

Only hunters themselves can do the job and enjoy the results.

Survey Indicates Educational Trend To Basic Subjects

Public demand for better schools, along with the rise in college admission standards and the scientific achievements of the Soviet Union, has produced marked improvement and development in education, according to Changing Times, the Kiplinger Mogazine.

Citing a recent survey of 1,500 elementary and secondary school principals, an article in the current issue of the magazine states that in the lost five years schools nave begun placing a stronger emphasis on basic subjects—science, math and foreign languages—and, in elementary schools, on the fundamentals—reading, writing, spelling and arithmetic.

The old self-contained classroom is disappearing; so is the grade system, according to the article. Many elementary and secondary schools now tend to group students by ability rather than age or grade, and many lower schools are experimenting with no grades at all.

In addition, the article notes, many subjects are being tought earlier, with elementary grades receiving science, social studies and even some algebra, and high school subjects are being moved to junior high.

As for the students,, the survey found most principals in agreement that the work demanded of pupils has increased and that there will be a growing pressure for still more work.

Margaret Jacqueline Hastings Becomes Mrs. Thomas Newhouse

Ellsworth—The Ellsworth Christian Reformed church was the scene recently of the wedding of Margaret Jacqueline Hastings and Thomas Gene Newhouse.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hastings and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Newhouse of Kalamazoo.

The Rev. Charles Dunbar of Springport officiated at the double ring service on Saturday, Sept. 1. Arrangements of Pompoms and snapdragons in autumn shades of yellow, gold and bronze and palms formed a setting for the ceremony witnessed by more than 125 guests. Mrs. Hans DeYoung of Atwood, at the organ, played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied the soloist Robt. Healey of East Jordan who sang "Thine Alone" and "The Wedding Prayer".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a full length gown of white silk organza over net and taffeta for her wedding. Chantilly lace trimmed with sequins outlined the scalloped square neckline of the princess bodice and the apron effect overskirt of the bouffant skirt. A Princess Margaret crown of Aurorea Borealis crystals and seedpearls secured her elbow length veil of imported English illusion Her cascade bouquet was of white rosebuds, daisy mums and ivy.

Kathleen Essenberg of Grand Rapids, as maid of honor, wore a modified sheath gown of gold satin, matching pillbox and short veil and accessories and carried a cascade bouquet of bronze daisy mums.

Marcia Ritzema of Grand Rapids and Carol Peebles of Charlevoix wore gowns and accessories identical to the honor attendant's in beige and cinnamon, respectively, and carried bouquets of yellow daisy mums.

James Newhouse of Kalamazoo assisted his brother as best man. Another brother, John Newhouse and Douglas McArthur of Kalamazoo and John Hastings, brother of the bride, seated the guests.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors. A tiered double cake joined by an arched bridge was a feature of the refreshment table. The cake was made by Mrs. Duane Seelye of Boyne City who also served as mistress of ceremonies. Assisting were Mrs. George Koster, Mr. Cornelius Hoogendorn of Kalamazoo, aunt of the bridegroom, Mary Beth Blue of Midland, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. John Newhouse of Kalamazoo. The Ellsworth Junior Aid was in charge of the reception. Mrs. Lary Dawson of Big Rapids, Mrs. James Coplas of Ypsilanti and Mrs. Walter Johnson of Bellaire opened the gifts.

After a wedding trip through the Upper Peninsula, the couple will reside at 504 Lake st. in Kalamazoo.

The bride is a 1959 graduate of the Ellsworth high school and a 1962 graduate of Bronson Methodist Hospital School of Nursing in Kalamazoo. Mr. Newhouse is a graduste of Portage high school in Kalamazoo and is a student at Western Michigan University.

Wedding guests were present from Kalamazoo, Grand Rapids, Flint, Ypsilanti, Springport, Lansing, Midland, Petoskey, Charlevoix, East Jordan, Boyne City and Central Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Newhouse of Kalamazoo hosted a buffet luncheon at the Ellsworth community hall preceding the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Seelye prepared and served the luncheon to the members of the bridal party and their immediate families.

The Agriculture Industry in Michigan and throughout the nstion is looking to its teenagers for the future leadership which will improve its contribution to the economy.

In Michigan there are some 11,183 youtha involved in the Future Farmers of America Chapter, the organization from which is expected to come the leaders of agriculture in the years ahead.

Walter W. Wightman, president of the Michigan Farm Bureau, credits the Future Farmers of America with outstanding contributions to both the agriculture industry and the youth involved.

There are 22 FFA chapters in Michigan alone.

"Out of a group of this size with the kind of training they are getting there is bound to come some outsanding agriculure leadership," Wightman said. "And as we look ahead to the future, it is evident that agriculture is going to need more of this kind of leadership."

The FFA members gain knowledge in all phases of farming: from specific instruction in the use of modern machines being developed, to the minute details of keeping financial records.

Led by adults but self-governed and directed, the FFA aims to provide an educational and social experience for the nation's youth who are interested in farming.

The adult leaders "are dedicated men who fully realize the importance of teaching the American heritage to our younger generation," Wightman said.

The organization'a aim is fully embodied in its motto: "Learning to do; doing to learn; earning to live; living to serve."

AN INDIVIDUAL MEASURES the costs of a motoring trip in terms of the funds needed to operate the car, purchase food, and buy clothes and souvenirs for and during the trip.

The costs of an unsafe auto journey, however, can be astounding, according to state aafety officials.

Through mid-July, for example, fatal traffic accidents in Michigan cost an estimated $128,700,000. This is based on a yardstick set hy the National Safety Council for estimating the cost of traffic fatalities.

With 715 deaths on Michigan highways through mid-July, the cost of each fatilitiy averaged $180,000. This included the calculahie costs of wage loss, medical expense overhead cost of insurance, and property damage.

Gerald Shipman, executive secretary of Michigan's Safety Council, emphaized the dollar value placed on a highway death is an incomplete figure, however. The portion left out is worth thought.

"There is no way to chart the pain and auffering of theinjured, or the problems the relatives of the deceased have for years after their loved one is gone," he said.

THE GREATER MICHIGAN FOUNDATION, which annually organizes the Michigan Week observance, is branching out into other activities.

Among the foundation's latest plans is an event to he called "Operaion Progress: U.P." A series of one-day conferences are scheduled across the Northern Peninsula to discuss ways of deveiopment in the future.

Dr. Edgar L. Harden, president of Northern Michigan College at Marquette, was named to head the program.

Scheduled for October, the conferences in a numher of U.P. cities will cover key suhjects for aevelopment of the area. Plans are also under way, through the State Economic Development Department, to gain federal funds for redevelopment projects in the U.P.

"Our program will examine the progress the Upper Peninsula has made in recent years and its great potential for progress in the coming years," Harden said. "I am confident it will show the Upper Peninsula to advantage to people outside the area."

TECHNICAL IMPROVEMENTS in methods of keeping records and cutting costs saved the state $2.5 million in the fiscal year which ended June 30, according to State Controller Ira Polley.

Polley reported on request from Gov. John B. Swainson that elminated efforts by staff members, and some elimination of personnel were accomplished during the year through a variety of uses of modern methods and employe ideas.

The major savings, he said, came through improved methods of purchasing gasoline and coal; records management; printing of forms; filing system changes; and reprodurtion systems.

The Controller emphasized the savings did not result in any return of appropriated operating funds. Rather, they cut down costs to meet available funds.

AGRICULTURE in ACTION .....

by M. L. Woell
MICHIGAN FARM BUREAU

Second-Class Citizen?

In view of the political mishmash thrown at farmers in the way of "farm" programs, it's a wonder all of agriculture hasn't risen in political revolution. Instead, farmers remain least active of many groups when it comes to personal involvement in politics.

"People who pay for something are more aware of its value," says one precinct worker now ringing doorbells to collect funds. This worker and others like him have found that farmers are particularly lax when it comes to political party finances.

Perhaps chief among the reasons why farmers remain aloof has heen the feeling that political partles are the creations of big-city machines and that farmers at hest would be ignored,—much less welcomed.

For years too, some farm leaders promoted the idea that agriculture's legislative strength was closely tied to strict "non-political" activity. Only late years have they realized that non-polltical, in a llteral sense, means neutrality. Farmers are far from neutral on many issues these days.

Thanks to a dedicated group of farm leaders, all this is changing. Responsible farm groups are now making it plain that regardless of organization policy, individual members have direct, local political responsibilities of a partisan nature.

To quote from Dean Pridgeon, Branch county farmer who heads the state-wide Farm Bureau Citizenship Committee . . . "although Farm Bureau is non-partisan in developing policies and bi-partisan in placing them into effect, we made it clear to each member that he is shirking responsihility if he does not work within the political party of his choice."

Belatedly perhaps, education in citizenship has become a major farm project. Farmers are learning to discern between emotion and economics, hetween expediency and experience. They are showing a willingness to let what they have learned ruh off on those party hopefuls seeking election to public office.

The awakening cannot help hut improve American Government. From the time of the Lexington Minutemen, American farmers have heen front-line policy decision makers.

Only late years and only in areas of personal political influence, have they allowed themselves to become second-class citizens.

Suggests Methods For Rejuvinating Dying Maple Trees

Several calls have been made in the last few weeks to home owners concerned about their maple tress, Ed Rebman, County Extension Director said today. The condition causing most concern is the dying of a few branches on otherwise healthy trees. In addition to considerable large branch dying, the failure of branches in the tops of trees has also been reported and observed.

Results of personal examination of affected trees showed some of the following: (1) Dry soil conditions have been found to be prevalent in the tree root asea of many trees along streets, in parks and on residetiatl properties. (2) Many of the osder maples have outgrown their enviroment which will no longer support the vigorous growth of large trees because of insufficient Packing of the soil over the roots moisture and soil nutrients. (3) of ailing trees has been observed in several cases. (4) Snow removal salts have caused injury to roots with subsequent branch dying in a few cases. (5) Heavy turf lawns growing up close to affected tree, and (6) Lawn mower scars on young trees.

There is no singie cause of the dying of branches here and there in the trees, and general lack of vigor as evidenced by small yellowish leaves; this injury cannot be attributed to any parasitic organism and resultant "epidemic" disease.

Remedial measures in most cases will be applications of soil-soaking waterings at 10 to 14 days intervals from the last week in June until the middle of September and fertilizing of weakened trees with a complete commercial fertilizer fairly high in nitrogen, at the rate of 3 pounds of fertilizer per inch of dismeter of the tree trunk. After leaf fall, the fertilizer should be applied through perpendicuiar holes in the soil 15 to 18 inches deep. The holes may be made with a punch bar and should be about 2 ft. apart located in the srea beneath the overhang of the branches. Follow fertilization with a soil-soaking watering.

Remove all dead end dying branches. In some cases, pruning out a few of the less vigorous branches will balance the top against loss of roots by various causes.

There Is Time

Frequently somebody says: "There is time. All you need to do is to take it."

What is time? Today is time.

Most everybody at some time or another has said: "Someday I am going to do thus-and-so." Most of our days are lived considering the future. Some wait for the weather to clear, some for conditions to improve and some for a dream ship to come in.

What about the present? What about this day?

Time is a gift from God and what are we doing with it? Yesterday is gone forever leaving but a memory—a result. Tomorrow may never come. But today. It is here. It is a gift we can use wisely or unwisely.

We who hesitate in accepting our gift must reconcile our actions—to offer excuses to ourselves and to others: "I didn't have the time . . . . If I were only younger . . . Do you think I could do it?"

Maybe we cannot achieve something that has existed in our dreams. But we can try. Today is the only time in which the opportunity for trying is assured us.

Those who put off until tomorrow what they could attempt today are merely creating an image of defeat. God gives us the gift of time. We can return that gift in our best efforts.

Someone has said that tension is caused by worrying about yesterday and tomorrow. Our best effort in making today a better day will give us enough to do without worrying about tomorrow . . . or weeping about what has transpired.

A lifetime can be lived in a fleeting moment.

You have more than a fleeting moment. There are 24 hours at your disposal today. What you do with them is entirely up to you. Soon today will have become another fruitful, or another wasted, yesterday.—Everett (Wash.) Daily Herald

Actually our founding fathers had some things down pretty pat. They believed that after the divinity of God nothing is so sacred as the dignity of the individual . . They didn't believe in Communism, Fascism or Socialism. They believed in the free enterprise and the equalizing system of profit and loss as opposed to totalitarian regimentation.—Florence, Ala., Herald.

BETWEEN YOU AND ME

- By Harold E. Kohn -

Eternal God,
Who hast drawn across the day
The restful, quieting curtains of the night,
Cushion our thoughts,
our concerns,
our anxieties and our dreams
in

Thou who holdest
in
Thy hands
The farthest galaxies of stars,
Lift every burden from our hearts.
We press
our weakness close to Thy strength.

May Thy gift of untroubled sleep
Prepare us for tomorrow,
and
for our Eternal Home.

Cong. Knox Replies

September 12, 1962

Mr. Warren P. Cleary
1010 South 7th Avenue
Escanaba, Michigan

Dear Mr. Cleary:

Your letter of Sept 6, 1962, containing a rather inane observation relative to the entitlement of the people of Northern Michigan to know about my record of public service over the past 11 years has been received. It has always been my view that my constituents were entitled to know the facts concerning my entire 34 years of public service.

For that reason I have regularly endeavored to report to the people both during and after legislative sessions. I sincerely regret that your continued absence from the area for the past 10 years or more have precluded general agreement that my record is an open book of dedicated service in the best interest of the people of Northern Michigan and the Nation. I think it is highly desirable that any candidate for political office should responsibly and truthfully discuss his position on public issues. I have in the past and will in the future maintain this practice. I commend such a course to you.

I suggest it is a serious error for you to question the perceptiveness of the voters of the 11th District. Two years of the New Frontier have caused deep citizen concern over the Kennedy Administration's attempt to meet every problem by spending more and going further into debt; by its constant desire to bring about more government control; by its dedication to welfare-statism; and by its timidity in foreign policy. I assure you the voters are aware of the issues and they know where I stand on these issues.

During my ten years in the Congress, I have, at the end of each yearly session, returned to the 11th District and met with thousands of my constituents informing them as to my views and votes on issues, and the reason therefore. I have a duty to perform as the elected Representative to the Congress, and until the faltering leadership and confusion of the present Democrat Administration consents to adjournment, my time will of necessity largely be spent in Washington working in behalf of the interests of the people of the 11th District.

Your challenge to debate is a familiar and obvious one in the field of politics. I regret that my obligations in Washington and Michigan will preclude my helping you achieve a larger audience for your requests for support. May I suggest that as an alternative you seek to stimulate public interest by making arrangements for Governor Swainson to debate you on the issues of reapportionment in the State, highway advertising signs, and the failure to attract new industries to Michigan. If that is not feasible you may succeed in getting a Kennedy Administration spokesman to join you in a debate on the failure of the New Frontier to deliver on its campaign pledges of employment, peace, and government thrift. Other topics might include worsening conditions in Cuba, the Berlin Wall, and the abandonment of Laos to a Communist take-over similar to what occurred in China under Truman and Acheson.

You have chosen to release the contents of your letter to the press prior to my having an opportunity to respond. In the interest of making complete information on this subject available to the public, I am constrained to similarly release this communication to you.

Yours truly,
Victor A. Knox, M.C.

JINGLE! JANGLE! JINGLE!... That's what this year's multi-million-dollar Michigan Bell payroll does to cash registers all over the state. We are the state's fourth largest employer (excepting government), and our employees spend most of their earnings right here at home. They buy all sorts of things vital to Michigan's economy: cars, food, homes, appliances, clothing, recreation—to mention just a few. Michigan Bell jobs help keep cash registers jingling all over the state, adding extra vigor to Michigan's growing economy.

THE COOK'S BEST FRIEND is her kitchen extension phone. When it rings she can answer right where she's cooking — avaid burned steaks and ruined sauces. Besides the canvenience af a spoce-saving Princess ar wall phone, the attractive calor will add a bright nate to any kitchen. The cost? Only pennies a day. Why not include a new extensian phone in your Fix-Up-far-Fall progrom?

A YEAR ON THE PHONE! That does seem like a lot of time. But a recent survey shows that the average person spends 8,760 hours (or 365 days) of his life talking on the phoae. When you consider how much longer it would take to do all the many things that need getting done day after day without your telephone, perhaps it doesn't seem so long, after all. Amazing, isn't it, the amount of time, money, inconvenience and worry the phone saves each of us over the years. Put yours to work for you often.

Michigan Mirror

THE COMPLEXION OF THE Michigan Legislature in 1963 is very likely to present a sharp contrast to that of recent years.

Nine members of the State Senate definitely will not return. Seven seats were vacated by the incumbents voluntarily and two prominent Republican members, Kalamazoo's Sen. Carlton H. Morris and Sen. Charles R. Feenstra of Grand Rapids, were ousted in primary contests.

In the House, upsets in primary election races and voluntary "retirements" put 21 seats up for grabs by new hopefuls.

Known Changes would give a minimum 30 new members in the two houses.

In addition, however, there are still a few districts in the state where neither party has a tight hold on official positions and further upsets of incumbents could result.

In Oakland and Macomb counties for example, population shifts and various other factors have changed the election returns in recent years. Part of Muskegon county also is considered in the "swing district" category.

The two major parties are watching the House races particularly in the current campaign. The few strategic "swing districts" could mean the difference between control of the chamber, which had a 55-55 split when the 1958 votes were counted and Republicans held a bare 56-54 majority during the last session.

MICHIGAN'S THIRD international bridge is expected to give the state a new tourist attraction as well as a transportation link.

The International Bridge at Sault Ste. Marie in the eastern end of the Upper Peninsula is scheduled to be opened late this fall. Estimated cost of the span over the Soo Locks and St. Mary's River is $20 million.

State Highway Department officials said ferries carrying traffic between the two cities named Sault Ste. Marie were taxed beyond capacity during the past several months.

Dedication of the bridge will mark the end of the ferry service across the river. The ferry service just east of the giant locks was established in 1999.

The new gateway linking Michigan with Canada is expected to draw tourists from the north as well as those seeking to travel in the Canadian provinces, State Tourist Council officials said.

Michigan's other international bridges, the Ambassador Bridge at Detroit and the Blue Water Bridge at Port Huron, also are highly regarded for their tourist-attracting power.

BOATERS IN MICHIGAN next summer may find a host of new rules and regulations governing their activities, depending on the success of a new committee established by the Legislature.

The Boating Control Committee was created to promote water safety through more uniform boating regulations.

Headed by a member of the Secretary of State's office Harold E. Bradshaw the committee is authorized to recommend whatever controls seem necessary to protect public safety on local waters.

The committee is empowered to set boat speed limits and zones, regulate the size and horsepower of boat motors, and establish hour restrictions on motorboats.

It may also direct the marking of special areas to reserve them for navigation, boating, swimming, fishing or other single purpose activities.

Bradshaw emphasized the law provides that all recommendations of the committee are subject to acceptance by local units of government. Enforcement of the regulations will be done by local authorities.

FUTURE PLANNING in aviation service for Michigan will be partially based on a recent survey conducted throughout the state under the direction of the Department of Aeronautics.

"Aviation Fact Finder" involved thousands of flights and plane passengers in Michigan in late July.

The airlines kept track of passenger origin and destination and asked each passenger to fill out an economic information post card. Volunteer interviewers questioned the pilots of general aviation aircraft before take-off and after landing.

James D. Ramsey, state aeronautics director, said the results of the survey will not be known until the end of the year.

"The results will be used to provide the statistical basis to enable sound planning here to allow our state to take advantage of the transportation and economic value of aviation in the years to come," he said.

One typical day during the survey, drawn out of the file as a sample, showed 512 interviews recorded almost 4,000 general aviation aircraft operations. Passenger information cards were not fully returned for the sample day said Ramsey.

Agriculture ... in Action

Farm Menace

Michigan farmers need help in meeting a major crop menace head-on. City people are involved too,—as is anyone who likes green turf, lovely gardens, flowers, or vegetables. And who would welcome bare golf courses?

A horde of voracious Japanese Beetles is sweeping across the Ohio border, spilling into southern Michigan counties,—solidly infesting some 80,000 acres of prime farming land in Monroe and Lenawee counties with a sprinkling of spot infestations to the north. If unchecked, all of lower Michigan will succumb to the pest which feeds on over 275 host plants including major tree fruits.

In some areas, the beetles are so thick that housewives complain of them getting in their hair. Upwards of 100 of the half-inch beetles have been reported feasting on a single ripe peach.

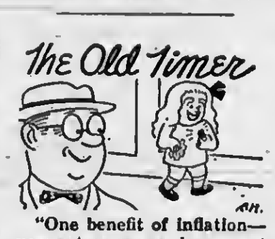
Bad as losses are from direct mutilation by beetles (in some golf courses, the turf is loose, efficiently detached from below by the burrowing beetle grubs in larval state)—the greater economic damage is tied to possible quarantines to prevent further spread. "During the flight of the beetle, covering about a three-month period, no agricultural produce can be moved out of the quarantined area without 'certification'" report officials of the Michigan Department of Agriculture. Certification procedures will vary with commodities, but in the case of grain, fumigation is included.

What's to be done? Mobilization of money and manpower can halt the march of Japanese Beetles into all of Michigan. Effective cradication is possible at a cost of around $480,000—or six dollars per treated acre.

In view of the many millions of potential direct damage, plus other millions lost in fumigation and other quarantine measures, $480,000 is a minor sum.

It may require appropriations by a special session of the legislature,—and in Michigan'a currently highly-charged political atmosphere, anything can happen, including attempts to use the occasion to gain political advantage.

If statesmanship is applied by the Govenor, his staff and members of the legislature, this won't happen. The Japanese Beetle problem is too important for party politics. At stake is the future of Michigan agriculture, —our second largest industry.



"One benefit of inflation—youngsters can no longer get sick on a nickel's worth of candy."

Rayders Bow to Rogers City in Opener

Saved from Shut-out In Final Quarter

The Charlevoix Rayders found themselves at the short end of a 34 to 12 score following Friday night's game during which Rogers City was in command most of the time.

The visitors took the opening kick-off and in a series of three first downs moved the ball to the two where Jay Robarge went in the conversion point to give the Hurons an early lead.

The Rayders came through in the final period with two touchdowns thus preventing a shut-out.

Following the first Rogers City touchdown, Charlevoix took the kickoff and after failing to pick up any yardage was forced to punt. The Hurons on the next series of plays, were also unable to move anod punted out of danger. On the next series of plays, the Rayders fumbled with Rogers City recovering on the Charlevoix 36 as the quarter ended.

The visitors moved to the three where Charlevoix recovered a fumble. Two plays later Rogers City intercepted a Rayder pass on the nine and scored on the next play with Connie Konieczny going the distance with 6:23 remaining in the half. The attempt ed kick was wide.

The remainder of the half was marked by penalties, an exchange of punts and a recovered fumble by Rogers City.

Charlevoix took the kickoff to open the second half and picked up a first down on their own 32 but failed to pick up necessary yardage on the next series of plays and gave up the ball on the 37 yard line.

On a series of six line plays the Hurons marched the ball to the one yard line where Robarge went in for his second TD. Bannon booted the conversion with 3:37 remaining in the third period.

Three plays later Jim Paradike scored from the one-foot line with Bannon booting the conversion but the Hurons were offside and the penalty was refused thus nullifying the extra point.

Rogers City kicked off to Charlevoix but the player was jarred loose from the ball with Rogers City recovering the fumble. They then marched from their own 48 to the 30 yard line from where Konieczny broke away to score. Bannon's conversion kick was good and made the score 33 to 0.

On the kickoff, Charlevoix'a Frank Curtis returned the ball to the Rogers City two and then went into score to give the Rayders' their first tally. The kick was not good and the acore remained 33 to 6.

Rogers City took the Rayders' kickoff and after two major penalities which moved them back from the 38 to the 16 were forced to punt with the Rayders taking over on the Rogers City 43 yard line.

Two pass playa from Quarterback John Pearl to End Bruce Kroken and a line play by Dave Smith gave the Rayders a first down on the Hurons 12. With 37 seconds remaining, Curtis went in to score. The conversion kick was wide.

Rayders to Host Pellston Hornets Friday in First Conference Game

The Charlevoix Rayders will host the Pellston Hornets, the "dark horse" of the Northern Michigan Class C league, in the opening game of the conference scheduled at Kipke field Friday night.

The meeting with Rogers City which the Rayders lost by a 33 to 12 score, was a non-league game.

Elsewhere in the league, Boyne City will entertain Harbor Springs, East Jordan will travel to Gaylord and Mancelona will invade Grayling.

This week Coach Carey and his Rayders will concentrate on tightening their defense and sharpening their offense in order to correct many of the shortcomings which showed up in Friday's game.

At times the Raydera looked sharp, evidence that they could develop into a well-balanced outfit with hard work.

The game with Charlevoix this week will mark Pellston's first game of the season as well as their first under Coach Tom St. Germaine who has taken over the gridiron duties from Francis 'Mac' McMahon.

Sparked by several veterans including ends Stan Bodzick and Ken Cassidy, who weigh 180 and 200 pounds respectively, Tackle Vern Hiar, Center Toady Bonter, junior signal-caller, Mike Thompson, who did such a good job last season and Roland Lempke, 160 pound back, who was benched with a knee injury at mid-season last year, the Hornets look like an outfit that will be hard to beat.

The Rayders will have their work cut out for them during the coming weeks but Friday is apt to be their toughest game. Right now the outcome looks like a tossup.

After singing the blues at the loss of nine of their regular players via graduation, the Boyne City Ramblers have come up with a young team that has a lot of desire and which displayed their potential against the Class B Petoskey outfit last weekend. Harbor Springs was hurt equally as much by graduation but, thus far, has been unable to snap back.

Paced by Larry Gunderson, who is beginning his third year as field general, the Ramblers can be expected to be strong defenders of the title they now hold. The Rams, however, will have to shape up fast if they hope to stay in the race. Unless they let down, the Ramblers can be expected to come through with a win.

Gaylord and East Jordan will clash on the former's field in a game that should be a close one all the way. The Blue Devils lost to Cheboygan last week but the Red Devils edged Kalkaska by only a one-point margin. With many returnees in both line-ups, this is another game which could go either way with the teams taking advantage of the breaks emerging the victor.

Grayling put up a good scrap against Harrison last week and lost by two points while Mancelona, with only a few regulars returning, was snowed under by Oscoda. But the Ironmen are a tenacious outfit and will be out to avenge last week's loss when they invade Viking territory this week. The Vikings have an experienced nucleus around which to operate and should be able to move out of the league cellar this season if they develop as anticipated. This week will tell the story, as far as both teams are concerned.

Two NMCC Football Teams Rack Up Victories Friday

While two Northern Michigan Class C teams were racking up wins over non-league opponents, five others were falling victim to non-conference teams.

Boyne City came through with a 20 to 13 victory over Petoskey and East Jordan edged Kalkaska 7 to 6 while Charlevoix was losing to Rogers City 34 to 12: Cheboygon was trimming Gaylord 18 to 6; Oscoda was romping over Mancelona 28 to 6; Grayling was losing to Harrison 14 to 12 and Petoskey St. Francis was rolling over Harbor Springs 10 to 0.

Boyne City 20 Petoskey 13

Playing at Petoskey, Larry Gunderson, one of two returning veterans, came through for the Ramblers, scoring two touchdowns, two conversions and passing for the team'a third tally.

Gunderson scored on an 62 yard run in the second period to tie the score after Halfback Harold Keck had plunged over from the two yard line to give the Northmen a six-point first quarter lead.

Early in the third period, Petoskey recovered a Boyne City fumble on the 34 yard line and worked the ball to the three from where Halfback Jerry Hand went in to score. He then replaced his steps to add the point after touchdown.
